The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, MARCH 15, 1901.

AT the Court at Saint James's, the 9th day of March, 1901.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is expedient that the operation of the Order in Council dated the eighteenth of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, and made pursuant to "The Land Transfer Act, 1897," should be further postponed as regards the city of London: Now it is hereby ordered and declared that the said Order is to be read and to take effect as if instead of the words "first of May one thousand nine hundred and one" the words "first of January, one thousand nine hundred and two" had been inserted in the Schedule thereto. A. W. FitzRoy.

AT the Court at Saint James's, the 9th day of March, 1901.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section sixteen of "The Pluralities Act, 1838," as amended by "The Pluralities Act, 1850," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That whenever it shall appear "to the Archbishop of the Province, with respect "to his own diocese, and whenever it shall be "represented to him by the Bishop of any "diocese, or by the Bishops of any two "dioceses, that two or more benefices, or that "one or more benefice or benefices, and one or "more spiritual sinecure rectory or rectories, "vicarage or vicarages, in his or their diocese "or dioceses, being either in the same parish or "contiguous to each other, and of which the "aggregate population shall not exceed one "thousand five hundred persons, may, with "advantage to the interests of religion, be united "into one benefice, the said Archbishop of the "Province shall inquire into the circumstances of "the case; and if on such inquiry it shall appear "to him that such union may be usefully made, "and will not be of inconvenient extent, and that "the patron or patrons of the said benefices, sine-"cure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages "respectively, is or are consenting thereto, such "consent being signified in writing under the hands "of such patron or patrons, the said Archbishop "shall, six weeks before certifying such inquiry "and consent to Her Majesty as hereinafter "directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, "a statement in writing of the facts, and in other "cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid repre-"sentation to be affixed on or near the principal "outer door of the church, or in some public and "conspicuous place in each of such benefices, sine-"cure rectories, or vicarages, with notice to any "person or persons interested, that he, she, or they, "may, within such six weeks, show cause in writing "under his, her, or their hand or hands, to the "said Archbishop, against such union; and if no "sufficient cause be shown within such time, the "said Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and con-"sent aforesaid to Her Majesty in Council, and "thereupon it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in "Council to make and issue an Order or Orders "for uniting such benefices, sinecure rectory or "rectories, vicarage or vicarages, into one benefice, "with cure of souls, for ecclesiastical purposes "only."

And whereas the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, hath duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a certificate in writing, bearing date the thirty-first day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and one, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the undersigned Frederick, Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, Primate of All England and Metropolitan do hereby certify to to Your Majesty in Council,—

"That the Right Reverend Alwyne Lord Bishop of Ely as Bishop of the diocese within which are situate the rectories of Rushbrooke and Little Whelnetham both in the county of Suffolk having represented unto us that the said benefices being contiguous to each other and of which the aggregate population does not exceed one thousand five hundred persons may with advantage to the interests of religion be united into one benefice we enquired into the circumstances of the case.

"That on such enquiry it appeared to us that such union might be usefully made and is not of inconvenient extent and that the Most Honourable Frederick William John Marquess of Bristol being the patron or person entitled to present to the rectory of Rushbrooke the same being now vacant and also to the rectory of Little Whelnetham if the same were now vacant consents to the proposed union.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such enquiry and consent to Your Majesty in Council we caused a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed to the principal outer door of the parish church of each of the said benefices with notice to any person or persons interested that he she or they might within such six weeks show cause in writing under his her or their hand or hands to us the said Archbishop against such union and no such cause has been shown.

"The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Ely our enquiry into the circumstances of the case, the statement of circumstances in reply thereto the consent in writing of the said patron and the copies of the representation and notices before mentioned are hereunto annexed.

"And we do hereby certify the enquiry and consent aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an order for uniting the said benefices into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes.

"As witness our hand this thirty-first day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and one.

"F. Cantuar."

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the rectory of Rushbrooke, situate in the county of Suffolk and diocese of Ely, and the rectory of Little Whelnetham, situate in the same county and diocese, shall be united into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only.

