COURT OF CLAIMS.

Council Chamber, Whitehall, July 1, 1901.

ALL persons desirous of presenting Petitions or Claims concerning Services to be done or performed by them at the time of the ensuing Coronation, pursuant to His Majesty's Royal Proclamation of the 26th June last, may send the same under cover to the Clerks of the Court of Claims, Privy Council Office, Whitehall.

The Commissioners are required by the Proclamation to exclude from their consideration such claims as may be submitted to them in respect of rights or services connected with the parts of the Ceremonial heretofore performed in Westminster Hall and with the Procession, the Ceremony being confined to Westminster Abbey.

Foreign Office, July 10, 1901.

THE Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received from the Chairman of the Commission appointed to investigate the claims to compensation made by persons, the subjects of various Friendly Powers, in consequence of their deportation to Europe by the British Military Authorities in South Africa, the following Notice respecting the procedure of the Commission:—

PROCEDURE OF THE COMMISSION.

ON and after July 15, in the absence of further oral evidence, the Commission propose to hear claims unsupported by oral evidence.

The nature of the evidence to be given will be left to the discretion of the Representatives of the various Friendly Powers. Documentary evidence may be adduced for the proof of such claims. Similar evidence will then be admissible in rebuttal.

In order to facilitate the work of the Commission it is desired to consider the claims by Nationalities.

Due notice will be given to the Representatives of the Friendly Powers when the claims put forward by their respective Governments will be reached. Thereafter, subject to any subsequent arrangement to be made with the Secretary for the convenience of any Representative, the claims will be heard in the following order:—

- (1.) Austro-Hungarian.
- (2.) Dutch.
- (3.) Italian.
- (4.) American.

- (5.) French.
- (6.) Russian.
- (7.) German.
- (8.) Spanish.
- (9.) Swedish and Norwegian.

NOTICE.

REGULATIONS APPLYING TO TRAVELLERS AND FOREIGNERS IN NORWAY.

A NEW Law came into force in Norway on the 1st instant, under which—

- (a.) Lodging-house Keepers must record in a book the name, address, and occupation of any traveller residing with them, the place at which he last stayed, his destination, and the date of his arrival and departure:
- (b.) Foreigners wishing to take up their residence or seek a livelihood in Norway must report their intention on arrival, and, if required, present themselves before the local head of the police or the district magistrate. If either before or immediately after arrival a foreigner obtains regular employment he may delay so reporting himself for eight days.

Any traveller refusing to furnish the information referred to in paragraph (a.) or giving such information falsely, and any foreigner failing to report himself as required in paragraph (b.), is liable to the punishment of a fine.

No. 506.—EASTERN ARCHIPELAGO—CELEBES, SOUTH-WEST COAST.

Makassar Southern Approach—Reef Reported.

INFORMATION has been received from the Netherlands Government, and also from the Board of Trade, that the Master of the steamship "Holyrood" reports that at 1.15 P.M., 19th October, 1900, in approaching Makassar from the southward, his vessel, drawing $22\frac{1}{2}$ feet, grazed on a reef in lat. $5^{\circ} 34' S.$, long. $119^{\circ} 22' E.$

As the astronomical position only is stated, and no bearings of the land given, it is assumed that this vessel struck on the $4\frac{1}{2}$ fathom patch shown on the Chart about three-quarters of a mile N. $26^{\circ} W.$ from the alleged position of the "Holyrood's" grounding; the depth on that patch has therefore been altered on the Charts from $4\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms to $2\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms.

[Variation 2° Easterly in 1901.]

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Strait of Makassar, No. 2637; Approach to Makassar, No. 1293. Also, Eastern Archipelago, Part II, 1893, page 325; and Supplement, 1899, page 46.

No. 507.—ENGLAND—SPITHEAD.

Ryde Middle Shoal—Light-Buoys Established.

WITH reference to Notice to Mariners No. 305 of 1901:—

Further information has been received from the Trinity House, London, that the South-East and West Buoys on Ryde Middle Shoal have been replaced by two light-buoys, each exhibiting two white flashes in quick succession every ten seconds.

The shape and colour of these buoys is unaltered, but the West Middle Buoy has no top-mark.

The South-East Buoy is moored about nine-tenths of a cable S. $77^{\circ} W.$ of its former position, and the West Buoy half a cable S. $80^{\circ} W.$ of that which it formerly occupied.

Approximate position, South-East Middle Buoy, lat. $50^{\circ} 46' N.$, long. $1^{\circ} 12\frac{1}{2}' W.$

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of one hundred and fifty pounds sterling which has been paid to us in favour of the rectory of Lydford, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said rectory of Lydford, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, in respect of which, so long as the same capital sum or any part thereof shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said rectory one yearly sum of four pounds and ten shillings, or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands; such yearly payment to commence as from the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fourth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and one.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint John, South Bank, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and fifty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and one, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fourth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and one.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of six hundred pounds sterling which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint John, Walthamstow, in the county of Essex, and in the diocese of Saint Albans, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of eighteen pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Saint John, Walthamstow, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of six hundred pounds, in respect of which, so long as the same capital sum or any part thereof shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage one other yearly sum of eighteen pounds, or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands; such lastly-mentioned yearly payment to commence as from the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fourth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and one.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of five hundred pounds sterling which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Westbury, in the county of Wilts, and in the diocese of Salisbury, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of fifteen pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Westbury, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of fifteen pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twentieth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and one, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient in our opinion to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fourth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and one.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint John, West Hendon, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and one, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fourth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and one.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the consolidated chapelry and benefice (hereinafter called the benefice) of Saint Gabriel, Willesden Green, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same benefice, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and one, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient in our opinion to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.
