

Privy Council Office, May 15, 1900.

THE following Statutes, made on the sixteenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred, by the Governing Body of Jesus College, Oxford, have been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of their having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

Statutes to alter and amend the Statutes framed by the Commissioners appointed under "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877," 40 and 41 Victoria cap. 48, and approved by the Queen in Council on the third day of May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two in relation to Jesus College in the University of Oxford, in particular the schedule relating to King Charles the First's Trust, such amending Statutes being duly made at a general meeting of the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for this purpose held on the sixteenth day of March one thousand nine hundred, and passed by the unanimous vote of those present and voting, in accordance with section 54 of "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877."

Clause 2, line 5. For £80 read £100.

Add to clause 2. "In the case of any Scholar or Exhibitor who after entering the College shall be proved to require and deserve further assistance at the University, the Principal and Fellows shall have power to increase the value of his Scholarship or Exhibition beyond the sums hereinbefore mentioned.

"If at the expiration of two years from the day of admission of a King Charles the First's Scholar or Exhibitor, the Principal and Fellows are not sufficiently satisfied with the industry and good conduct of such Scholar or Exhibitor to renew the tenure of his Scholarship or Exhibition for a further term of two years, they shall have power to make for him such provision as they shall see fit out of the amount receivable by the College on account of the Foundation of King Charles the First, and applied to the maintenance of King Charles the First's Scholarships and Exhibitions."

Clause 4, line 18. Omit "but they shall employ the emoluments of any vacant or suspended Scholarship, &c." to the end of clause 4.

Clause 5. Omit the existing clause, and read:—

"Whenever a King Charles the First's Scholarship or Exhibition shall be vacant, if no candidate shall offer himself duly qualified according to clause 3, or if such candidates shall offer themselves, and the electors shall not consider any one of them to be of sufficient merit for election as Scholar or Exhibitor, the Scholarship or Exhibition shall be thrown open for that turn under the same regulations as apply to the Open Foundation Scholarships and Exhibitions, provided that the value of a Scholarship when so thrown open shall not exceed £80 per annum."

Clause 8. Add a new clause, and read:—

"The Principal and Fellows may out of the amount receivable by the College on account of the Foundation of King Charles the First, and applied to the maintenance of King Charles the First's Scholarships and Exhibitions, elect to a Graduate or Senior Scholarship, not exceeding in value £150 per annum, any person who was born in Jersey or Guernsey or in one of the islands adjacent to them or was educated either at Victoria College in Jersey or at Elizabeth College in Guernsey for at least two out of the three years next preceding his matriculation or who at the time of his leaving school was eligible for a King Charles the First's Scholarship, and who is also qualified for the degree of Bachelor of Arts in the University of Oxford, or is a student reading for the degree of Bachelor of Science or Bachelor of Letters in the University of Oxford. Such Scholarship shall be tenable in the first instance for two years, but the Principal and Fellows shall have power to renew the same for further periods, provided that the tenure of such Scholarship shall in no case exceed five years in all from the day of election. But no such Scholarship shall be awarded unless the amount devoted to Scholarships and Exhibitions tenable by Undergraduates as provided in clause 2 shall reach the sum of at least £250 per annum. The Principal and Fellows shall prescribe the conditions under which such Scholarship shall be held, and if a person holding such Scholarship shall be guilty of grave misconduct or shall fail to conform to the conditions under which his Scholarship is held, the Principal and Fellows shall have power to deprive him of such Scholarship without any right of appeal. In all cases such Scholarship shall be vacated on marriage."
