(1.) Every such Master or Mate who pilots any ship, excepting a passenger steamer, as provided by sub-section 2 hereof, within the compulsory portion of the Pilotage District, viz., above Newark Castle, shall contribute five per cent. of the dues which would have been payable in respect of the pilotage of his ship if he had not held a Pilotage Certificate; but such contribution shall not exceed three pounds.

SCHEDULE.

Bye-laws for the Regulation of Pilots and Pilotage at the Port of Gloucester.

1. Subject to the provisions contained in the twenty-fourth section of "The Bristol Channel Pilotage Act 1861" no person shall be eligible, or shall be appointed to act as a pilot unless he shall have served a regular apprenticeship for five years to a pilot of the district, and been at least one year in the coasting or over sea trade in square rigged sailing vessels or shall have been engaged as master in the coasting trade in the waters of the district for not less than five years; and no person shall be eligible if less than twenty-three years or more than forty-five years of age.

2. Every candidate for apprenticeship before he can be considered eligible for the pilot service, shall produce satisfactory testimonials as to character, and a surgeon's certificate that he is of sound health; he shall prove to the satisfaction of the Board that he is not less than fourteen or more than eighteen years of age, and that he has passed Standard 6 required for the full time employment under the Elementary Education Act. Having complied with these requirements, he may, after a month's probation, if approved by the Board, be apprenticed to a pilot for five years, and the indenture of apprenticeship, which shall be in a form approved by the Board, shall be signed by the pilot, the apprentice, and his guardian, and then be registered and kept at the pilotage office.

3. The pilot to whom any apprentice is serving shall endorse on the back of every indenture a statement of time lost by the apprentice, and of pecuniary losses which have been incurred by the pilot by reason of the negligence or want of attention of the apprentice, and such statement shall be signed by the pilot and apprentice on the respective dates when such losses shall be charged against the apprentice.

4. At the expiration of the five years' apprenticeship, the pilot and apprentice shall appear before the Board with the indenture, and the Board shall thereupon decide as to the amount of time and money (if any) to be made good by the apprentice before the indenture shall be given to him, and such decision shall be finally binding on all parties. Whenever an apprentice shall for the first time appear before the Examining Committee for examination for a licence to act as pilot, his indenture of apprenticeship and all papers which the Committee shall think necessary, shall be submitted to their inspection.

5. The Board shall have full power to enquire into the conduct of pilots towards their apprentices and vice versa, and to investigate all complaints made by pilots against their apprentices, and also by apprentices against pilots whether they may be the masters to such apprentices or not, and also into the general conduct of apprentices and pilots, and the Board shall have full power to make such orders, and to inflict fines and penalties in reference thereto. Also to withhold or cancel any licence of indenture.

6. The Board shall have full power to limit the number of pilots, and when a vacancy occurs in the number of pilots the first apprentice on the rota who is eligible for examination shall receive due notice to attend the Committee for examination. If such apprentice shall fail without reasonable cause to attend or shall fail in such examination he shall lose his first turn, and so on in rotation until all the apprentices so eligible have been dealt with, but should any apprentice fail in his examination he shall be allowed to take his turn when the next vacancy occurs until he has had three chances, and after that the matter shall be left with the Board.

The clerk shall keep a list of all apprentices showing their respective service in the boats, with the names of the pilots to whom they are apprenticed together with a full record of their service with a note when each apprentice is out of his time, where he has subsequently been engaged and whether eligible for examination as pilot.

7. No person shall be licensed to act as pilot in the district unless he shall have passed a creditable examination on the following subjects, viz.:

He must be able:—

- (1.) To read and write.
- (2.) To produce a Board of Trade Certificate as to colour-blindness.
- (3.) To give the course and distance between any two places within the limits of the Channel.
- (4.) The rise, velocity and set of the tides.
- (5.) The depth and character of the soundings.
- (6.) The best anchorages, and where to stop for a tide.
- (7.) The sand banks, rocks, shoals and other dangers.
- (8.) The land marks, buoys, lights, their different bearings and distances.
- (9.) The appearance of the different headlands.
- (10.) The management of a vessel—to bring her to anchor—to keep her clear of her anchor in a tideway—to moor—unmoor—to get under weigh and to handle a vessel under any circumstances.

