PART II.—COURTS.

(1.) Court for Brunei.

7. There shall be and there is hereby established in and for Brunei a Court styled "His Majesty's Court for Brunei," in this Order referred to as "the Court."

The Court shall be held by the Consul or a Consular officer, who in relation to the Court is hereinafter referred to as "the Judge."

The Court shall sit at Brunei, or, as occasion may require, at any other place within the limits of this Order.

The Court shall be a Court of Record.

8. The Secretary of State may appoint a fit person to be Registrar of the Court, but where no other person is appointed to be Registrar the Consul or Consular officer holding the Court shall be the Registrar of the Court.

The Consul may, with the approval of the Secretary of State, appoint such clerks, messengers, or other officers of the Court as may seem fit.

The Registrar and any clerk of the Court designated by the Consul may administer oaths and take affidavits, declarations, and affirmations.

9. In every case, civil or criminal, heard in the Court, proper Minutes of the proceedings shall be drawn up, and shall be signed by the Judge or officer before whom the proceedings are taken, and sealed with the seal of the Court, and shall, where Assessors are present, be open for their inspection, and for their signature if concurred in by them.

The Minutes, with depositions of witnesses and notes of evidence taken at the trial by the Judge or officer, shall be preserved in the public office of the Court.

10. The Consul shall have all the powers and authorities of the Sheriff of a county in England, with all the privileges and immunities of the office, and as such Sheriff shall be charged with the execution of all decrees, orders, and sentences made and passed by a Court, on the requisition in that behalf of the Court, he shall not be liable to any action or proceeding for anything done, or purporting to be done, or anything omitted by him as such Sheriff.

11. Where the Court thinks fit to hear and determine any case, civil or criminal, with Assessors, the Court shall nominate and summon as Assessors not less than two and not more than four indifferent British subjects of good repute, resident in Brunei or belonging to a British ship; but where the Court is able to obtain the presence of one fit person only as Assessor, the Court may sit with him alone as Assessor.

An Assessor shall not have voice or vote in the decision of the Court in any case, civil or criminal; but an Assessor dissenting in a civil case from any decision of the Court, or in a criminal case from any conviction, or the amount of punishment awarded, may record in the Minutes of Proceedings his dissent and the grounds thereof; and an Assessor dissenting shall be entitled to receive gratis a certified copy of the Minutes.

If any person summoned to act as Assessor fails, without lawful excuse, to attend at the trial, or at any adjournment thereof, or to continue to serve throughout the trial, he shall be liable under a summary order of the Court to a fine not exceeding fifty dollars, to be levied by attachment and sale of his goods, and in default of recovery thereby of the fine, to be imprisoned for any time not exceeding six days, if the fine is not sooner paid.

12. No proceeding under this Order shall be invalidated by any informality, mistake, or omission, so long as, in the opinion of the Court, the essential requisites of law and justice have been complied with, or may be met by amendment.

(2.) Supreme Court.

13.—(1.) The Supreme Court shall have appellate jurisdiction under this Order.

The appellate jurisdiction of the Supreme Court shall be exercised by the full Supreme Court sitting in the Straits Settlements in such manner and according to such procedure as, subject to the provisions of this Order, and of any Rules made under this Order, the Supreme Court from time to time determines.

Judgments or Orders of the Supreme Court, in the exercise of its appellate jurisdiction, shall be certified by the Supreme Court to the Court for Brunei, and (subject to any appeal to His Majesty in Council) that Court may and shall execute, and give effect to the same in like manner as to its own Judgments or Orders.

(2.) The Supreme Court, on Petition presented to it in accordance with any Rules to be made under this Order, or in such manner as the Supreme Court directs, and alleging that any Order of the Court has the effect of a refusal of justice to any suitor or complainant, may, after such inquiry (if any) as it thinks fit to direct, issue an order directing the Court to take cognizance of the matter, and may, if satisfied that such order has not been properly complied with, entertain and determine the matter of the suit or complaint, and shall certify its determination to the Court, which shall give effect thereto.

(3.) Except as provided by this Order, the Supreme Court shall not exercise any control over the Court, whether by way of mandamus, prohibition, certiorari, writ of habeas corpus, or otherwise.

