PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Dockyard Ports Regulation Act 1865," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council from time to time, by Order in Council, to define the limits of a Dockyard Port for the purposes of that Act, and to make regulations for all or any of the purposes in the said Act particularly mentioned, and for such other purposes as from time to time seem necessary with a view to the proper protection of Her Majesty's vessels, dockyards, or property, or to the requirements of Her Majesty's Naval Service:

And whereas it appears expedient that such regulations should be amended:

And whereas the provisions of section one of "The Rules Publication Act 1893," have been complied with:

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 17th day of September, 1900.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council, dated the thirteenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, and expressed to be made in pursuance of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1891," and of "The Mersey Channels Act, 1897," Her Majesty, on the application of the Mersey Docks and Harbour Board, being the Harbour Trust or Body Corporate owning or exercising jurisdiction upon the waters of the River Mersey and the sea channels or approaches thereto, was pleased to make certain rules, set forth in the Schedule to such Order, concerning the lights or signals to be carried, and concerning the steps for avoiding collision to be taken, by vessels navigating the River Mersey and the sea channels or approaches to the River Mersey between the Rock Lighthouse and the furthest point seawards to which such channels or approaches respectively, are, for the time being, buoyed on both sides.

And whereas the said Mersey Docks and Harbour Board have applied to Her Majesty in Council to make, and have submitted for approval, certain new rules concerning lights and signals to be carried, and the steps for avoiding collision to be taken, by vessels navigating the River Mersey and the sea channels or approaches thereto within certain specified limits, to be substituted for and in lieu of the rules set forth in the Schedule to the said recited Order in Council of the thirteenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, and in such new rules there are embodied, subject to certain exceptions and additions therein mentioned, the "Regulations for preventing Collisions at Sea," made in pursuance of the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1891," and which may from time to time be in force.

And whereas the provisions of section one of "The Rules Publication Act, 1893," have been complied with.

And whereas the new rules so submitted as aforesaid appear to be reasonable and proper.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers in Her vested by the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1894," and by the "Mersey Channels Act, 1897," and of any other powers Her thereunto enabling, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to declare that the said Order in Council of the thirteenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, shall, as from the seventeenth day of September, one thousand nine hundred, be revoked, and Her Majesty is further pleased to make the rules set forth in the Schedule hereto, and to direct that the same shall continue in operation as from the said seventeenth day of September, one thousand nine hundred.

A. W. FitzRoy.

SCHEDULE.

RULES concerning the Lights or Signals to be carried, and concerning the steps for avoiding collision to be taken, by vessels navigating the River Mersey and the Sea Channels or approaches thereto, between the Rock Lighthouse and the furthest point seawards to which such Sea Channels or approaches respectively are for the time being buoyed on both sides.

1. Every vessel, of whatever description, used in navigation, when in any part of the River Mersey, or in the Sea Channels or approaches thereto as above defined shall, on and after the seventeenth day of September, one thousand nine hundred, observe and obey the "Regulations for preventing Collisions at Sea," made in pursuance of the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1894," hereinafter called "the General Regulations," which may from time to time be in force, with the exceptions and additions mentioned in the following Rules.

3. A vessel being towed shall, in addition to the lights prescribed by Article 5 of the General Regulations, carry the white light at her stern prescribed by Rule 5 hereof, and if such vessel is a steam vessel with steam up she shall, although being towed, also carry the masthead light prescribed by Article 2 (a), and may carry the

9. A vessel anchored to mark the position of a wreck or other obstruction, shall carry, in all weathers from sunset to sunrise, two bright white lights, in lanterns so constructed as to show a clear, uniform and unbroken light visible all round the horizon at a distance of at least a mile, which lights shall be placed horizontally on a cross yard on the foremast, at a height not exceeding twenty feet above the hull and not exceeding twenty feet apart, and the said vessel shall carry, in all weathers between sunrise and sunset, two black balls placed as hereinbefore ordered with regard to the lights aforementioned.

