

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1900.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 18th day of October, 1900.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Burial Act, 1855," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyard hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyard be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in the Parish Churchyard of Ilchester, in the county of Somerset, be postponed until the thirty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and one.

A. W. FitzRoy.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 18th day of October, 1900.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Burial Act, 1853," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Baronet, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, made a representation, stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with certain modifications:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the seventh day of August last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the eighteenth day of September, one thousand nine hundred, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued with the following modifications, viz. :—

TYDD SAINT MARY, LINCOLN.—Forthwith and entirely in the Church of Tydd Saint Mary, in the county of Lincoln, and in the churchyard within twenty feet of any dwelling-house; and also in the rest of the churchyard, except as follows :—

(a.) In vaults and wholly walled graves now existing burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In earthen graves now existing burials may be allowed, at their decease, of the relations of those already interred therein provided the bodies can be deposited at or below the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains.

(c.) In reserved grave spaces which have never before been buried in, and which when opened are free from water, burials may be allowed, at their decease, of so many members of the families to whom they may be allotted as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet.

KIRK-DEIGHTON, YORKSHIRE.—Forthwith and entirely in the Church of Kirk-Deighton, in the county of York, and also in the churchyard, within nine feet of its eastern and western boundaries, and within nine feet of the tower and north wall of the church; also in the part of the churchyard lying to the north of the church except :—

(a.) In vaults and wholly walled graves now existing burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In earthen graves now existing burials may be allowed, at their decease, of the relations of those already interred therein, provided the bodies can be deposited at or below the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains.

(c.) In reserved grave spaces which have never before been buried in, and which when opened are free from water, burials may be allowed, at their decease, of so many members of the families to whom they may be allotted as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet.

And in the portion to the south of the church, except :—

(a.) In vaults and wholly walled graves now existing burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In the earthen grave belonging to the Atkinson family of Kirk-Deighton House.

A. W. Fitz Roy.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 18th day of October, 1900.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Burial Act, 1853," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the incumbent and vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish :

And whereas by "The Burial Act, 1855," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit :

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Baronet, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that he is of opinion that so much of the Order of Her Majesty in Council of seventh March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in so far as it affects burials in the parish church and churchyard of Elmswell, in the county of Suffolk, should be varied, and that the following directions should be substituted for those contained in the said Order, with respect to burials in the said church and churchyard :

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the seventh day of August, one thousand nine hundred, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the eighteenth day of September, one thousand nine hundred, and copies thereof have been affixed as required by the said first-recited Act :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered that the following directions be substituted for those contained in the said Order in Council of the seventh March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, viz. :—

That burials be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Elmswell in the county of Suffolk; and in the churchyard except as follows:—

- (a.) In wholly walled graves now existing burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin be separately enclosed by stone-work or brickwork properly cemented.
- (b.) In earthen graves now existing burials may be allowed, at their decease, of the widows and widowers of those already interred therein provided the bodies can be deposited at or below the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains.
- (c.) The burial of the Reverend James Hipwell may take place at his decease in a vault or grave not less than five feet deep to be constructed on the east side of the south aisle.

No. 396.

Havana, September 28, 1900.

The Military Governor of Cuba directs the publication of the following order which will govern in matters pertaining to the questions of quarantine in all Ports of Entry of the Island of Cuba :

I. Pilots on boarding vessels to conduct them into the harbour, shall proceed immediately to the pilot deck and remain there.

II. They shall immediately direct the yellow flag to be hoisted as a signal for inspection, whether the vessel has sickness on board or not.

III. Pilots shall remain upon the vessel until permitted to go ashore, and no person shall be allowed to come on board or leave the vessel until after the completion of inspection and the quarantine flag lowered.

IV. The hours for the inspection of vessels shall be from sunrise to sunset, except for vessels in distress.

V. Upon the arrival of a vessel, the crew shall be mustered upon deck for inspection, and the number verified as given upon the crew list and bills of health. Cabin passengers shall also be inspected and the number verified, if from suspected or infected ports ; and a careful inspection and verification of steerage passengers shall always be made.

VI. In suspicious cases occurring among the passengers or crew the clinical thermometer shall be used, and particular care is enjoined in vessels coming from ports or countries suspected of plague. Cases of pneumonia occurring en route must be carefully scrutinized ; and, when deemed necessary, also the cervical, axillary, and inguinal regions examined for glandular enlargement, in order to exclude this disease.

VII. The written certificates of medical officers of the Navy and U.S. Army Transport Service may be accepted as to the sanitary condition of their vessel, passengers, and crew.

VIII. All vessels, whether foreign or coastwise, shall be subject to inspection throughout the year.

Bills of Health.

IX. Bills of health shall be required and issued in every instance upon the consular or supplemental forms for foreign or coastwise ports in accordance with the quarantine laws and regulation.

