Admiralty, April 4, 1901.

THE MILITARY TRAMWAYS ACT, 1887,
AND THE NAVAL WORKS ACT, 1899.

Chattenden Naval Tramway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Board of Trade, acting under the powers conferred by and in virtue of the provisions of the above-mentioned Acts, have, on the application of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland (hereinafter called the Admiralty), made and settled the Provisional Order which is annexed to this Notice, authorising the Admiralty to construct and maintain a tramway in the parishes of Hoo St. Werburgh, and High Halstow, in the county of Kent.

If any objection to the said Provisional Order, on the part of any local or road authority within whose district it is proposed by the said Provisional Order to authorise the construction of the said tramway, or on the part of any owner or occupier of any land which the Admiralty are authorised to acquire by the said Provisional Order, is made by Petition lodged with the Board of Trade within one month after the date of this Notice and publication of the said Provisional Order, the said Provisional