14. The Supreme Court shall, for the purposes of this Order, have original jurisdiction as follows:—

(1.) When, under this Order, a person accused of crime is sent for trial to the Straits Settlements, the Supreme Court shall have the like jurisdiction, and may proceed in the same manner as if the crime had been committed in the Straits Settlements, except that the criminality of the act charged and the punishment to be inflicted must be determined according to the law applicable under this Order in Brunei.

(2.) The Supreme Court may exercise in Brunei, in relation to any civil or criminal matter, any original jurisdiction which can be exercised by the Court, and all the provisions of this Order shall apply accordingly (mutatis mutandis), and any appeal shall be to the full Supreme Court.

(3.) The Supreme Court may hear and determine at any place within the limits of this Order any criminal case which could under this Order be sent for trial to the Straits Settlements, and for that purpose shall have the like jurisdiction and may proceed in the same manner, as nearly as may be, as if it were trying the same case in the Straits Settlements, or as if it were the Court trying in Brunei a criminal case within the jurisdiction of the Court.

Provided that the powers conferred by sub-Articles (2) and (3) of this Article shall, except in the case of the death, absence, or incapacity of the Consular Officer, be exercised only on his request.

(4.) The Supreme Court may hear and determine within the Straits Settlements any civil case arising in Brunei, with the consent of the parties and of the Consul, and for that purpose may adopt any procedure proper either in the Straits Settlements or in Brunei. In such case, any appeal shall be to the full Supreme Court.

(5.) For the purposes of the exercise of original jurisdiction under this Article, such Judge or Judges of the Supreme Court as the Chief Justice of the Straits Settlements from time to time nominates shall exercise the powers of the Supreme Court.

(6.) The Court for Brunei may and shall, according to its powers, execute, enforce, and give effect to any Judgment or Order of the Supreme Court in the exercise of its original jurisdiction, and may and shall, for the purposes of anything to be done preliminary to a sitting of the Supreme Court (as, for instance, the summoning of Assessors or of witnesses), exercise (mutatis mutandis) all the powers which the Court has for any purpose under this Order in a case or matter pending before itself.

PART III.—CRIMINAL MATTERS.

15.—(1.) A criminal prosecution is commenced by a complaint made to the Court, or by the issue of a summons or warrant by the Court of its own motion.

(2.) For the issue of a summons the complaint need not be on oath, unless the Court so requires.

(3.) A warrant may be issued if the complaint is in writing and on oath, or if the accused person does not appear on a summons, and it is proved that the summons has been served or cannot be served.

(4.) On receiving a complaint, whether on oath or not, the Court may, if it is of opinion that the complaint discloses no offence, or is otherwise unsubstantial, decline to issue any summons or warrant.

(5.) An accused person arrested on warrant shall be brought before the Court within forty-eight hours after arrest unless exceptional circumstances prevent his being so brought, and the complaint shall be heard as soon thereafter as circumstances reasonably admit. Due notice of the time and place of hearing shall be given to the prosecutor (if any), and summonses issued to the witnesses, if any.

16.—(1.) When the accused is before the Court, and the prosecutor has had notice of the time and place appointed for the hearing of the complaint, but does not appear, the Court, unless it thinks fit to adjourn the hearing, shall dismiss the complaint.

(2.) If both parties are present the Court shall proceed to hear the complaint: and

(a.) If the offence is legally punishable, or if the Court thinks it would be adequately punished with imprisonment not exceeding three months, or with fine not exceeding fifty dollars, the case shall be tried summarily on the complaint;

(b.) Otherwise, the Court shall take the depositions of the prosecutor and witnesses with a view to determining whether the accused shall be tried on a charge, and, if so, whether the case shall be tried before the Court or sent to the Supreme Court.

(3.) The following offences are not triable summarily, that is to say, treason, murder, rape, arson, housebreaking, robbery with violence, forgery, and perjury.

17. At a summary trial the substance of the complaint shall be stated to the accused, and he shall be asked if he admits or denies the truth of the complaint. If he admits, the Court may convict him and award punishment, but may first take further evidence if it think fit. If he denies, the Court shall hear the evidence of the prosecutor and witnesses, and of the witnesses, if any, for the accused, and either discharge the accused or convict him and award punishment.

