

[Variation 14° Westerly in 1901.]

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Chart:—Scheveningen to Ameland, No. 2322. Also, North Sea Pilot, Part IV, 1892, page 165.

By command of their Lordships,
W. J. L. Wharton, Hydrographer.
 Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
 5th to 9th March, 1901.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of six hundred pounds sterling which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint Luke, Enfield, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of eighteen pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Saint Luke, Enfield, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of six hundred pounds, in respect of which, so long as the same capital sum or any part thereof shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage one other yearly sum of eighteen pounds, or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands; such lastly-mentioned yearly payment to commence as from the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-eighth day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and one.

INSTRUMENT substituting the New Church of Saint Helen, situate within the Chapelry of Colne, in the Parish of Somersham, with the Chapelries of Pidley and Colne annexed, in the County of Huntingdon, and in the Diocese of Ely, for the old Church of Saint Helen hitherto being the Church of the same Chapelry, but now taken down.

To all to whom these presents shall come, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England send greeting:

WHEREAS a new church has lately been built within the chapelry of Colne, in the parish of Somersham, with the chapelries of Pidley and Colne annexed, in the county of Huntingdon, and in the diocese of Ely, and has been consecrated and dedicated to Saint Helen.

And whereas the Honourable and Right Reverend Alwyne, Bishop of the said diocese of Ely, as such Bishop, and also as the patron in right of his See of the vicarage of the said parish of Somersham with the chapelries of Pidley and Colne annexed, and the Reverend William Sumpter Beevor, Clerk in Holy Orders, as the Vicar or Incumbent of the said vicarage, have, by an instrument under their hands, bearing date on or about the seventeenth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said chapelry of Colne that the said new church of Saint Helen, situate within such chapelry, should be substituted for the old church (also dedicated to Saint Helen) of the same chapelry.

Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the power or authority in that behalf contained in the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, and in the Acts of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling us in the same behalf, do, by this instrument under our common seal, with the consents (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of the said Alwyne, Bishop of the said diocese of Ely, and of the said William Sumpter Beevor, hereby declare that the said new church of Saint Helen, situate within the said chapelry of Colne, and duly consecrated as aforesaid, shall be, and the same is hereby substituted for, the said old church (dedicated to Saint Helen as aforesaid) of the same chapelry, and that such new church shall henceforth be the church of the said chapelry of Colne, in lieu of the said old church of Saint Helen, as fully in all respects as if the said new church of Saint Helen, so hereby substituted, had been originally the church of the same chapelry.

And we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities aforesaid, and with such consents as aforesaid (testified as hereinafter mentioned), do hereby transfer all the endowments, emoluments, and rights of or belonging to the said old church (dedicated to Saint Helen as aforesaid) of the said chapelry of Colne, or of or belonging to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof, to the said new church of Saint Helen (now being by virtue of these presents the church of the said chapelry of Colne), and to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof, and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof to these presents, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have set our common seal, and the said Alwyne, Bishop of the said diocese of Ely, has set his hand and