10. A vessel of three hundred and fifty feet or upwards in length when at anchor shall, during fog, mist, falling snow or heavy rain storms, whether by day or night,

(1) ring in the forward part of the vessel the bell prescribed by Article 15 (D) of the General Regulations.

(2) sound at or near the stern of such vessel a loud-toned gong or a loud-toned triangle or other loud-toned article that cannot be mistaken for a bell, whistle, siren, or fog-horn.

The bell shall be rung, and the gong, triangle, or other article sounded, respectively, for a period of about five seconds at intervals of not more than one minute.

The length of a vessel shall be deemed to be the length appearing in her certificate of registry.

11. Every steam vessel under way shall, when it is safe and practicable, keep to that side of the fairway or mid-channel which lies on the star-board side of such vessel.

(c.) AFT. One such white light, at or near the stern of the dredger, and at such a height that it shall be not less than fifteen feet lower than the forward light.

(2) A dredger when not making any way through the water shall not carry side or stern lights, but when making way shall carry the usual red and green side lights and the stern light prescribed by Rule 5 hereof.

Signals between Sunrise and Sunset.

AMIDSHIPS. Three red balls of not less than two feet in diameter placed in triangular form not less than eight feet apart, the base of the triangle to be higher than and clear of the framework, funnels, or any other erections upon the dredger.

14. The Lights and Signals required to be carried by Rule 13 are to be taken by other vessels as signals that the vessel showing them is not under command, and cannot therefore get out of the way.

15. A dredger, when not at work nor in position for working, shall carry the ordinary Lights and Signals required to be carried by vessels for avoiding collisions, as provided by these Rules and by the Rules and Regulations now and from time to time in force under the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1891," and the "Mersey Channels Act, 1897."

At the Court at Balmoral, the 17th day of September, 1900.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fifth day of April in the year one thousand nine hundred in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Martin, Gouray, situate within the parish of Saint Martin in the Island of Jersey and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Saint Martin and of the parish of Grouville, in the said Island and in the diocese aforesaid which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parishes respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Saint Martin and of the said parish of Grouville should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Martin Gouray situate as afore-said.

"And whereas the arrangements hereinbefore referred to were purported to be effected by an Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-sixth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-ninth day of the same month, but the validity of the said Order in Council has been questioned by reason of the fact that the Acts therein recited or some or one of them were not at that date (as they now are) applicable to the said Island of Jersey.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Randall Thomas Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, and with the consent of the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Baronet one of Your Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, acting on behalf of Your Majesty as the patron in right of the Crown of the rectory of the said parish of Saint Martin and also of the rectory of the said parish of Grouville (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Saint Martin and of the said parish of Grouville which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Martin Gouray situate as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Gouray.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Gouray, being:—

