By the King and Queen,

A DECLARATION

Requiring all Officers and Soldiers to Observe strict Discipline, and for Payment of Quarters.

WILLIAM R.

Whereas after the Success wherewith it has pleased Almighty GOD to bless Our Arms in the Reduction of Our Kingdom of Ireland, It is necessary that many of Our Forces Employed therein be Transported into this Kingdom in Order to be otherwise Disposed of, as Our Service shall Require; and to the end that the said Forces be kept in good Order and Discipline, and that Our Subjects may not suffer by any Disorders or Misbehaviour of any Officers or Soldiers within Our Pay or Entertainment: We have thought fit hereby to Declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, That in what Place soever any of Our Forces shall Pass or Remain, they shall always pay their Quarters at the Rates and Allowances Limited and Directed by Act of Parliament in that Behalf, beyond which no private Soldier or Officer of any Regiment, Troop, or Company, is to be paid for any Provisions or Sum of Money on any Account or Intence whatsoever in thir Quarters. And we do likewise enjoin and forbid all Officers and Soldiers to use any Violence or Threatening Words to any Person whatsoever, or to give any Offence, or just Cause of Complaint. And in case any of Our said Officers or Soldiers shall Presume to Commit any Spotl or Disgrace, or use any Violence or Threatening Words, or otherwise Misbehave themselves, We do hereby further Declare, That before the Ordinary Course of Justice for Redress, if the Persons Aggrieved shall make known the same to the Superior Officers, the said Officers shall and are hereby Required to make Satisfaction immediately to be made, and that if such Officers, to whom Complaint is made, shall forbear or Delay the giving our Satisfaction to be given as aforesaid, the Persons to whom the Wrong is done, may then further present their Complaint to Us, that We may Order speedy Justice to be done them, & Reparation of the Injury, and by causing the Officers and Soldiers so Offending to be forthwith cashiered, and such further Punishments to be inflicted on them as the Nature and Gravity of their Offences shall Deserve. And we do further declare Our Will and Pleasure to be, That no Officer or Soldier in their March or Quarters shall be Lodged in any Private House whatsoever, without the Free and Voluntary Consent of the Owner; and that in case any Officers or Soldiers shall, for Reward or Consideration, Leave or Change the Quarters appointed them, or shall Demand or Exact Money for Quarters, or to Except any Persons from the same, they shall be Punished by Cashiering, and loss of their Pay. And we do enjoin strictly Prohibit and Forbid all Officers and Soldiers to Disperse, or Disturb the Game in any manner whatsoever, or to leave from Us, the Lords of the respective Manors, or others to whom it may belong to Grant the same: It being Our Royal Intentions and Command, That all Officers and Soldiers in Our Service behave themselves in all Things according to Law and Military Discipline, as becomes them, and Pains of the severest Consequences of Our High Displeasure.

Given at Our Court at Whitehall the Third Day of December, 1691. In the Thrid Year of Our Reign.

Madrid, Nov. 14. Mr. Stanhope, Envoy Extraordinary from Their Majesties of Great Britain at this Court, has for three nights together made Publick Recreations for the Reduction of Ireland, by Illuminations, Fireworks, and eating great plenty of Wine to run for the People, which he concluded this day with a splendid Entertainment. All the Gaieties that were intended are arrived at Cadiz, except that called Nuestra Señora del Rosario, which hundred at S.A. her last, paid at 4 millions, being toll, but the Men fayed. The court which has been some time at the Escorial, returns to morrow to the Palace of Buen Retiro.

Milan, November 28. The Marquis de Legarez, our Governor, is returned from Alexandria, whether he went to Confer with General Ciffa, and to promote the Accommodation with the Republick of Genoa about the Winter Quarters, which, as we understand, is now concluded; They giving 20000 Crowns in lieu of the said Quarters. The late Letters from Tarr tell us, that the Elector of Bavaria intended to part from France on the 30th of this month for Florence to visit the Prince of Tuscany his Sister, and so to return home. The Duke of Savoy has put strong Guards into Cors. Sardin, and Veill ne, and they are working with great diligence on the Fortifications of those places.