18.—(1.) At the preliminary examination of a case which must be or may, in the opinion of the Court, require to be sent for trial to the Supreme Court, the procedure shall be as follows:—

(a.) The Court shall, in the presence of the accused, take the depositions on oath of those who know the facts and put them in writing;

(b.) The accused may cross-examine each witness for the prosecution, and the witness' answers shall form part of his deposition;

(c.) The deposition of each witness shall be read over to the witness and signed by him;

(d.) After the evidence of the witnesses for the prosecution has been taken, the Court shall ask the accused if he wishes to make any statement or has any witnesses to call or other evidence to adduce in his defence, and the Court shall then take his statement and the evidence of his witnesses (if any);

(e.) The accused shall be informed that any statement he may make may be used against him at the trial, and also that he may be sworn as a witness himself;

(f.) The Court having heard all the evidence, shall consider the whole matter, and if it thinks that a prima facie case is made out against the accused, shall cause a charge, on which the accused is to be put on his trial, to be framed, and read over to the accused.

(g.) The Court shall bind by recognizance the prosecutor and every witness to appear at the trial and give evidence;

(h.) If a person refuses to enter into a recognizance, the Court may send him to prison, there to remain till the trial, unless in the meantime he enters into a recognizance;

(i.) Until the trial the Court shall either admit the accused to bail or send him to prison for safe keeping;

(j.) The accused shall be entitled to a copy of the charge on which he is to be tried;

(k.) The complaint (if any), the depositions, the statement of the accused (if any), the charge on which the Court orders him to be tried, and the recognizances shall be carefully transmitted to the Supreme Court.

(2.) At the preliminary examination of a case which may be tried on a charge before the Court, the procedure above described may be varied as follows:—

After hearing so much evidence as is, in the opinion of the Court, sufficient to raise a strong presumption against the accused and to enable the Court to frame a charge, the Court may proceed to frame a charge and appoint a day for the trial.

19.—(1.) The charge upon which an accused person is tried shall state the offence, with such particulars as to the time and place of the alleged offence, and the person (if any) against whom or the thing (if any) in respect of which it was committed, as are reasonably sufficient to give the accused notice of the matter with which he is charged.

(2.) There shall be a separate charge for each offence, and every charge shall be tried separately but if the acts form one transaction, or if the offences are of the same kind, the charges may be tried together, if the Court thinks fit.

(3.) When more persons than one are accused of the same offence, or of different offences committed in the same transaction, or where one is accused of committing an offence and another with abetting or attempting to commit that offence, they may be charged and tried together or separately, as the Court thinks fit.

(4.) The Court may alter any charge at any time, but if the alteration is likely to prejudice the accused or the prosecutor, the Court may adjourn the trial for such time as may be necessary.

(5.) No error or omission in stating the offence or the particulars shall be regarded as material unless the accused was misled by the error or omission.

(6.) When a person is charged with an offence, and the evidence proves either the commission of a minor offence or an attempt to commit the offence charged, he may be convicted of the minor offence or the attempt.

(7.) For the purpose of the application of any Statute law, a charge framed under the provisions of this Order shall be deemed to be an indictment.

20.—(1.) The Court may, at any stage of the prosecution, in its discretion admit to bail a person charged with any felony (except murder), or with riot, or assault.

(2.) In all other cases the Court shall admit the accused to bail unless the Court sees good reason to the contrary.

(3.) Where an accused person is in custody he shall not be remanded at any time for more than seven days, unless circumstances appear to the Court to make it necessary or proper that he should be remanded for a longer time, which circumstances, and the time of remand, shall be recorded in the Minutes.

(4.) In no case shall a remand be for more than fourteen days at one time, unless in case of illness of the accused person or other case of necessity.

21. The Court may from time to time postpone or adjourn any trial if it considers it necessary to do so in the interests of justice.

During the postponement or adjournment the accused may be committed to prison for safe custody, or admitted to bail, or suffered to go at large, as the Court thinks fit.

22. Where there is reasonable cause to suspect that anything, by or in respect of which any offence cognizable by the Court has been committed, is in any house or place within the jurisdiction of the Court, the Court may, by a search warrant, authorize an officer of the Court to search the house or place, and if anything searched for be found, to seize it and bring it before the Court for adjudication.

