

teenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and four become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act, and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven and by the above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas by the authority of another Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the twelfth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-eighth day of the same month the boundaries of the said new parish of Trinity Dover were extended so as to include a further portion of the parish of Saint Mary the Virgin Dover aforesaid.

"And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Trinity Dover and of the said new parish of Christ Church Hougham - in - Dover should be altered in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Frederick Archbishop of Canterbury (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation the boundaries both of the said new parish of Trinity Dover and of the said new parish of Christ Church Hougham-in-Dover shall be altered so that there shall be annexed to the said new parish of Trinity Dover all those two contiguous portions of the said parish of Hougham and of the said new parish of Christ Church Hougham-in-Dover which are described in the first schedule hereunder written and are delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended and are thereon coloured pink and yellow respectively and that from and after the day of the same date and without any assurance in law other than such duly gazetted Order the said two portions of the said parish of Hougham and of the said new parish of Christ Church Hougham-in-Dover shall be included within and shall become and be and form part of the said new parish of Trinity Dover. And also that from and after the day of the same date of publication in the London Gazette as aforesaid the boundaries of the said new parish of Christ Church Hougham-in-Dover shall be further altered so that they shall include all those two contiguous portions of the said parish of Hougham which are described in the second schedule hereunder written, and are delineated and set forth upon the said map or plan hereunto annexed, and are thereon coloured green respectively and that from and after the day of the same date and without any assurance in law other than such duly gazetted Order the said portions of the parish of Hougham aforesaid shall be included within and shall become and be and form part of the said new parish of Christ Church Hougham-in-Dover.

"And we further represent recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULES to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"THE FIRST SCHEDULE.

"The territory to be annexed to the new parish of Trinity Dover in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury being:—

"All those two contiguous portions of the parish of Hougham and of the new parish of Christ Church Hougham-in-Dover both in the county and diocese aforesaid which taken together are bounded upon the north-west and upon the south-west by the boundary of the municipal borough of Dover as extended and defined in 'The Borough of Dover Extension Order 1895' dated the ninth day of November one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five and confirmed by 'The Local Government Board's Provisional Orders Confirmation (No. 16) Act 1895' section two upon the south by the sea upon the east by the said new parish of Trinity Dover and upon the remaining sides that is to say upon the north and upon the north-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church Hougham-in-Dover from the new parish of Trinity Dover aforesaid at the point where such boundary crosses Archcliffe-road and extending thence generally westward for a distance of fifty chains or thereabouts along the middle of the said road and along the middle of the Old Folkestone-road (thereby passing to the south of the Dover Barracks and to the north of Townshend Coastguard Station) to the point opposite to the south-eastern end of the fence forming the south-western boundary of Dover Barracks aforesaid and extending thence north-westward to and along the said fence for a distance of nineteen chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with the above-mentioned extended boundary of the said municipal borough of Dover.

"THE SECOND SCHEDULE.

"The territory to be annexed to the said new parish of Christ Church Hougham - in - Dover being:—

"All those two contiguous portions of the said parish of Hougham which are comprised within the limits of the above-mentioned extended boundary of the municipal borough of Dover aforesaid all which portions (taken together) are bounded upon the west by the said extended boundary of the municipal borough of Dover upon the north partly by the parish of Poulton and partly by the new parish of Saint Bartholomew Charlton-by-Dover both in the county and diocese aforesaid upon the east by the said new parish of Christ Church Hougham-in-Dover and upon the remaining side that is to say upon the south-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church Hougham-in-Dover from the parish of Hougham aforesaid at the point where such boundary is crossed by the fence forming the south-western boundary of Dover Barracks as aforesaid and extending thence north-westward along the said fence for a distance of eleven chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with the said extended boundary of the municipal borough of Dover aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto:

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been laid before and approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or repre-
