

desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Manea now vested in her as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Ely.

"And whereas the Honourable and Right Reverend Alwyne now Bishop of the said diocese of Ely is willing to accept such transfer and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said Alwyne Bishop of the said diocese of Ely has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas a benefaction of one hundred pounds sterling has been paid to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the benefit of the said benefice of Manea upon the understanding that we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall promote the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas having regard to this benefaction the said transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Manea will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Manea.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Magdalen Wellesley (in testimony whereof she has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Alwyne Bishop of the said diocese of Ely (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Manea now vested in her the said Magdalen Wellesley and her heirs and assigns as aforesaid, shall be transferred from her and them to the said Alwyne Bishop of the said diocese of Ely and his successors Bishops of the same diocese, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Alwyne Bishop of the said diocese of Ely and by his successors, Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ely.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 9th day of February, 1901.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Burial Act, 1855," it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows, viz.:—

In the churchyards of Saint Michael and Christchurch, Stone, in the county of Stafford, until the thirtieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and one.

In the churchyard of Saint Nicholas at Wade, in the county of Kent, until the thirtieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and one.

In the parish churchyard of Hemyock, in the county of Devon, until the thirtieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and one.
