

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation one month before the said twenty-sixth day of July. A. W. FitzRoy.

AT the Court at Saint James's, the 15th day of June, 1901.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Burial Act, 1853," it was enacted that, in case it appeared to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground should be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, should be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances might require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it should please His Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, should be published in the London Gazette, and should be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation was so considered; provided also that no such representation should be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation should have been given to the incumbent and vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas by "The Burial Act, 1855," it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas by "The Burial Act, 1900," it was enacted that the powers and duties of the Secretary of State should be transferred to the Local Government Board.

And whereas the Local Government Board after giving to the incumbent and the churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representation, have made a representation stating that they are of opinion that the Order of Her late Majesty in Council of the third day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, affecting burials in the parish of Wrexham, should be varied so far as regards clause two, and that the following directions should be substituted for those contained in the said clause, with respect to burials in the new or additional parish churchyard in Ruthin-road, Wrexham, viz.:—

That burials be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the Chapel; and also in the old part of the new or additional parish churchyard, Ruthin-road, Wrexham, in the county of Denbigh (that is in the portion of the said churchyard which was used for burials prior to the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one), except as follows:—

In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twenty-sixth day of July next:

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation one month before the said twenty-sixth day of July.

A. W. FitzRoy.

AT the Court at Saint James's, the 15th day of June, 1901.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Burial Act, 1855," it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be further postponed:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be further postponed as follows, viz.:—

In the churchyards of Saint Michael and Christchurch, Stone, in the county of Stafford, until the thirty-first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and one.

In the parish churchyard of Hemyock, in the county of Devon, until the thirtieth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and one.
