

ships on this Foundation shall not be limited in respect of age. With this exception."

In the same clause line three shall be omitted the word "age."

In clause six (now clause seven) line one after the word "Scholarship" shall be inserted the words "or Exhibition."

In the same clause line three after "present himself" the words "the Scholarship shall be declared" shall be struck out, and there shall be substituted the words "or if such candidates present themselves, and the electors shall not judge any one to be of sufficient merit for election as Scholar or Exhibitioner, it shall be lawful for the Rector and Fellows to declare the Scholarship or Exhibition."

In the same clause line four the words from "But if such" down to the words "open for that turn" shall be struck out, and there shall be substituted the words "A King Charles the First's Scholarship when thrown open shall be subject to the same regulations in respect of value as the Foundation Scholarships."

In the same clause line twelve the words "If there be no candidate of sufficient merit for an Exhibition, the Rector and Fellows shall suspend such Exhibition and" shall be struck out, and there shall be substituted the words "If at any time the Rector and Fellows shall suspend a Scholarship or Exhibition, they shall."

After clause six (now clause seven) shall be inserted a new clause:—

"8. Provided that a sum of not less than two hundred and fifty pounds annually be reserved for the above-mentioned Scholarships and Exhibitions, it shall be lawful for the Rector and Fellows from time to time to establish and award Senior Scholarships on King Charles the First's Foundation. Such Senior Scholarships shall be limited to unmarried British Subjects born in Jersey or Guernsey, or in one of the islands adjacent to them, or educated either at Victoria College in Jersey, or at Elizabeth College in Guernsey for at least two years between the ages of fifteen and nineteen, who have passed all the examinations required for the degree of Bachelor of Arts in the University of Oxford, or are Students reading for the degree of Bachelor of Civil Law or of Science or of Letters in the University of Oxford.

"Such Senior Scholarships shall not exceed one hundred and fifty pounds in annual value, and shall be tenable for not more than two years in the first instance. But it shall be lawful for the Rector and Fellows, if they think fit, to re-elect a Senior Scholar annually, provided that the whole period of the tenure of his Scholarship shall not exceed five years from the date of his first election. The Rector and Fellows shall at the time of the election or re-election of a Senior Scholar prescribe the conditions under which his Scholarship shall be held. If a Senior Scholar shall marry, or be elected to another Scholarship, or to a Fellowship, in any College of the University, or shall be guilty of grave misconduct, or shall fail to conform to the conditions under which his Scholarship is held, the Rector and Fellows shall have the power of depriving him of his Scholarship without any right of appeal."

That at the end of Statute V another subdivision shall be added as follows:—

"The Senior Scholars.

"It shall be lawful for the Rector and Fellows from time to time, if the state of the revenues permit, to establish Senior Scholarships, which shall be open to members of the University under twenty-five years of age who have taken or are qualified to take the degree of Bachelor of Arts, and produce satisfactory testimonials of moral character, and are unmarried, and have been, or shall within three months of their election be, accepted by the University as candidates for a research degree, and who shall conform to any other conditions which the Rector and Fellows may deem fit at the time of their election to prescribe. Notice of such Scholarships shall be given by the Rector or, in his absence, by the Sub-Rector in the way which in his judgment will best secure publicity. The election may be made with or without examination of the candidates as the Rector and Fellows shall from time to time determine. Senior Scholarships shall be of the annual value of one hundred pounds, and shall be tenable for two years from the date of election and shall then determine. A Senior Scholar shall not be re-eligible. If a Senior Scholar shall be elected to another Scholarship or to a Fellowship in any College of the University, or shall marry, or shall be guilty of grave misconduct, or if the Rector and Fellows shall be dissatisfied with his diligence and progress in study, or if he shall fail to comply with any special conditions prescribed for the tenure of his Scholarship, the College shall have the power of depriving him of his Scholarship without any right of appeal."

The College Seal was ordered to be affixed to the above amendments at a meeting of the Rector and Fellows being the Governing Body of the College held on the sixteenth day of March, 1900.

Privy Council Office, May 15, 1900.

THE following Statute, made on the twenty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred, by the Governing Body of New College, Oxford, and sealed on the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand nine hundred, has been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

STATUTE to alter and amend the Statutes framed by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, 40 and 41, Vict. cap. 48, and approved by the Queen in Council on the third day of May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two in relation to New College in the University of Oxford, in the matter of Residence of Probationer Fellows, such amending Statute being duly made at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for this purpose, held on the twenty-first day of March one thousand nine hundred and passed by the unanimous votes of those present and voting.

For Statute III, clause 18, to substitute the following:—"18. Subject to the exceptions hereinafter mentioned, every person elected to an Ordinary Fellowship shall remain a Probationer Fellow for one year from the day of his election, and until he shall have been resident in the University for three Terms after his election; Easter and Trinity Terms being counted for this purpose as one Term.

"Residence in each Term shall for the purposes of this clause mean pernoctation during forty-two nights of Full Term: and the whole of the residence required shall be completed in the first
