TAKE notice that by an Order dated 4th May, 1900, made in an action in the matter of the trusts of Horatio Bottomley's Settlement dated 20th July 1897 Stanley and others v. What persons (by virtue of any and what award, made by the plaintiffs (the trustees of the said settlement) or otherwise) have become interested in the funds and property subject to the trusts of the said settlement and what are now their respective estates and interests therein. 2. Whether there are any and what persons (other than those referred to in Enquiry No. 1) in whose favour any and what further awards ought to be made. By the terms of the said settlement the plaintiffs as trustees thereof stood possessed of the funds therein comprised upon trust at their absolute discretion and without limitation or control from any person whatsoever to apply the trust funds in assisting or relieving or benefiting the following classes of persons namely:—First. Such of the creditors and contributories of the Hansard Union Publishing Company Limited and the widows minor children and children or parents living with or dependent on any deceased creditor or contributory as in the opinion of the said trustees had been at the time of the death of such creditor or contributory and then were in seriously straitened or necessitous circumstances by reason of the failure of the Hansard Company and as were in their judgment deserving of assistance or support. Secondly. Such persons as had similarly suffered by the failure of either the Anglo Austrian Printing and Publishing Union Limited or the International Newspaper Company Limited. Thirdly. Such creditors or contributories of the companies aforesaid or any of them as might not fall within the classes first and secondly above described but whose income might have been seriously diminished by reason of the failure of the said companies or either of them. Lists of all persons claiming to benefit under the said settlement who have given notice of their claims to the plaintiffs as such trustees are open to inspection at the offices of Messrs. Bompas Bischoff and Co. 4 Great Winchester-street London E.C. the plaintiffs' Solicitors during usual business hours. Bompas Bischoff and Co. their Christian and surnames and addresses and full particulars of their claims including a statement of what shares they held in the aforesaid companies and in which of the three classes of beneficiaries they claim to be included or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order. And further take notice that after the expiration of the time limited for publication of the said advertisement all such persons as aforesaid will be bound by the proceedings in the above action in the same manner as if they had been originally made parties and that any such person may on entering an appearance at the Central Office attend the proceedings under the said Order of the 4th May 1900 and may within one month after the date of publication of the last of the said advertisements apply to discharge vary or add to the said Order dated the 4th of May 1900.—Dated the 20th December, 1900.
