The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section twenty-six of "The Pluralities Act 1838" after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and enquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas the Right Reverend Richard Lord Bishop of Llandaff hath pursuant to the enactment aforesaid represented in a writing dated the nineteenth day of December one thousand nine hundred to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Frederick Lord Archbishop of Canterbury as follows:—

"We Richard, Bishop of Llandaff, in pursuance of the twenty-sixth section of the Pluralities Act 1838 (one and two Victoria, chapter one hundred and six) do hereby represent to your Grace as follows:—

"1. There is in the county of Glamorgan and diocese of Llandaff the benefice or perpetual curacy of Llangeinor, the parish whereof contains a population of about three thousand. The net annual value of the said benefice of Llangeinor arising from all sources is ninety-four pounds or thereabouts.

"2. There is in the same county of Glamorgan and diocese of Llandaff the benefice or vicarage of Llandyfodwg, the parish whereof contains a population of seven thousand or thereabouts. The net annual value of the said benefice of Llandyfodwg arising from all sources is sixty-two pounds or thereabouts.

"3. That representations having been made to us by the respective incumbents of Llangeinor and Llandyfodwg, we the said Bishop did cause full enquiries to be made into the expediency of altering the boundaries of the said parishes, and it was duly reported to us that by reason of its geographical position the position of the said parish of Llandyfodwg immediately contiguous to the parish of Llangeinor, and which is edged red on the plan annexed hereto, containing a population of five thousand persons or thereabouts might
