At the Court at Saint James's, the 9th day of March, 1901.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the thirty-first day of January, in the year one thousand nine hundred and one, in the words and figures following, that is to say :—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of the benefice (being a rectory) of Catwick, situate in the county of York, and in the diocese of York, for the patronage of the benefice (being a rectory) of Goxhill, situate in the said county of York and in the said diocese of York.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Catwick is vested in Your Majesty, Your heirs and successors in right of the Crown and such right of patronage and presentation is exercised on behalf of Your Majesty by the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for the time being.

"And whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Goxhill is vested in Henry Strickland-Constable, of Wassand Hall, near Hull, in the said county of York, Esquire, one of Your Majesty's Justices of the Peace and his heirs and assigns.

"And whereas the Right Honourable Hardinge Stanley Earl of Halsbury now Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and the said Henry Strickland-Constable have respectively signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said two benefices of Catwick and Goxhill may be rearranged by way of exchange in the manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas we have made due enquiry and calculation as to the circumstances and relative value of the said two benefices and of the patronage thereof respectively and we do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council that the circumstances and present values of the said two benefices and rectories are as set forth in the Schedule hereunto annexed.

"And whereas the yearly value of the said benefice of Catwick in Your Majesty's books is ten pounds five shillings.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Hardinge Stanley Earl of Halsbury and with the consent of the said Henry Strickland-Constable (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the