23. A warrant for apprehension or a search warrant may be issued and executed on Sunday, Good Friday, or Christmas Day, where the urgency of the matter so requires.

24. The Court may award any such punishment as may be awarded by any Court of criminal jurisdiction in England for the time being.

25. The Court may, if it thinks fit, order a person convicted of an assault to pay to the person assaulted, by way of damages, any sum not exceeding fifty dollars.

Damages ordered to be paid may be either in addition to, or in lieu of, a fine, and shall be recoverable in like manner as a fine.

Where such damages are ordered, an action cannot be brought for the assault.

26. When a person is sentenced to death, the Court shall transmit the Judge's notes and a report on the case to the Governor in Council, and the sentence shall not be carried into effect unless confirmed by the Governor in Council.

The Governor in Council may commute the sentence to such punishment as he thinks proper in the circumstances or may pardon the convict.

27. The Court may order a person convicted before it to pay all or a part of the expenses of the prosecution, the amount to be specified in the order.

The Court may, when it thinks a prosecution is vexatious or frivolous, order the complainant to pay all or a part of the expenses of the prosecution and of the accused, the amount being specified in the order.

In both cases the Court may order that the whole, or such portion as the Court thinks fit, of the expenses so paid be paid over to the complainant or the accused as the case may be.

28.—(1.) In each of the following cases, namely:—

(i.) Where a person is convicted before the Court, and the person so convicted declares his desire to appeal to the Supreme Court on any question or questions of law raised by the person convicted or by the Court; or

(ii.) Where the Court thinks fit to reserve for the judgment of the Supreme Court any question of law arising on the trial—

The Court shall frame a statement setting out the facts, the grounds of the conviction and sentence, the question or questions of law, and any objection alleged by the person convicted.

(2.) The Court shall annex to that statement certified copies of the summons, indictment (if any), and proceedings, and of all documentary evidence admitted or tendered, and appearing to that Court to be material, and the depositions, the notes of the oral testimony, any statement or objections to the conviction or sentence made by the person convicted, and any argument thereon that he desires to submit to the Supreme Court, and a note of the reasons why any tendered evidence which is not transmitted appears to the Court to be immaterial.

(3.) The Court shall forthwith send the statement and its annexes to the Supreme Court.

(4.) The Court shall postpone the execution of the sentence pending the appeal, and shall, as on a remand, either (if necessary) commit the person convicted to prison for safe custody, or admit him to bail, with or without security, by recognizance, deposit money, or otherwise.

(5.) The Supreme Court shall hear and finally determine the matter, after considering the statement of the Court, and hearing publicly any argument offered on behalf of the prosecution, or of the person convicted.

(6.) The Supreme Court may require the Court to make any amendment in or addition to its statement or the annexes thereto.

(7.) The Judgment of the Supreme Court shall be delivered publicly.

(8.) The Supreme Court shall either affirm or annul the conviction, or amend it, and shall either affirm or annul the sentence or vary it, and shall give all necessary and proper consequential directions.

29. The Supreme Court shall not annul a conviction or sentence, or vary a sentence, on the ground—

(i.) Of any objection which, if stated during the trial, might, in the opinion of the Supreme Court, have been properly met by amendment by the Court; or

(ii.) Of any error or informality which, in the opinion of the Supreme Court, did not affect the substance of the case or subject the appellant to any undue prejudice.

30. There shall be no appeal in a criminal case to His Majesty the King in Council from a decision of the Supreme Court, except by special leave of His Majesty in Council.

31. The Consul may by general order prescribe the manner in which and the prisons in which punishments are to be carried into execution.

32.—(1.) When an offender is sentenced to imprisonment and the Court thinks it expedient that the sentence be carried into effect within His Majesty's dominions, the place shall be either the Straits Settlements or a place in some other part of His Majesty's dominions the Government whereof consents that offenders may be sent thither under this Article.

(2.) The Court may, by warrant under the hand of the Judge, cause the offender to be sent to such place as aforesaid, in order that the sentence may be carried into effect accordingly.

