00414, 00416 of 1900.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1893, and in the Matter of the Cheque Bank Limited.

BY an Order made by Mr. Justice Wright in the above matter, dated the 16th day of January, 1901, on the two several petitions (1) of the Most Honourable William Montagu Hay, Marquis of Tweeddale, of 6, Hill-street, in the county of London, and Yester Gifford Hadington, N.B., the Chairman of the Trustees of the Guarantee Fund, for securing the cheques of the Cheque Bank Limited, and a contributory of the above named Company, and (2) of George Edarades, of 6, Park-square West, in the county of London, a contributory of the above named Company, praying that an Order might be made for the above named Company to be wound up compulsorily by the Court, or in the alternative that an Order might be made for the continuance of the voluntary winding up of the said Company but subject to the supervision of the Court it was ordered that the voluntary winding up of the said Cheque Bank Limited be continued but subject to the supervision of the Court and any of the proceedings under the said voluntary winding up might be adopted as the Court should think fit. And it was ordered that Gordon Hargrave Bodley and Duncan Frederick Basden or other the Liquidators for the time being in the voluntary winding up of the said Company, shall on the 16th April, 1901, and thenceforth quarterly in each year, file with the Registrar Companies (Winding-up), a report, in writing, as to the position of and progress made with the winding up of the said Company, and with the realization of the assets thereof, and as to any other matters connected with the winding up as the Court may from time to time direct. And it was ordered that no bills of costs, charges, or expenses, or special remuneration of any Solicitor employed by the Liquidators of the said Company, or any remuneration, charges, or expenses of any such Liquidators or of any Manager, Accountant, Auctioneer, Broker, or other person be paid out of the assets of the said Company, unless such costs, charges, or expenses, or remuneration have been taxed or allowed by the Registrar Companies (Winding-up). And it was ordered that the costs of the said Petitioners, and of the said Company and of the said Petitioners, be taxed and paid out of the assets of the said Company. And the creditors, contributories, and Liquidators of the said Company and all other persons interested, were to be at liberty to apply to the Court as there might be occasion. And the time within which the said Order was to be advertised was extended over the 8th day of February, 1901.—Dated the 6th day of February, 1901.