X. When vessels expect to depart during the night or early morning the bills of health must be applied for the previous afternoon, during the Customs Office hours. The final inspection of the vessel, passengers and crew shall be made during daylight as late as possible before sailing, and no further communication allowed with the vessel except by permission of the quarantine officer.

XI. The official dispatch boats acting under the direct orders of the Military Governor and vessels of the Customs Service are exempt from inspection and necessity of obtaining bills of health. In case, however, sickness occurs on board of said vessels, it shall be immediately reported to the quarantine officer.

XII. In ports where a quarantinable disease prevails, certificates of health shall be required of all passengers before being allowed to board a vessel, and their baggage shall be labelled " Inspected and passed " or " Disinfected and passed " as may be required.

XIII. The treatment of passengers, vessel, and crew shall be noted briefly under the head of " Remarks " upon the bills of health ; time of day the vessels depart ; partial or complete disinfection ; methods employed ; if disinfection is vitiated by after communication with shore or other pertinent facts, and the same signed by the inspecting officer.

XIV. In any doubtful diagnosis or infractions of the Quarantine Rules and Regulations the vessel shall be detained in quarantine, and the facts immediately telegraphed to the Chief Quarantine Officer for instructions.

J. B. HICKEY,

Assistant Adjutant-General.

Board of Agriculture, 18th October, 1900.

ORDER OF THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE.

(DATED 22ND OCTOBER 1900.)

STAFFORDSHIRE, DERBYSHIRE, LEICESTERSHIRE, AND WARWICKSHIRE (FOOT - AND - MOUTH DISEASE) ORDER OF 1900 (No. 3).

THE Board of Agriculture, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 and 1896, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Movement out of into or within Scheduled District.

1.—(1.) No cattle, sheep, goats, or swine shall be moved out of the District described in the First Schedule to this Order (hereinafter referred to as the Scheduled District).

(2.) No cattle, sheep, goats, or swine shall be moved into the Scheduled District, or along over or across a highway or thoroughfare within the Scheduled District, except as expressly authorized by this Order.

Movement into out of or within Infected Place or Area.

2. Nothing in this Order shall authorize the movement of any animal into, or out of, or along over or across a highway or thoroughfare within, a Foot-and-Mouth Disease Infected Place or Area, or the movement of any animal in such Place or Area.

Movement within Scheduled District with Licence.

3.—(1.) Subject to Article 2 of this Order, an animal may, if accompanied by a Licence under this Article, be moved by the nearest available route from any premises in the Scheduled District to any other premises within such District.

(2.) A Licence for movement under this Article may be granted by an Inspector of the Local Authority of the place from which the animal is to be moved, but only on a Declaration of the owner of the animal or of his agent authorized in writing for this purpose to the effect :

(i.) that the animal to be moved has been on the premises from which it is to be moved for a period of at least twenty-eight days immediately before the granting of the Licence, and that no other cattle, sheep, goats, or swine have been brought on to those premises within such period ;

(ii.) that the animal is not affected with Foot-and-Mouth Disease and has not during the preceding twenty-eight days been in any way exposed to the infection of such disease ; and

(iii.) that the movement of the animal is not prohibited by Notice of an Inspector of the Local Authority or of the Board given under any Order of the Board ; and every such Declaration shall be annexed to the Licence granted thereon.

(3.) The Licence shall be in force for not more than four days, inclusive of the day of issue, and shall specify the name and address of the person to whom the Licence is granted, the number and description of the animals to be moved, and the name or description of the place or premises from which and the place or premises to which the animals are to be moved.

Movement into Parts of Scheduled District for Slaughter without Licence.

4. An animal may be moved from any place outside the Scheduled District, to any railway premises in the petty sessional divisions of Aston, Handsworth, Willenhall, or Wednesbury, or in the boroughs of Walsall, Wednesbury, West Bromwich, Stafford, Smethwick, or Burton-upon-Trent, provided that the animal is so moved without being untrucked within the said District ; and an animal so moved may be moved from the railway premises by the nearest available route to a slaughter-house within such petty sessional division or borough, and shall be there detained and be slaughtered within four days from the date of its arrival therein.

Movement within Scheduled District of Animals across a highway between different parts of a Farm in the same occupation without Licence.

5. Subject to Article 2 of this Order, an animal may be moved by the nearest available route along over or across a highway or thoroughfare in the Scheduled District from one part of a farm to another part of the same farm being in the same occupation, provided that the animal to be moved is not affected with Foot-and-Mouth Disease, and that the movement of such animal is not prohibited by Notice of an Inspector of a Local Authority or of the Board given under any Order of the Board.

Movement of Animals by Railway through Scheduled District.

6. Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to apply to the movement of an animal out of or into the Scheduled District where it is moved through such District by railway from a place outside such District to another place outside such District without unnecessary delay and without the animal being untrucked or rebooked within such District.

Saving for Regulations of Local Authority.

7. Movement of animals under this Order is subject to any Regulation made by a Local Authority under any Order of the Board for prohibiting or regulating the movement of animals, but nothing in any such Regulation shall permit the movement of animals in contravention of any Order of the Board.