A. W. FitzRoy.

AT the Court at Saint James's, the 9th day of March, 1901.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section twenty-six of "The Pluralities Act, 1838," after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, "chapelries, and other places or districts may be "separated from the parishes or mother churches "to which they belong, with great advantage, "and places altogether extra-parochial may "in some instances with advantage be annexed "to parishes or districts to which they "are contiguous, or be constituted separate "parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when with "respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the "Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop "of any diocese shall represent to the said Arch-"bishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, "place or district within the diocese of such "Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, "as the case may be, may be advantageously "separated from any parish or mother church, "and either be constituted a separate benefice by "itself or be united to any other parish to which "it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any "other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, "or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to "form a separate parish or benefice, or that any "extra-parochial place may with advantage be "annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, "or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesi-"astical purposes; and the said Archbishop or "Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the "scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the "said Archbishop for his consideration) de-"scribing the mode in which it appears to "him that the alteration may best be effected, "and how the changes consequent on such "alteration in respect to ecclesiastical juris-"diction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and "other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, "and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, "may be made with justice to all parties in-"terested; and if the patron or patrons of the "benefice or benefices to be affected by such "alteration shall consent in writing under his or "their hands to such scheme, or to such modifi-"cation thereof as the said Archbishop may ap-"prove, and the said Archbishop shall, on full "consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with "any such scheme, or modification thereof, "and shall certify the same and such consent as "aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in "Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in "Council to make an Order for carrying such "scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may "be, into effect."

And whereas the Right Reverend Randall Thomas Lord Bishop of Winchester hath pursuant to the enactment aforesaid represented in a writing dated the eighth day of February one thousand nine hundred and one to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Frederick Lord Archbishop of Canterbury as follows:—

"We Randall Thomas by Divine permission Bishop of Winchester do in pursuance of the twenty-sixth section of 'The Pluralities Act 1838' hereby represent to your Grace as follows:—

"1. There is in the county of Hants and our diocese of Winchester the benefice (being a vicarage) of Yateley to which belongs amongst other places a district the boundaries of which are well known and defined and which includes part of Frogmore and part of Blackwater and Starveacre.

"2. The population of the parish of Yateley is one thousand two hundred and thirty-eight including the population (two hundred and ninety-seven) of the district proposed to be separated.

"3. The net annual value of the said benefice of Yateley is two hundred and ninety-five pounds or thereabouts and there is a sufficient residence house.

"4. It does not appear that any of the inhabitants of the said parish of Yateley possess a right by faculty or otherwise to the exclusive use of any pews or sittings in any church other than in the church of the said parish.

"5. The patronage or right of presentation to the said benefice of Yateley if the same were now vacant belongs to the Lord Bishop of Winchester and the Reverend Charles Drummond Snooks is the present vicar thereof.

"6. There is also in the county of Hants and our diocese of Winchester the benefice (being a perpetual curacy) of Hawley the parish whereof contains a population of one thousand three hundred and sixteen and is of the net annual value of four hundred pounds and there is a sufficient residence house.

"7. The patronage or right of presentation to the said benefice of Hawley if the same were now vacant belongs to John Charles Randell Esquire of Hawley Blackwater Hants and the Reverend John Ingram Penfold Wyatt is the present perpetual curate thereof.

"8. The parish church of Hawley is distant about one mile or thereabouts from the portion of Yateley proposed to be separated and annexed to the parish of Hawley.

"9. It appears to me that under the provisions of the said Act one and two Victoria chapter one hundred and six the said portion of Yateley hereinafter described may be advantageously separated and annexed to the parish and benefice of Hawley for ecclesiastical purposes.

"10. Pursuant to the directions contained in the twenty-sixth section of the said Act of Parliament we the said Bishop have drawn up a scheme in writing annexed to this representation describing the mode in which it appears to us the alterations may best be effected and how the alterations consequent thereon in respect of ecclesiastical jurisdiction glebe lands and other ecclesiastical dues and payments and in respect of patronage may be made with justice to all parties interested. And we do hereby submit the same to your Grace together with the consents in writing of the patrons and incumbents of both the said benefices to the intent that if your Grace shall on full consideration and enquiry be satisfied with such scheme you may certify the same and such consents by your report to His Majesty in Council."

And whereas the said scheme drawn up by the said Bishop and the consents referred to in the said representation are as follows:—

"SCHEME.

"That the portion of the parish and benefice of Yateley proposed to be separated therefrom and annexed for ecclesiastical purposes to the parish and benefice of Hawley consists of that part of Frogmore, Blackwater and Starveacre which is verged red on the Ordnance Sheet or Plan hereto annexed and which lies to the east of an imaginary line commencing at a point in the Blackwater River to the west of the Reading Branch of the South Eastern Railway at the 'Ford' and running thence southward along the centre of the road from such 'Ford' towards Frogmore and continuing along such road to the south-west corner of Bailey's Farm and thence south-east in a straight line to the north-eastern corner of the boundary between the parishes of Hawley and Yateley and thence from that point first south-east and then south along the parish boundary between Yateley and Hawley to the southern angle of Yateley parish near Hawley Pond verged red on the Ordnance Sheet or Plan hereto annexed.