(3.) The warrant shall be sufficient authority to any person to whom it is directed to receive and detain the person named therein, and to carry him and deliver him up at the place named, according to the warrant.

33. "The Fugitive Offenders Act, 1881," and "The Colonial Prisoners Removal Act, 1884," shall apply to Brunei as if it were part of His Majesty's dominions, subject as follows:—

(a.) The Consul is hereby substituted for the Governor or Government of a British possession;

(b.) The Court is hereby substituted for a Superior Court, and for a Magistrate of a British possession;

(c.) For the purposes of the said Act of 1881, and of this Article in relation thereto, the said territories and the Straits Settlements shall be deemed to be one group of British possessions.

34.—(1.) In cases of murder or manslaughter if either the death, or the criminal act which wholly or partly caused the death, happened within Brunei, the Court shall have the like jurisdiction over any person who is charged either as the principal offender, or as accessory before the fact to murder, or as accessory after the fact to murder or manslaughter, as if both the criminal act and the death had happened within Brunei.

(2.) In the case of any offence committed on the high seas, or within the Admiralty jurisdiction, by any person on board a British ship, or by any British subject on board a foreign ship to which he did not belong, the Court shall, subject to the provisions of this Order, have jurisdiction as if the offence had been committed within the said territories. In cases tried under this Article no different sentence can be passed from the sentence which could be passed in England if the offence were tried there.

(3.) The foregoing provisions of this Article shall be deemed to be adaptations, for the purposes of this Order and of "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," of the following enactments, that is to say:—

"The Admiralty Offences (Colonial) Act, 1849."

"The Admiralty Offences (Colonial) Act, 1860."

"The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894," section six hundred and eighty-six.

35. Where the Court issues a summons or warrant against any person on a charge of an offence committed on board of, or in relation to, any ship, other than a ship enjoying immunity from civil process, then, if it appears to the Court that the interests of public justice so require, the Court may issue a warrant or order for the detention of the ship, and may cause the ship to be detained accordingly, until the charge is heard and determined and the order of the Court thereon is fully executed, or for such shorter time as the Court thinks fit; and the Court shall have power to make all such orders as appear to it necessary or proper for carrying this provision into effect.

36. Any British subject being in Brunei may be proceeded against, tried, and punished under this Order for the crime of piracy, wherever committed.

37.—(1.) If any British subject does any of the following things without His Majesty's authority, levies war, or takes any part in any operation of war against, or aids or abets any person in carrying on war, insurrection, or rebellion against the Sultan of Brunei;

Every person so offending shall be deemed guilty of an offence against this Order, and on conviction thereof shall be liable to be punished by imprisonment for any term not exceeding one year, with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars without imprisonment.

In addition to such punishments, every such conviction shall of itself, and without further proceedings, make the person convicted liable to deportation; and the Court may order that he be deported from Brunei to such place as the Court directs.

(2.) If any British subject, without the authority of His Majesty (proof whereof shall lie on the party accused), takes part in any operation of war in the service of the Sultan of Brunei against any persons engaged in carrying on war, insurrection or rebellion against the Sultan of Brunei, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against this Order, and on conviction thereof shall be liable to be punished by imprisonment for any term not exceeding one year, with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars without imprisonment.

38. If any British subject publicly derides, mocks, or insults any religion established or observed in Brunei, or publicly offers any insult to any religious service, feast, or ceremony established or kept in any part of Brunei, or to any place of worship, tomb, or sanctuary belonging to any such religion, or to the ministers or professors thereof, or wilfully commits any act tending to bring any such religion, or its ceremonies, mode of worship, or observances into hatred, ridicule, or contempt, and thereby to provoke a breach of the public peace, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against this Order, and shall be liable, on summary conviction, to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months, with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, without imprisonment.

His Majesty's Consular officers shall take such precautionary measures as seem to them proper and expedient for the prevention of such offences.

39. If any British subject violates or fails to observe any stipulation of any Treaty made with, or by, or on behalf of His Majesty for the time being in force, in respect of the violation whereof any penalty is stipulated for in the Treaty, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against this Order, and on conviction thereof under this Order shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding the penalty stipulated for in the Treaty.