"All those two contiguous portions of the parish of Saint Martin and of the parish of Grouville both in the Island of Jersey and in the diocese of Winchester which said portions are together bounded on the east by the sea and upon all other sides that is to say on the south, on the west, and on the north by an imaginary line commencing upon the eastern boundary of the said parish of Grouville at a point upon the shore of Grouville Bay due east of the south-eastern angle of the Redoubt called or known as Fort William and extending thence westward and in a direct line for a distance of two hundred and ninety-five yards or thereabouts (thereby passing to the south of the said Redoubt and crossing Gouray Common and the line of the Jersey Eastern Railway) to the point at La Planque where the Grouville main road is joined by the lane leading to the house called or known as La Vallette and extending thence south-westward for a distance of fifty yards along the middle of the first-mentioned road to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'G.C.C., 1875, No. 1' and placed on the north-western side of the same road and extending thence north-westward to such boundary stone and continuing thence still north-westward and in a straight line for a distance of two hundred and twenty-five yards or thereabouts in a direction parallel to and distant fifty yards to the south-west of the middle of the said lane to a boundary stone inscribed 'G.C.C., 1875, No. 2' and placed on the south-eastern side of the road or lane which leads from the house called or known as Oaklands to the house called or known as La Vallette as aforesaid at a distance of fifty-six yards measured along the same road or lane to the south-west of its junction with the lane leading from the last-mentioned house to the Grouville main road at La Planque as aforesaid and continuing thence, that is from the said last-described boundary stone in the same direction, and in a straight line for a distance of two hundred and forty yards or thereabouts to a boundary stone inscribed 'G.C.C., 1875 No. 3' and placed on the southern side of the lane leading from the Water Mill in the Queen's Farm Valley towards the village of Gouray and extending thence that is from the last-described boundary stone first northward to the middle of the last-described lane and then north-eastward for a distance of two hundred and forty yards or thereabouts along the middle of the same lane to its junction with the lane leading from the said village of Gouray past the house called or known as Daisy Hill to Mallet's Farm and extending thence that is from the said point of junction for a distance of three hundred and eighty yards or thereabouts first north-westward and then northward along the middle of the last-described lane to the point where it joins the main road at Mallet's Farm aforesaid such point being upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Grouville from the parish of Saint Martin aforesaid and extending thence north-westward and in a direct line diagonally across the said main road to a boundary stone inscribed 'G.C.C., 1875 No. 4' and placed on the northern side of the same road at or near to the south-western angle of the house called or known as Mallet's Farm as aforesaid and extending thence northward and in a direct line for a distance of ninety-three yards (thereby passing along the western side of the said house) to a point distant one hundred yards (measured in a direct line) from the nearest point in the middle of the same main road and extending thence north-eastward for a distance of three hundred and twenty-five yards or thereabouts in a curvilinear direction parallel to and distant one hundred yards to the north-west of the middle of the same main road to a boundary stone inscribed 'G.C.C. 1875 No. 5' and placed upon the north-eastern side of the lane leading from the said main road and passing between the farms called or known respectively as La Tourelle and Grasford at a point distant one hundred yards (measured along the last-described lane) to the north-west of the middle of the same main road and extending thence that is from the said last-mentioned boundary stone for a distance of two hundred and ten yards or thereabouts northward still in a curvilinear direction parallel to and distant one hundred yards to the west of the said main road to a point to the west of the middle of the western end of the lane leading from the same main road past the house called or known as Temple View to the Bay of Anne Port and extending thence that is from the last-mentioned point eastward and in a direct line for a distance of ninety-three yards to the western side of the said main road at a point opposite to the middle of the western end of the last-described lane and continuing thence for a distance of six hundred yards or thereabouts first in the same direction then south-eastward and then again north-eastward along the middle of the same lane to its junction with the lane which leads to Anneville and extending thence for a distance of four hundred yards or thereabouts first north-westward and then northward along the middle of the last-described lane to its junction at Anneville aforesaid with the lane leading to the headland called or known as La Crete and extending thence for a distance of four hundred yards or thereabouts first north-eastward and then south-eastward and then again north-eastward along the middle of the last-described lane to its junction on the southern side of the headland called or known as La Crete as aforesaid with the Coast-road and extending thence that is from the said point of junction south-eastward and in a direct line to the eastern boundary of the parish of Saint Martin aforesaid upon the shore of the Bay of Anne Port aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

Department), London, September 24, 1900.

THE Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Representative at Madrid, enclosing the following translation of a communication received by him regarding the sanitary restrictions adopted in Spanish ports against healthy vessels from Glasgow, viz. :—

(Translation.)

The port of Glasgow (Scotland) was declared foul in the Gazette of August 21, and it was ordered that ships proceeding from that port should, from August 24, be subject to the rules which govern such cases in the "Regulations for Exterior Sanitation" (Reglamento de Sanidad exterior). But in certain ports where there are no sanitary stations, the works for the establishment of a disinfecting apparatus not yet having been completed, steamers arriving in a good state of health, but subject to disinfection, will proceed to the nearest lazaretto, not to undergo quarantine, but to be disinfected.

They will then be immediately granted free pratique.

The following ports possess disinfecting apparatus: Valencia, Las Palmas, Tenerife.