"That the Incumbent of the benefice of Hawley shall have the sole and exclusive cure of souls within the limits of the portion of the parish of Yateley proposed to be separated.

"That marriages baptisms churchings and burials shall be solemnized in the church of the parish of Hawley for the inhabitants of the portion of Yateley proposed to be separated and all fees dues ecclesiastical offerings and emoluments arising therefrom shall henceforth belong to the Incumbent of the benefice of Hawley aforesaid.

"CONSENTS.

"We Randall Thomas by Divine permission Lord Bishop of Winchester being the patron or person entitled to present in right of our Bishoprick to the benefice of Yateley in the county of Hants and our diocese of Winchester if the same were now vacant and John Charles Randell of Hawley Blackwater Hants Esquire the patron or person entitled to present to the benefice of Hawley in the same county and diocese if the same were now vacant the Reverend Charles Drummond Stooks the vicar of Yateley and the Reverend John Ingram Penfold Wyatt the perpetual curate of Hawley do hereby signify to your Grace our consent to the scheme above proposed and set forth and to every matter and thing therein contained.

"In testimony whereof we have hereunto respectively set our hands this eighth day of February one thousand nine hundred and one.

"Randall Winton.
"J. Chas. Randell.
"John I. P. Wyatt."

And whereas the said scheme hath been transmitted by the said Bishop to the said Archbishop for his consideration.

And whereas the said Archbishop being satisfied with the said scheme hath certified the same and the consents aforesaid to His Majesty in Council by his report dated the eighteenth day of February one thousand nine hundred and one which said report is in the words and figures following:—

"We the undersigned Frederick Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury Primate of All England and Metropolitan do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council

"That the Right Reverend Randall Thomas Lord Bishop of Winchester as Bishop of the diocese within which are situate the benefice (being a vicarage) of Yateley and the benefice (being a perpetual curacy) of Hawley both in the county of Hants having represented unto us that there belongs to the benefice of Yateley a district the boundaries of which are well known and defined and which includes part of Frogmore and part of Blackwater and Starveacre and more particularly set out in the scheme hereunto annexed drawn up by the said Lord Bishop may be advantageously separated from the parish of Yateley and annexed to the contiguous parish of Hawley for ecclesiastical purposes only under the provisions of 'The Pluralities Act 1838.'

"That pursuant to the directions contained in the said Act the said Lord Bishop has drawn up the said scheme in writing describing the mode in which it appears to him that the proposed alteration may best be effected and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction glebe lands tithes rentcharges and other ecclesiastical dues rates and payments and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested which scheme together with the consents thereto in writing of the said Lord Bishop as the patron or person entitled to present in right of his Bishoprick to the said benefice of Yateley in case the same were now vacant and John Charles Randell of Hawley Blackwater Hants Esquire as the patron or person entitled to present to the said benefice of Hawley in case the same were now vacant and of the Reverend Charles Drummond Stooks the vicar of Yateley and the Reverend John Ingram Penfold Wyatt the perpetual curate of Hawley has been transmitted to us by the said Lord Bishop for our consideration.

"The representation and scheme of the said Lord Bishop and the consents before referred to are hereunto annexed.

"And we the said Archbishop being on full consideration and enquiry satisfied with the said scheme do hereby pursuant to the said Pluralities Act 1838 certify the same and such consents as aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for carrying the said scheme into effect.

"As witness our hand this eighteenth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and one.

"F. Cantuar."

Now therefore His Majesty in Council by and with the advice of His said Council is pleased to order as it is hereby ordered that the said scheme be carried into effect. A. W. FitzRoy.

