Board of Trade (Fisheries and Harbour Department), London, February 5, 1901.

THE Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, the following copy of a Notice issued by the Danish Government, viz. :—

Notice regarding Sanitary Regulations concerning the Plague at Smyrna.

According to information received, Smyrna must be considered to be infected with the plague. Consequently the regulations in sections 26-35, concerning plague, in the Notice from the Ministry of Justice, No. 104, of the 14th of May of last year, come into force with regard to the above-mentioned place.

The further import from Smyrna of the articles mentioned in the aforesaid notice, section 38, is prohibited (subject to the exceptions therein mentioned), and in accordance with section 39 of the said notice disinfection of used clothing and bedding arriving from Smyrna, the import of which is not forbidden by section 38, is obligatory.

a. The regulations in sections 13-21 and 24 concerning Asiatic cholera in the above-mentioned notice of the 14th of May of last year apply to the following places :—

1. Red Sea ports.
2. Egyptian ports.
3. Ports in Tonquin and Cochin China as well as East India, including the Dutch East Indian Colonies.

b. The regulations in sections 26-35 and 38 concerning the plague in the above-mentioned notice of the 14th of May last apply to Smyrna.

Used clothing and bedding of which the import, in conformity with the above-mentioned regulations in sections 24 and 38 of the circular of the 14th May last, is not forbidden, may, however, only be imported from the above-mentioned place after being properly disinfected under public control.

This notice comes into force forthwith.

Whereof public notice is hereby given.

Ministry of Justice, 17 January, 1901.

Goos.

The Board of Trade have also received intimation to the effect that the Government of the Danish Antilles has annulled the quarantine against arrivals from Glasgow, as well as the prohibition against the importation of certain articles.
