

Intoxicating Liquors.

¶ 16. Without special written authority from the licensee or medical attendant of a retreat, no patient detained in a retreat shall take, have in his possession, administer to another patient similarly detained, or introduce or cause to be introduced into a retreat, any intoxicating liquor, or sedative, narcotic or stimulant drug or preparation.

Prosecutions.

17. It shall be the duty of the Inspector to report to the Secretary of State any serious offence against the provisions of these Acts, or these Rules, which may be brought to the notice of the Inspector, with a view to take such action in relation thereto as the Secretary of State may direct.

Attendants.

18. Every attendant and servant shall be duly informed of the offences specified in the Acts, and of the penalties attached to the commission thereof. They shall also be furnished with a copy of the "Regulations and Orders" authorized by the Secretary of State, and it shall be the duty of the licensee to prosecute every attendant offending against the Acts or these Rules, and, in case of conviction, to dismiss the offender from his service.

Regulations and Orders.

19. "Regulations and Orders" (not inconsistent with these Rules) for the domestic arrangements of the retreat and the management and treatment of the inmates thereof shall, within one month from the granting of the licence, be drawn up by the licensee, and by him be submitted to the Inspector; and such "Regulations and Orders," when approved by the Secretary of State, shall be adopted and strictly observed in the conduct of the establishment.

Approved—Chas. T. Ritchie,
One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Whitehall, February 28, 1901.
