

named patrons being commonly known as 'the Trustees of the late Lord Crewe's Charity') (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Hexham and of the said parochial chapelry of Shotley which are described in the Schedule hereunder written all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Helen Whitley situate as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Helen Whitley.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Helen Whitley comprising:—

"I. All that portion of the parish of Hexham in the county of Northumberland and in the diocese of Newcastle which is situate to the south and to the south-east of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the parish of Corbridge in the said county and diocese from the parish of Hexham aforesaid, at the confluence of Devil's Water and West Dipton Burn and extending thence generally westward up the middle of the said burn for a distance of three miles and a half or thereabouts to the point opposite Winnowty Crags where the boundary which divides the Urban District of Hexham from the civil parish of Hexhamshire Low Quarter meets the boundary which divides the said civil parish of Hexhamshire Low Quarter from the civil parish of Hexhamshire West Quarter, and extending thence generally southward along the last-mentioned civil parish boundary for a distance of one mile and five chains or thereabouts to the point where it crosses the road which leads from Hexham past Dipton Mill and Channelwell House across Greenrigg Moor and over Rebel Hill towards Staward Railway Station and extending thence westward along the middle of the said road for a distance of two miles and five chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Hexham from the parish or parochial chapelry of Allendale in the county and diocese aforesaid save and except from the above described portion of the parish of Hexham aforesaid. All that part thereof which is situate to the south of the river called Devil's Water.

"II. And also all that contiguous portion of the parochial chapelry of Shotley in the county and diocese aforesaid which is comprised within and is coextensive with all that detached portion of the ancient township of Newbiggin which is now included in the civil parish of Shotley High Quarter."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Newcastle.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 7th day of August, 1900.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and twenty-four duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the tenth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the patronage of the benefice (being a rectory) of East Anstey situate in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter by way of exchange for the patronage of the benefice (being a vicarage) of Shernbourne with Fring situate in the county of Norfolk and in the diocese of Norwich.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of East Anstey belongs to His Royal Highness Albert Edward Prince of Wales and his heirs and assigns.

"And whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Shernbourne with Fring belongs to the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Norwich and their successors.

"And whereas His said Royal Highness and the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Norwich have respectively signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said two benefices of East Anstey and Shernbourne with Fring may be rearranged by way of exchange in the manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas we have made due inquiry and calculation as to the circumstances and relative value of the said two benefices and of the patronage thereof respectively and we do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council that the circumstances and present values of the said two benefices are as set forth in the Schedule hereunto annexed.

"Now therefore with the consent of His said Royal Highness Albert Edward Prince of Wales (in testimony whereof His said Royal Highness has affixed his hand to this scheme) and with the consent of the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Norwich (in testimony whereof they have affixed their common or corporate seal to this scheme) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice and rectory of East Anstey and the church thereof shall be assigned and transferred
