And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 17th day of September, 1900.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Urban District Council of Milford Haven, in the county of Pembroke, have, under the provisions of "The Burial Act, 1857," presented a petition stating that the district of the said Urban District Council is co-extensive with the district for which it is proposed to provide a burial ground, that no Burial Board has been appointed for such district, that one of the two parish churchyards situate within the limits of the said district has for some years been closed by Order in Council, that the space now available in the other is wholly inadequate to meet the requirements of a rapidly increasing population, and praying that there may be conferred upon the said Urban District Council all the powers, rights and privileges of a Burial Board.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased to give notice of such petition, and to order that the same together with any other petition on the same subject be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the first day of November, one thousand nine hundred.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in the district of the Urban District Council aforesaid, one month at least before the said first day of November, one thousand nine hundred.

A. W. FitzRoy.

Board of Trade (Fisheries and Harbour Department), London, September 24, 1900.

THE Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Representative at Madrid, enclosing the following translation of a communication received by him regarding the sanitary restrictions adopted in Spanish ports against healthy vessels from Glasgow, viz. :—

(Translation.)

The port of Glasgow (Scotland) was declared foul in the Gazette of August 21, and it was ordered that ships proceeding from that port should, from August 24, be subject to the rules which govern such cases in the "Regulations for Exterior Sanitation" (Reglamento de Sanidad exterior). But in certain ports where there are no sanitary stations, the works for the establishment of a disinfecting apparatus not yet having been completed, steamers arriving in a good state of health, but subject to disinfection, will proceed to the nearest lazaretto, not to undergo quarantine, but to be disinfected.

They will then be immediately granted free pratique.

The following ports possess disinfecting apparatus: Valencia, Las Palmas, Tenerife.