8. As well as the general power conferred upon the Commissioners to grant or suspend licences the Pilotage Board shall also have power to grant the following licences to pilots:—

- | | |
|---|---|
| From the date of appointment and for 2½ years ... | { A licence to pilot vessels not exceeding 300 tons register. |
| After 2½ years and up to 5 years ... | { A licence to pilot vessels not exceeding 500 tons register. |
| After 5 years and up to 7 years ... | { A licence to pilot vessels not exceeding 1,000 tons register. |
| After 7 years ... | { A full licence. |

The Board shall have full power to withhold or suspend any such licence if they should be of opinion that any pilot is not fully entitled to receive the same.

9. No junior pilot shall take charge of a ship going to sea above the tonnage for which he is licensed unless a senior pilot cannot be obtained, notwithstanding that such junior pilot may have brought the ship into port, and no pilot shall take charge of any ship above the tonnage for which he is licensed unless a senior pilot cannot be obtained, and if no senior pilot can be obtained and a junior pilot has taken charge of any such vessel he may be superseded by a senior pilot between Kingroad and Lundy unless the master of such vessel shall desire to retain his services. But no junior pilot is on any account to take charge of vessels above 500 tons between Kingroad and Sharpness and vice versa, if the services of a senior pilot can be obtained.

10. The pilots must keep log-sheets showing how, when, and where employed, and copies of the same shall be made out by the respective pilots, and handed in once a month to the pilot-master not later than the twelfth day in the succeeding month.

11. The Board may require each pilot to provide himself with a good and efficient boat, which shall be approved and registered by the Board; and such boat shall be kept in good repair and fully equipped to the satisfaction of the Board and subject to periodical examinations by the Board. The Board may permit more than one pilot, but not more than three, to sail in the same boat upon such terms as the Board may order. But such permission may at any time be withdrawn at the discretion of the Board. No pilot shall be entitled to pursue his avocation as a pilot without the sanction of the Board first obtained unless he complies with the provisions of this Bye-law, and any pilot acting in contravention hereof shall be subject to his licence being suspended or revoked and to a penalty not exceeding five pounds at the discretion of the Board.

There shall be one indentured apprentice to each boat.

12. Every licensed pilot who may be engaged, employed or signalled by any vessel or the master thereof to pilot vessels to or from the Port of Gloucester shall be paid the pilotage rates according to the registered tonnage of the vessel and to the schedule hereto.

13. In lieu of the rates charged in the Schedule to the said Bye-laws, and referred to in Bye-law No. 12, the following reduced rates shall be paid from Kingroad to Sharpness or Lydney for all vessels coming light to Sharpness or Lydney bona fide for coal, and for all such vessels laden with coal from Sharpness or Lydney to Kingroad, subject to a reduction of one-fifth in the case of vessels towed or propelled by steam.

The pilots shall also state in such returns all cases where vessels bound to or from Gloucester have been piloted over any, and what portion, of the district by a pilot not licensed for the port, and also a list of all vessels piloted by them to or from other ports, and pay the poundage thereon to the agent of the Board. 26. Any pilot who shall refuse or neglect or wilfully delays to proceed to sea when ordered by the pilot-master or other person duly appointed by the Board unless prevented by illness or unavoidable circumstances or who shall be guilty of drunkenness or of insolent and unwarrantable conduct towards the pilot-master or his agent or the Board or any master owner or agent of any vessel for which he may be engaged, shall be liable to a penalty of not exceeding twenty pounds or the loss of his licence.

27. Any pilot who may absent himself from duty without the written consent of the Board or the pilot-master or Board's agent, or go overland to take charge of any vessel or seek employment otherwise than in his own boat without such written consent as aforesaid, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds for the first offence and for the second or any subsequent offence to a like penalty or the suspension or revocation of his licence at the discretion of the Board and no pilot shall be absent from duty more than seven days at a time under a like penalty, unless from unavoidable circumstances to the satisfaction of the Board.

28. Any pilot having charge of a vessel inward bound (except to a port to which he is not licensed) shall not be released from his duties or responsibilities until such vessel is securely moored in the dock, basin or harbour of the port; but if in charge of a vessel bound to a port to which he is not licensed, he shall be released from his duties and responsibilities when such vessel is securely anchored in the nearest roadstead to the port to which she is bound, and if outward bound to such distance or stage for which he has been engaged. Any pilot violating this rule shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds or the loss of his licence.

29. Every master, owner or agent of a vessel navigating within the limits of this pilotage district who shall knowingly employ or continue to employ an unqualified pilot after a qualified pilot has offered to take charge of the vessel or has made a signal for that purpose shall for every case incur a penalty of double the amount of the pilotage demandable for the piloting of the vessel to her port of destination or the limits of the pilotage district (see Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, section 598, Part 1, which should be adopted in lieu of this Bye-law).

