

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1900.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of December, 1900.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Dockyard Ports Regulation Act 1865," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council from time to time, by Order in Council, to define the limits of a dockyard port for the purposes of that Act, and to make regulations for all or any of the purposes in the said Act particularly mentioned, and for such other purposes as from time to time seem necessary, with a view to the proper protection of Her Majesty's vessels, dockyards, or property, or to the requirements of Her Majesty's Naval Service.

And whereas in pursuance of the said Act certain Regulations were made for the Dockyard Port of Portsmouth by Order in Council dated the twenty-sixth day of February one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven.

And whereas it appears expedient that such Regulations should be amended.

And whereas the provisions of section one of "The Rules Publication Act, 1893," have been complied with.

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers in this behalf by the said Act or otherwise in Her vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order shall take effect one calendar month from the date hereof.

2. On this Order taking effect clause twelve of the Second Schedule to the Order in Council dated the twenty-sixth day of February one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven shall be cancelled and the following clause shall be substituted for such cancelled clause:—

12. The Queen's Harbour Master shall from time to time issue such Regulations as he deems necessary respecting the speed of vessels navigating the port, or any specified part of the port.

Such Regulations shall be made known to mariners by notice, issued by the Admiralty, and published in the London Gazette at least twenty-one days before the Regulations come into operation.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of December, 1900.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the eighth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Christ Church, Windhill, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Christ Church Windhill was by deed dated the fourth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, vested in five trustees.

"And whereas Sir Francis Sharp Powell of Horton Old Hall, Bradford, in the said county of York, Baronet, a Member of the Commons House of Parliament, is now the sole surviving trustee of the said advowson, and as such sole surviving trustee is enabled by the said deed to exercise the said right of patronage and presentation notwithstanding the fact that no other person has been appointed to act as trustee in place of any of those persons who have vacated their trusteeship.

"And whereas the said Francis Sharp Powell is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual
