

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of November, 1900.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and twenty-four duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and four and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and twenty-four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken partly out of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Michael Wood Green within the original limits of the parish of Tottenham and partly out of the parish of Saint James Clerkenwell (detached) all in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

“Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said new parish of Saint Michael Wood Green, and of the said parish of Saint James Clerkenwell (detached) which are hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth.

“And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed separate district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

“And whereas we are satisfied that the said new parish of Saint Michael Wood Green and the parish of Saint James Clerkenwell (detached) aforesaid are cures wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof.

“And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the limits of the said parish of Tottenham have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of some or one of them and we have in respect of such hereditaments and premises agreed to make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act to the minister of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted so soon as a minister shall have been appointed and licensed in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act and to his successors a grant of fifty pounds per annum.

“And whereas such grant as aforesaid will be made by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and eleven.

“And whereas there are held by us the said

Ecclesiastical Commissioners in trust for and for the benefit of the rector or incumbent of the rectory of the parish of Finchley in the county and diocese aforesaid and as part of the endowments of the same rectory a sum of nineteen thousand five hundred and eighty-six pounds twelve shillings and ten pence Metropolitan three per cent. stock and a sum of one hundred and seventy-one pounds and eleven pence India three per cent. stock.

“And whereas the Reverend William St. Hill Bourne, Clerk in Holy Orders is now the rector or incumbent of the said rectory and he as such rector or incumbent has with the concurrence of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Mandell Bishop of the said diocese of London and as such Bishop, the patron of the same rectory expressed to us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England his desire that out of the endowments of the said rectory as hereinbefore mentioned an amount of stock sufficient to produce a yearly sum of one hundred pounds should be set apart from the date of the constitution of the said proposed district, as and for an endowment for the same district the amount of the annual dividends as they accrue due from the said sum of stock so to be set apart as aforesaid to be paid over from time to time as they accrue due to the minister of the said proposed district when duly licensed thereto, and when the same proposed district shall under the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Act have become a new parish then to the incumbent of the same new parish.

“And whereas it is intended by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England so soon as the said proposed district shall be duly constituted as hereinafter set forth to submit to Your Majesty in Council a scheme under the provisions of the said Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-four for effecting the endowment of the said proposed district in the manner, and as from the date hereinbefore in that behalf specified.

“And whereas the said William St. Hill Bourne has nominated to us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, the said Mandell, Bishop of the said diocese of London, as the person in whom he the said William St. Hill Bourne desires that the patronage of the said proposed district or as the case may be new parish should be vested.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said Mandell Bishop of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said new parish of Saint Michael Wood Green and of the said parish of Saint James Clerkenwell (detached) which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed shall upon and from the day of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named ‘The District of Saint Andrew Alexandra Park.’

“And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district, and when the said district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid, then of the said