30. If any vessel whilst in charge of a pilot does or receives damage the pilot shall immediately report the same to the Board's agent at Sharpness who shall at once report the same to the Clerk of the Board who shall submit the same to the Board at their next or any special meeting that may be called. The circumstances of the accident shall be investigated by the Board if deemed necessary, and the Board may fine the pilot or suspend or revoke his licence or deal with the same in such a way as they may deem best.

32. Every pilot shall strictly conform to the directions of the harbour or dock master touching the bringing in port or going out of port, the mooring or unmooring, placing or removing any ship or vessel which such pilot may have under his charge.

Any pilot violating this rule shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds or to the suspension or revoking of his licence or to such other punishment as the Board may think fit.

33. Any pilot taking charge of a vessel not bound to the port to which he is licensed shall be paid the rates and be governed by the laws established at the port to which the vessel is bound.

34. The fee on granting a licence shall be £2 2s. 0d. for a Gloucester pilot and £1 1s. 0d. for a Lydney pilot, and the licences of pilots shall be renewed at the discretion of the Board annually in the first or second week in January in each year on a fee for a Gloucester licence of £1 1s. 0d. and for a Lydney licence of 10s. 6d.

35. In cases of dispute between masters of vessels and pilots, the decision of the Board shall be final.

36 and 37. Each pilot shall be furnished with, and keep in his possession, a printed copy of these Bye-laws and Regulations, and he shall produce the same to the master of any vessel or other person employing him when required to do so, under a penalty, in case of default, of not exceeding five pounds.

38. The pilot who shall first speak to the westward whether within the limits of his licence or not from his own boat, and shall give his name or number or the number of his boat to any vessel then bound to any port in the Bristol Channel and ultimately bound to the port of Gloucester, shall be entitled to such vessel (whether the captain or master may be on board or not) but such pilot must be ready to take charge of such vessel in time to bring her to dock or he will forfeit his claim, and the next pilot who has spoken her shall be entitled to her inwards as well as outwards.

39. Any pilot speaking to a vessel in manner set out in the last Bye-law, bound to any roadstead for orders shall follow her up, and remain in attendance until such vessel receives her orders, otherwise he forfeits his claim to such vessel.

40. The pilot who shall first speak from his own boat, and shall give his name or number, or the number on his boat to any vessel to the westward, whether within the limits of his licence or not, bound to the port of Gloucester and such vessel will not stop to take him on board, he shall be entitled to pilot that vessel provided he arrives at Kingroad in time to take her to dock, notwithstanding the master may have taken another pilot on board; but in all cases he shall be entitled to pilot her outwards, provided he reports his claim to the Board's agent at Sharpness from Portishead or at Sharpness.

41. Should he so speak a vessel so far away that it would be impossible for him to be up with his boat at Kingroad in time to dock her, he shall be at liberty to follow the vessel up in any manner he chooses, and immediately upon arriving at Sharpness if he shall report himself to the agent for the Board he shall be entitled to her outwards.

42. If such pilot is so following a vessel in accordance with the previous Bye-laws, and should board any other vessel for the purpose of piloting her, he shall not be entitled to the vessel he has first spoken; but if such second named vessel should have signalled for a pilot, and he has by virtue of such signal taken charge of her, he shall give her up to the first pilot that speaks him, and in such a case he shall be entitled to the first vessel he spoke to upon complying (as to reporting himself) with Bye-law 40.

43. The pilot who brings a vessel into dock shall as a rule be entitled to take her out, but in all cases where pilots have more outward bound vessels than they can attend to they shall have the privilege of arranging with pilots for taking the same out, unless such pilots or his or their partners, is or are to the westward seeking.

Should the pilot who has brought a vessel into Kingroad be absent to the westward seeking when such vessel is ordered to dock, the pilot who docks her shall be entitled to her in and out.

44. Pilot boats leaving Sharpness to go seeking shall not under any circumstances be towed further than Kingroad, and shall not be towed past another pilot boat going seeking. No pilot shall have his boat towed by a vessel further than the distance for which he shall have been engaged to pilot such vessel, nor shall he join his boat outside the limits of his licence for the purpose of going seeking.

45. If any master or agent of any vessel outward bound from Sharpness should decline to take out the pilot who brought the vessel in and shall make an application to the Board's agent for another pilot he shall give such agent the vessel's draft and registered tonnage with such other information as may be required, and upon payment of the pilotage fees, the Board's agent shall appoint a pilot, preference being given to the partners of such pilot ready to take charge.