40. The Court shall have jurisdiction to make an order requiring a person to contribute, in such manner as the Court directs, to the support of his wife or child, whether legitimate or not, being in the opinion of the Court under the age of 16 years. Any such order may be made in a summary way, as if the neglect to provide for the support of such wife or child were an offence against this Order, and a failure to comply with any such order shall be deemed to be an offence against this Order, and shall be punishable accordingly, and the Court may direct any penalty imposed for such offence to be applied for the support of such wife or child in such manner as the Court thinks fit.

41. Where any act or omission is, by virtue of this Order, or of any Regulation made under this Order, an offence against this Order, and no penalty or punishment is specified in respect thereof, such offence shall be punishable with imprisonment for not exceeding three months, or fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or both.

42. The Consul shall, when required by the Secretary of State, send to the Secretary of State a report of the sentence passed in every case heard and determined by him, with a copy of the Minutes of Proceedings and notes of evidence, and may send with such report any observations he thinks fit.

43. The Court shall have all the powers appertaining to the office of Coroner in England, provided as follows:—

(a.) Where a person is charged with causing the death, the Court may proceed forthwith with the preliminary examination;

(b.) Where no person is charged with causing the death, the Court shall hold an inquest, taking the depositions of those who know the facts. If, during or after the inquest, any person is so charged, the depositions shall be read over in the presence of the witnesses and of the accused, who shall be entitled to cross-examine each witness, and the procedure shall be as in other cases of preliminary examination. If after the inquest the Court does not see fit to cause any person to be charged, the Court shall send a copy of the depositions to the Supreme Court, together with a report as to the cause of death.

44. The Governor of the Straits Settlements in Council shall have power, in the name of His Majesty, to remit or commute, in whole or in part, any sentence passed by a Court exercising criminal jurisdiction under this Order, and every such Court shall give effect to any such remission. Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to affect His Majesty's prerogative of pardon.

PART IV.—CIVIL MATTERS.

45.—(1.) Every civil proceeding in the Court shall be taken by action, and not otherwise, and shall be designated an action.

(2.) For the purposes of any statutory enactment or other provision applicable under this Order to any civil proceeding in the Court, an action under this Order shall comprise and be equivalent to a suit, cause, or petition, or to any civil proceeding howsoever required by any such enactment or provision to be instituted or carried on.

46.—(1.) Every action shall be heard and determined in a summary way.

(2.) Every application in the course of an action may be made to the Court orally, and without previous formality, unless in any case the Court otherwise directs, or the Rules of Court otherwise provide.

(3.) No action or proceeding shall be treated by the Court as invalid on account of any technical error or mistake in form or in words.

(4.) All errors and mistakes may be corrected, and times may be extended, by the Court in its discretion, and on such terms as the Court thinks just.

47.—(1.) The sittings of the Court for the hearing of actions shall be held at such places and on such days as the Court shall appoint.

(2.) The sittings shall ordinarily be public, but the Court may, for reasons recorded in the Minutes, hear any particular case in the presence only of the parties, their advisers, and the officers of the Court.

(3.) Public notice of the sittings of the Court shall, as far as practicable, be given at Brunei, and if the sitting is to be held at any other place, also at that place.

48. Every action shall commence by a summons, issued from the Court, on the application of the plaintiff, and served on the defendant (in this Order referred to as an original summons).

49. The Registrar shall keep a book, called the Action Book, in which all actions brought in Court shall be entered, numbered consecutively in each year in the order in which they are commenced, with a short statement of the particulars of each action, and a note of the several proceedings therein.

50.—(1.) An original summons shall not be in force for more than twelve months from the day of its date (including that day).

(2.) If any defendant named therein is not served therewith, the plaintiff may, before the end of the twelve months, apply to the Court for renewal thereof.

(3.) The Court, if satisfied that reasonable efforts have been made to serve the defendant, or for other good reason, may order that the summons be renewed for six months from the date of renewal, and so, from time to time, during the currency of the renewed summons.

(4.) The summons shall be renewed by being resealed with the seal of the Court, and a note being made thereon by the Registrar, stating the renewal and the date thereof.

(5.) A summons so renewed shall remain in force and be available to prevent the operation of any statute of limitation, and for all other purposes, as from the date of the original summons.