AT the Court at Saint James's the 9th day of March, 1901.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of January in the year one thousand nine hundred and one in the words following; that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter seventy of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty chapter ninety-seven and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty chapter fifty-five have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Margaret situate in Barcombe-avenue Streatham Hill within the limits of the new parish (sometime chapelry district) of Christ Church Streatham in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Christ Church Streatham and of the new parish (sometime particular district) of Saint Peter Streatham in the county and diocese aforesaid which said extremities lie contiguous one to another and are described in the schedule hereunder written there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parishes

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Christ Church Streatham and of the new parish of Saint Peter Streatham aforesaid should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said Church of Saint Margaret situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Stuart Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester as such Bishop with the consent of the Reverend John Richard Nicholl honorary Canon of Rochester and Rector of the parish of Streatham and as such rector the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Christ Church Streatham and with the consents of the Reverend Charles Southey Nicholl of the vicarage Christ Church-road Roupell Park Streatham Hill in the said county of Surrey Clerk in Holy Orders of Thomas Fish Marson of Munster Lodge Leigham Court-road Streatham in the same county Esquire of George Henry Drew of Pendeen Midhurst in the county of Sussex Esquire of Richard William Drew of Bletchingley House Bletchingley in the county of Surrey aforesaid Esquire and of Alan Bruce Charles Bellamy of the Vestry Hall Streatham in the last-named county Esquire as the patrons of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Peter Streatham (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Christ Church Streatham and of the new parish of Saint Peter Streatham aforesaid which are described in the Schedule hereunder written all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said Church of Saint Margaret situate as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Margaret Streatham Hill.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"All those contiguous portions of the new parish (sometime chapelry district) of Christ Church Streatham and of the new parish (sometime particular district) of Saint Peter Streatham both in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Rochester which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church Streatham from the new parish of Saint Peter Streatham aforesaid at a point in the middle of the road called or known as Streatham Hill and opposite to Streatham Hill Railway Station on the West End and Crystal Palace Line of the London Brighton and South Coast Railway and extending thence northward along the middle of the said road for a distance of fourteen chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the western end of the wall or fence forming the northern boundary of the Leigham Court Estate the property of the Artizans Labourers and General Dwellings Company Limited and extending thence eastward to and then eastward north-eastward and south-eastward along the said wall or fence for a distance of forty-three chains or thereabouts to its south-eastern end on the north-western side of Hillside-road and extending thence first south-eastward to and then north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of six chains or thereabouts to its junction with Palace-road upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church Streatham from the district parish of Saint Luke Norwood in the county and diocese aforesaid and extending thence southward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of seventeen chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the said West End and Crystal Palace Line of the London Brighton and South Coast Railway where the said last-mentioned boundary joins the boundary dividing the said new parish of Christ Church Streatham from the new parish of Saint Peter Streatham aforesaid and extending thence westward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of ten and a half chains or thereabouts (thereby following the middle of the course of the said line of railway which here runs partly through a tunnel) to a point in the middle of the footway or passage which connects Hillside-road aforesaid with Mount Nod-road and extending thence south-eastward to and along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the south-eastern end of the wall or fence forming the south-western boundary of the houses and premises situate on the south-western side of the road called or known as Hailsham-avenue and extending thence north-westward along the said wall or fence for a distance of twelve chains or thereabouts to the point at the western end of the railway tunnel aforesaid upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Peter Streatham from the new parish of Christ Church Streatham aforesaid and extending thence westward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of eighteen chains or thereabouts (thereby following the middle of the said line of railway) to the firstly hereinbefore-mentioned point in the middle of the said road called or known as Streatham Hill opposite to Streatham Hill Railway Station aforesaid at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Rochester.

A. W. FitzRoy.

AT the Court at Saint James's, the 9th day of March, 1901.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-fourth day of January, in the year one thousand nine hundred and one, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter fifty and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of the benefice (being a vicarage) of Cold Waltham the alternate patronage of the benefice (being a vicarage) of East Dean with Friston, the patronage of the benefice (being a vicarage) of Ferring with Kingston and East Preston and of the benefice (being a rectory) of Fittleworth and the alternate patronage of the benefice (being a vicarage) of Selmeston with Alciston, all situate in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester for the patronage of the benefice (being a rectory) of Birdham, of the benefice (being a vicarage) of Bosham, of the benefice (being a vicarage) of Funtington, and of the benefice (being a vicarage) of Rumboldswyke, and the alternate patronage of the benefice (being a vicarage) of West Firle with Beddingham all situate in the said county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester aforesaid.

"Whereas the whole advowsons or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Cold Waltham the said benefice of Ferring with Kingston and East Preston and the said benefice of Fittleworth, and one moiety of the advowson of each of the said benefices of East Dean with Friston and Selmeston with Alciston are vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Chichester.