46. Any pilot missing his boat when down Channel may get back the best way he can, but he shall not speak any vessel to be employed as a pilot, and he shall not board any vessel for the purpose of piloting her unless such vessel has hoisted the signal flag for a pilot within the limits of his licence.

47. Any pilot who may be found guilty by the Board of having taken charge of any vessel in violation of any of the Bye-laws of the Board shall forfeit his claim to any pilotage claimed by him for such vessel, and the same shall be dealt with by the Board in such manner as they may deem best.

48. All fines inflicted by the Board (after all expenses connected with any enquiry in respect of the same by the Board have been paid there-out) shall be applied to the Pilotage Fund, or to such other purpose as the Board in their absolute discretion shall determine.

49. All disputed claims between pilots shall be settled by the Board, whose decision shall be final.

50. Although a scheme of pension has been generally adopted, yet the Board shall have full power to alter, amend, or vary the same, and deal generally with all applications made by pilots for pensions.

51. The preceding Bye-laws shall commence and take effect from the date of the publication in the London Gazette of the Order of Her Majesty in Council confirming the same from which date all Bye-laws previously made by the Gloucester Pilotage Board for the government of pilots in the Gloucester Pilotage District, shall be repealed and cease to be in force.

WHEREAS by section twenty-six of "The Pluralities Act 1838," after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas the Right Reverend John Lord Bishop of Saint Davids hath pursuant to the enactment aforesaid represented in a writing dated the twenty-fifth day of July one thousand nine hundred to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Frederick Lord Archbishop of Canterbury as follows:—

"I the Right Reverend John Lord Bishop of Saint Davids do in pursuance of the twenty-sixth section of the Act of Parliament of the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty chapter one hundred and six hereby represent to your Grace that there is in the county of Brecon and my diocese of Saint Davids the vicarage of Talgarth having a population that by the census of one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one amounted to one thousand three hundred and ninety-six.

"That there is also in the same county of Brecon and my diocese of Saint Davids the rectory of Llanbedr Ystradyw with the chapelry of Patricio annexed having populations that by the census of one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one amounted to two hundred and thirty for the said rectory and fifty-four for the said chapelry.

"That the benefice of Talgarth is now vacant and has a vicarage house or residence.

"That the benefice of Llanbedr Ystradyw with Patricio is now held by the Reverend Thomas Jones and has no vicarage house or residence.

"That the patronage or right of presentation to the said vicarage of Talgarth is vested in the Dean and Canons of the King's Free Chapel of Saint George within his Castle of Windsor and the patronage or right of presentation to the said benefice of Llanbedr Ystradyw with Patricio is vested in the Duke of Beaufort.

"That the net annual value of the said vicarage of Talgarth is two hundred and thirty pounds and of the said rectory of Llanbedr Ystradyw with Patricio one hundred and eighty-five pounds.

"That it appears to me that the said civil parishes of Grwyne fechan and Grwyne fawr may under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament of the first and second years of Her present Majesty chapter one hundred and six and the second and third years of Her present Majesty chapter forty-nine be with advantage separated from the said parish of Talgarth and the said civil parish of Grwyne fechan annexed to the said rectory and parish of Llanbedr Ystradyw and the said civil parish of Grwyne fawr annexed to the said chapelry and parish of Patricio.

"And I do submit the same to your Grace together with the consents in writing of the Dean and Canons of the King's Free Chapel of Saint George within his Castle of Windsor the patrons of the said vicarage of Talgarth and of his Grace the Duke of Beaufort the patron of the said rectory of Llanbedr Ystradyw with Patricio and of the Reverend Thomas Jones the present incumbent of the said rectory that your Grace may if on full consideration and enquiry you shall be satisfied with the said scheme certify the same and such consents to Her Majesty in Council."

And whereas the scheme drawn up by the said Bishop, and the consents referred to in the said representation are as follows:—

"That the said civil parishes of Grwyne fechan and Grwyne fawr be separated from the said vicarage and parish of Talgarth and that the said civil parish of Grwyne fechan be annexed to the said rectory and parish of Llanbedr and that the said civil parish of Grwyne fawr be annexed to the said chapelry and parish of Patricio.

"That the said benefice of Llanbedr with Patricio so enlarged shall be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as such benefice was subject to before being so enlarged.

"That the said benefices of Talgarth and Llanbedr with Patricio shall respectively retain all the emoluments to which they are now respectively entitled save the emoluments and fees mentioned in the next two paragraphs of this scheme.
