TUESDAY, JULY 2, 1901.

College of Arms, June 28, 1901.

IN pursuance of a Warrant from the Earl Marshal of England, in obedience to His Majesty's Order in Council of the 28th instant, the Officers of Arms this day made Proclamation of the month appointed for the Solemnity of His Majesty's Royal Coronation and that of Her Majesty the Queen.

At eleven o'clock the Officers of Arms, habited in their tabards, assembled at St. James's Palace, and, attended by the Serjeants-at-Arms, proceeded to the balcony in Friary Court, where, after the trumpets had sounded thrice, His Majesty's Proclamation was read by William Henry Weldon, Esq., No. 10, King of Arms. A procession was then formed in the following order, the Heralds, Pursuivants, and Serjeants-at-Arms being in Royal carriages:—

A party of Life Guards.

The High Bailiff of Westminster, in his carriage.

Trumpets, two and two.

Serjeants-at-Arms, bearing their maces.

Pursuivants:

Portcullis.	Rouge Dragon.
T. M. Joseph-Watkin,	Everard Green, Gent.
Gent.

Bluemantle.	Rouge Croix.
G. Ambrose Lee,	George W. Marshall,
Gent.	Esq.

Heralds:

Windsor.	Richmond.
William A. Lindsay,	Charles H. Athill,
Esq.	Esq.
Somerset.	York.
H. Farnham Burke,	A. S. Scott-Gatty,
Esq.	Esq.

The Procession, flanked by the Life Guards, moved on to the site of Temple Bar where a temporary barrier was placed across the street to mark the boundary of the City of London. Portcullis Pursuivant of Arms having advanced between two trumpeters, preceded by two of the Life Guards, demanded in the usual form admission into the City. On being admitted, he was conducted by the City Marshal to the Lord Mayor, who was in attendance in his State carriage, together with the Aldermen, Recorder, Sheriffs, and other Officers of the City, and the Order of His Majesty in Council having been delivered to his Lordship the barrier was then directed to be removed, Portcullis Pursuivant being conducted to his place in the Procession which moved on into the City, the High Bailiff of Westminster filing off at the site of Temple Bar.

At the corner of Chancery Lane the Proclamation was read the second time by York Herald, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder, Sheriffs, and Officers of the City then fell into the Procession immediately after the Officers of Arms, and the whole advanced to the Royal Exchange, where the Proclamation was read the third and last time by Somerset Herald.

The streets through which the Procession passed were filled with spectators, and the acclamations were general.

The Officers of Arms and the Serjeants-at-Arms were afterwards entertained by the Lord Mayor at the Mansion House.

AT the Court at Saint James's, the 28th day of June, 1901.
