

that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Llandaff.

A. W. FitzRoy.

AT the Court at Saint James's, the 30th day of January, 1901.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared for the purpose of being laid before Her said late Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the sixth day of December in the year one thousand nine hundred in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty chapter seventy of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-seven and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John the Divine Bedford Hill Balham situate within the limits of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Mary Streatham (commonly known as Saint Mary Balham) in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Saint Mary Streatham and of the said new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Upper Tooting in the said county and diocese which said extremities lie contiguous one to another and are described in the Schedule hereunder written there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parishes respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Saint Mary Streatham and of the said new parish of Upper Tooting should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint John the Divine, Bedford Hill, Balham situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Stuart, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester as such Bishop, and also as the patron, in right of his See, of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Streatham, and with the consent of the Reverend John Richard Nicholl, Honorary Canon of Rochester, the Rector or Incumbent of the rectory of the parish of Streatham in the county and diocese aforesaid, and as such Rector or Incumbent the patron of the vicarage of the new parish of Upper Tooting aforesaid (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint Mary Streatham and of the said new parish of Upper Tooting which are described in the Schedule hereunder written all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint John the Divine Bedford Hill Balham situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John the Divine Bedford Hill, Balham.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John the Divine Bedford Hill Balham, comprising:—

"All those contiguous portions of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Mary Streatham (commonly known as Saint Mary, Balham) and of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Upper Tooting, both in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Rochester which (taken together) are bounded upon the south-east partly by the parish of Streatham and partly by the parish of Tooting Graveney both in the county and diocese aforesaid, and upon the remaining sides that is to say, upon the south-west, upon the north-west and upon the north-east by an imaginary line commencing at a point on the north-western side of Tooting Common upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Tooting Graveney from the new parish of Upper Tooting aforesaid at the junction of Elm-bourne-road with Huron-road and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of twenty-five chains or thereabouts to a point at its junction with Ritherdon-road upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Upper Tooting from the new parish of Saint Mary Streatham aforesaid, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of three chains or thereabouts to its junction with Balham High-road and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of one and a half chains or thereabouts (thereby following in the two last-mentioned directions the last-described boundary) to a point opposite to the western end of the wall or fence forming the south-western boundary of the house and premises known as No. 223 Balham High-road and extending thence south-eastward along the same boundary wall or fence for a distance of five and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with the wall or fence forming the south-eastern boundary of the said house and premises and extending thence north-eastward for a distance of thirteen chains or thereabouts along the last-described wall or fence and along the walls or fences forming the south-eastern boundaries of the houses and premises known respectively as Nos. 221, 219, 217, 215, 213, 211, 209, 207, 205 and 203 Balham High-road to the junction of the wall or fence forming the south-eastern boundary of the last-mentioned house and premises (i.e., No. 203 Balham High-road) with the wall or fence forming the north-eastern boundary of the same house and premises and extending thence north-westward along the last-described wall or fence for a distance of four chains or thereabouts to a point at the southern end of the court or passage leading into Elmfield-road and forming the back entrance to the houses and premises known as the Boulevard Balham High-road and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said court or passage for a distance of two chains or thereabouts to its