"And whereas the whole advowsons or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefices of Birdham, Bosham, Funtington and Rumboldswyke and one moiety of the advowson of the said benefice of West Firle with Beddingham, are vested in the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Chichester and their successors.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Ernest Roland, now Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester and the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Chichester have respectively signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said ten benefices may be rearranged by way of exchange in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas we have made due enquiry and calculation as to the circumstances and relative value of the said ten benefices and of the patronage thereof respectively, and we do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council that the circumstances and present values of the said ten benefices are as set forth in the Schedule hereunto annexed.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Ernest Roland Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester acting as such Bishop (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and affixed his episcopal seal thereto) and with the consent of the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Chichester (in testimony whereof they have affixed their common or corporate seal to this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowsons or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Cold Waltham the said benefice of Ferring with Kingston and East Preston and the said benefice of Fittleworth and the said moiety of the advowson of each of the said benefices of East Dean with Friston and Selmeston with Alciston shall be assigned and transferred from the said Ernest Roland Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester and from his successors Bishops of the same diocese and shall become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time and at all times be exercised by the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Chichester and their successors for ever, and that in exchange for the same the whole advowsons or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Birdham, the said benefice of Bosham, the said benefice of Funtington and the said benefice of Rumboldswyke and the said moiety of the advowson of the said benefice of West Firle with Beddingham shall in like manner and upon and from the same date be assigned and transferred from the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Chichester and from their successors and shall become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time and at all times be exercised by the said Ernest Roland Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester and his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference:—

W. Fitz Roy.*

AT the Court at Saint James's, the 9th day of March, 1901.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirty-first day of January in the year one thousand nine hundred and one in the words and figures following: that is to say,

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Barnabas Little Ilford situate in Browning-road in the parish of Little Ilford in the county of Essex, and in the diocese of Saint Albans.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Little Ilford, and of the parish of East Ham in the county and diocese aforesaid which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parishes respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Little Ilford and of the parish of East Ham aforesaid should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Barnabas Little Ilford situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend John Wogan, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Albans as such Bishop with the consents of the Honourable Francis Hervey, commonly called Lord Francis Hervey of No. 34 Buckingham Palace-mansions, in the city of Westminster; of the Right Honourable Sir Francis Henry Jeune of No. 76 Harley-street in the county of Middlesex, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, and of James Somerville Lockhart of the Civil Service Commission in the city of Westminster aforesaid Esquire, as the patrons of the rectory of the said parish of Little Ilford and with the consent of the Principal and Scholars of the King's Hall and College of Brasenose in the University of Oxford, as the patrons of the vicarage of the parish of East Ham aforesaid (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Little Ilford and of the said parish of East Ham which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said Church of Saint Barnabas, Little Ilford, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Barnabas, Little Ilford.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

Re RICHARD NICHOLSON, Deceased.
Nicholson v. Todd and others.

WHEREAS Richard Nicholson, late of Easington-lane, in the county of Durham, Farmer and Butcher, died on the 29th day of January, 1891, having made his will, dated the 24th day of August, 1886, whereby he devised and bequeathed all his real and personal estate to the trustees thereby appointed, and (inter alia) he declared and directed that the said trustees should raise and set apart out of his real and personal estate the sum of £400, which he thereby gave and bequeathed to his son John Richard Nicholson, then residing in Australia, if he should return to England to receive the same within the space of four years after his (the said testator's) decease; and if his said son should not return to receive the same within the space aforesaid, the said testator declared that the said sum of £400 should form part of his residuary estate, and be disposed of accordingly. And whereas by an Order of the Chancery of the County Palatine of Durham, made on the 26th day of October, 1900, in an action wherein George Nicholson is plaintiff and James Todd and others are defendants (being an action for the administration of the estate of the said Richard Nicholson, deceased), it was ordered that (amongst other accounts and inquiries) an inquiry be made whether the testator's said son, John Richard Nicholson, returned to England within the space of four years next after the said testator's decease. Notice is hereby given that the said John Richard Nicholson, if living, or if he be dead the persons claiming to be his legal personal representatives, is or are on or before the 10th day of April 1901, to come in and prove his or their claim at the chambers of the Registrar of the said Court, No. 19, Elvet-bridge, in the city of Durham, or in default thereof he or they will be peremptorily excluded from any claim to participate in the distribution of the said testator's estate. Thursday, the 11th day of April, 1901, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon, at the said Chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the said claim.—Dated the 13th day of March, 1901.