Production of Licences ; Names and Addresses.

8.—(1.) Any person in charge of an animal being moved, where under this Order a Movement Licence is necessary, shall, on demand of a Justice, or of a constable, or of an Inspector or other officer of the Board or of a Local Authority, produce and show to him the Licence, if any, necessary for the movement, and shall allow it to be read and a copy of or extract from it to be taken by the person to whom it is produced.

(2.) Any person so in charge shall, on demand as aforesaid, give his name and address to the Justice, or constable, or Inspector or other officer.

(3.) If a person in charge of an animal being moved, where under this Order a Movement Licence is necessary, on demand made under this Order, fails to give his true name and address, or gives a false name or address, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

Local Authority to enforce Order.

9. The provisions of this Order, except where it is otherwise provided, shall be executed and enforced by the Local Authority.

Offences.

10.—(1.) If an animal is moved in contravention of this Order, or of the conditions of a Licence thereunder, the owner of the animal, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the movement, and the person moving or conveying the animal, and the consignee or other person receiving or keeping it, knowing it to have been moved in contravention as aforesaid, and the occupier of the place from which the animal is moved, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(2.) If a person in charge of an animal being moved, where under this Order a Movement Licence is necessary, on demand made under this Order, fails to give his true name and address, or gives a false name or address, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(3.) If any person with a view to unlawfully evade or defeat the operation of this Order allows a head of cattle, or a sheep, or goat, or pig to stray, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

Interpretation.

11. In this Order—

“The Act of 1894” means the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894 :

“The Board” means the Board of Agriculture :
“Animals” means cattle, sheep, goats, and swine :

Other terms have the same meaning as in the Act of 1894.

Revocation of Orders.

12. The Orders described in the Second Schedule to this Order are hereby from and after the commencement of this Order revoked : Provided that such revocation shall not invalidate or make unlawful anything done under either of the Orders hereby revoked, or affect any licence or authority granted, or any right, title, obligation, or liability accrued thereunder before the commencement of this Order, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, either of the Orders hereby revoked before the commencement of this Order.

Commencement.

13. This Order shall come into operation on the twenty-fourth day of October, one thousand nine hundred.

Short Title.

14. This Order may be cited as the STAFFORDSHIRE, DERBYSHIRE, LEICESTERSHIRE, AND WARWICKSHIRE (FOOT-AND-MOUTH DISEASE) ORDER OF 1900 (No. 3).

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture have hereunto set their Official Seal this twenty-second day of October, one thousand nine hundred.

Gainsborough Electric Lighting.

Application to the Board of Trade under the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 and 1888, for a Provisional Order to Produce and Supply Electricity for all public and private purposes within the Urban District of Gainsborough, &c.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to the Board of Trade by the Urban District Council of Gainsborough, whose address is 6, Lord-street, Gainsborough, in the county of Lincoln, and who are hereinafter referred to as "the Undertakers," for a Provisional Order (hereinafter called "the Order"), under the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 and 1888, for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

To authorize the Undertakers to produce, store, supply, sell, and distribute electricity for all public and private purposes as defined by the said Electric Lighting Acts, within the Urban District of Gainsborough, in the county of Lincoln (hereinafter called "the area of supply"), and to confer upon the Undertakers all or some of the powers of the said Acts, and all such other powers as may be necessary and expedient for giving effect to the provisions and objects of the Order.

To incorporate therewith the provisions of the Electric Lighting (Clauses) Act, 1899, subject to such variations, modifications, or exceptions as may be prescribed by the Order.

To authorize the Undertakers to purchase, hold, and acquire by agreement any lands for the purposes of the Order, and to construct, lay down, alter, renew, and maintain on lands belonging to or leased by, or to be acquired by the Undertakers, central and other stations, buildings, and works, for the generation, storage, and supply and distribution of electricity within the area of supply, or for other purposes of the Order, together with all engines, machinery, and apparatus necessary or convenient for the purposes aforesaid.

To authorize the Undertakers to open and break up for the purposes of the Order all streets and thoroughfares within the area of supply, and to take up, relay, divert, or alter all sewers, drains, mains, and pipes therein, and to do all such works as may be necessary to carry into effect the objects of the Order.

To authorize the Undertakers and any Local Authority, Company, or person to make and carry into effect agreements for the production and distribution of electricity, and for the performance of all acts incidental to public and private lighting.

No. 27240.

To empower the Undertakers to make charges and levy and recover rates, rents, and charges for the supply of electricity, and for the use of any machines in connection therewith, and to define and limit the price to be charged for such supply.

To empower the Undertakers to apply any of their existing or authorized funds or to borrow money for the purposes of the Order on the security of the General District Rate, or of any other rates, funds, or property of the Undertakers.

The following are the streets and places within which the Undertakers propose to lay electric lines within a specified time, viz.:—
