H. W. NELSON, 26, Martin's-lane, Cannon-street, E.C., Solicitor.

PURSUANT to an Order of the High Court of Justice Chancery Division dated the 23rd day of July, 1898, and made "In the matter of the Trustee Act, 1893, and in the matter of Martha Hugill and Mary Laura Hugill and other the persons entitled to the legacies of three hundred pounds each under the will of Ann Ward, deceased; and in the matter of the trusts of an indenture dated the 28th day of January, 1832. And in the matter of the will of Ann Ward, deceased," the following enquiry was directed. An enquiry who are the persons legally and beneficially entitled and in what shares and proportions to the funds in Court standing to the following ledger credits namely "In the matter of the trusts of an indenture dated the 28th of January, 1832, and in the matter of the will of Ann Ward deceased the legacy account of Martha Hugill." "In the matter of the trusts of an indenture dated the 28th January, 1832, and in the matter of Ann Ward, deceased, the legacy account of Mary Laura Hugill." The person or persons claiming under the said enquiry are by their Solicitors on or before the 24th day of October, 1900, to come in and prove their claims at the chambers of Mr. Justice Byrne, at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, or in default they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order. Wednesday, the 31st day of October, 1900, at 12 o'clock at noon, at the said chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.—Dated the 4th day of August, 1900.

RICHD. WHITE, Master.

NOTE.—The above named Ann Ward by her will (proved 5th November, 1801) gave the above mentioned legacies of £300 (in the events which happened) after the death of the said Martha Hugill and Mary Laura Hugill as part of her residuary estate to Ann the wife of James Brander. The said Ann Brander died in Lisbon in November, 1801, intestate, leaving her husband James Brander surviving. He died at Lisbon in October, 1829, intestate. It is alleged that James Brander, Alexander Brander, Amelia Brander, and George Brander, four of the children of the above James and Ann Brander died at Lisbon, without having been married.
