January one thousand nine hundred.

L. S.

Privy Council Office, 3rd March, 1900.

THE following Statute, made on the twenty-fourth day of January, one thousand nine hundred, by the Governing Body of Worcester College, Oxford, and sealed on the thirtieth day of January, one thousand nine hundred, has been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

Ex parte the Provost and Fellows of Worcester College in the University of Oxford.

A Statute made to amend a Statute framed by the Commissioners appointed under "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877" (40 and 41 Victoria chapter 48) in relation to Worcester College in the University of Oxford duly passed at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for this purpose on the twenty-fourth day of January one thousand nine hundred by the votes of the whole number of persons present and voting and submitted to Her Majesty the Queen in Council.

Whereas in Statute III, 16, of the Statutes of Worcester College in the University of Oxford it is enacted (inter alia) as follows:—"There shall always be at least two unmarried Fellows, being Tutors or Lecturers of the College, resident in rooms within the College during the usual College terms."

And whereas it appears to us the said Provost and Fellows of the said College that it is desirable that the said Statute shall be so altered and amended as to enable the College to avail itself of the services of a married Fellow, being a Tutor or Lecturer of the College, or of two such married Fellows, for the purposes of the said Statute.

Now we the Provost and Fellows of the said College in exercise of the powers vested in us under and by virtue of the fifty-fourth section of "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877" do by this present Instrument under our Seal alter and amend Statute III, 16, of the Statutes of the said College as hereinbefore set out by omitting the word "unmarried" from the said Statute.

Given under our Common Seal this thirtieth day of January one thousand nine hundred.
