PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of July in the year one thousand nine hundred in the words following; that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John Whorlton situate within the limits of the parish of Newburn in the county of Northumberland and in the diocese of Newcastle.

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Newburn, and of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of the Holy Saviour Sugley in the county and diocese aforesaid which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parish and new parish respectively.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Newburn and of the new parish of the Holy Saviour Sugley aforesaid should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint John Whorlton situate as aforesaid.

“Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Edgar Bishop of the said diocese of Newcastle as such Bishop and also as the patron in right of his See, of the vicarage of the said new parish of the Holy Saviour Sugley and with the consent of Thomas Spencer of Ryton in the county of Durham Esquire as the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Newburn (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Newburn and of the said new parish of the Holy Saviour Sugley which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the
