

leurs bagages (vieux vêtements, linge porté et vivres) sont soumis à un examen médical rigoureux, et isolés, et tous les cas suspects d'enflure des glandes, des organes de la respiration et de fièvre ardente sont renvoyés.

Il sera envoyé chaque jour un bulletin télégraphique de la santé des voyageurs.

En outre, le personnel des trains doit surveiller les cas de maladie se manifestant brusquement pendant le voyage, et dans ce cas remettre le malade à la première gare qui à son tour le remettra à la police de l'endroit et celle-ci doit et informer les Autorités Sanitaires.

Il n'a encore été donné aucun ordre en ce qui concerne les voyageurs de l'Orient Express, vu qu'il arrive rarement que ce train ait des voyageurs pour la Serbie, venant de Constantinople.

Board of Trade (Fisheries and Harbour Department), London, May 21, 1901.

THE Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, the following copy of a Quarantine Notice issued by the Austro-Hungarian Government, viz. :—

Translation of Circular No. 5429 of the Imperial and Royal Marine Board to all the Imperial and Royal Offices and Officers and Subordinate Port and Sanitary Offices and Officers.

Trieste, 4th May, 1901.

The Imperial and Royal Ministry of Commerce has, by decree of 1st May, 1901, No. 1741/H.M., ordered that henceforth all arrivals from Alexandria (Egypt), if provided with clean bills of health, will undergo only medical inspection (ordered by Government Decree of December 1899, No. 14968, against arrivals from Turkey, Greece, and North Africa).

Should, however, arrivals from Alexandria not be provided with clean bills of health, the respective vessels will have to be treated according to Government Circular of 5th November, 1900, No. 13835.

This is made known in addition to the said Circular for information and guidance.

The President.
BECHER.