(6.) The production of a summons purporting to be so renewed shall be sufficient evidence of the renewal and of the commencement of the action, as of the date of the original summons, for all purposes.

51. If an action is not proceeded with and disposed of within twelve months from service of the original summons, the Court may, if it thinks fit, without application by any party, order the same to be dismissed for failure to proceed.

52. The Court may, at any time, if it thinks fit, either on or without application of a defendant, order the plaintiff to put in further particulars of his claim.

53. There shall ordinarily be no written pleadings; but the Court may at any time, if it thinks fit, order the plaintiff to put in a written statement of his claim, or a defendant to put in a written statement of his defence.

54. The evidence on either side may, subject to the direction of the Court, be wholly or partly oral, or on affidavit or by deposition.

55.—(1.) Notwithstanding anything in this Order, the Court (for reasons recorded in the Minutes) may at any time do any of the following things as the Court thinks just:—

(i.) Defer or adjourn the hearing or determination of any action, proceeding, or application;

(ii.) Order or allow any amendment of any pleading or other document;

(iii.) Appoint or allow a time for, or enlarge or abridge the time appointed or allowed for, or allow further time for the doing of any act, or the taking of any proceeding.

(iv.) Rehear any case and review its Judgments or orders in any case where, in the opinion of the Court, justice so requires.

(2.) Any order within the discretion of the Court may be made on such terms respecting time, costs, and other matters, as the Court thinks fit.

56. Subject to the provisions of this Order and any Rules of Court, the costs of and incident to all proceedings in the Court shall be in the discretion of the Court.

57.—(1.) All orders of the Court shall, if not made in writing, be drawn up in writing and filed with the papers in the action.

(2.) The seal of the Court shall be affixed to every order, which shall then be part of the record in the action.

(3.) The order shall bear the date of the day of the delivery of the decision on which the order is founded.

(4.) All money ordered by the Court to be paid by any person shall be paid into the office of the Court, unless the Court otherwise directs.

58.—(1.) On proof of great urgency or other peculiar circumstances, after an action is brought, the Court may, if it thinks fit, on the application of a plaintiff, or of its own motion, make an order for stopping the clearance of, or for the arrest and detention of, a ship about to leave Brunei, other than a ship enjoying immunity from civil process.

(2.) The Court may at any time, on reasonable cause shown, discharge or vary the order.

59.—(1.) Any agreement in writing between any persons to submit present or future differences to arbitration, whether an arbitrator is named therein or not, may be filed in the Court by any party thereto, and unless a contrary intention is expressed therein, shall be irrevocable, and shall have the same effect as an order of the Court.

(2.) Every such agreement is in this Order referred to as a submission.

(3.) If any action is commenced in respect of any matter covered by a submission, the Court, on the application of any party to the action, may by order stay the action.

Bankruptcy.

60.—(1.) The Court shall have, with respect to all British subjects in Brunei all such jurisdiction in bankruptcy as for the time being belongs to the High Court in England.

(2.) Proceedings in bankruptcy shall be originated by a summons to the debtor to show cause why he should not be adjudicated bankrupt, or by a summons issued by the debtor himself to his creditor, or any of his creditors, to show cause why he, the debtor, should not be adjudicated bankrupt.

(3.) On or after the issue of such summons, the Court may stay any proceedings pending in the Court in respect of any debt provable in bankruptcy, or may allow the proceedings to continue on such terms as the Court thinks fit.

(4.) On or after the issue of such summons, the Court may appoint a receiver or manager of the property or business of the debtor.

Lunacy.

61. The Court shall, as far as circumstances admit, have, for and within the said territories, with respect to British subjects, all such jurisdiction relative to the custody and management of the persons and estates of lunatics, as for the time being belongs to the Lord Chancellor or other Judge or Judges in England intrusted by virtue of His Majesty's Sign Manual with the care and commitment of the custody of the persons and estates of lunatics, or as may be exercised by a judicial authority under "The Lunacy Act, 1890," or any Act amending the same.

Probate and Administration.

62. The Court shall be a Court of Probate, and, as such, shall, so far as circumstances admit, have, with respect to the property of British subjects in Brunei, all such jurisdiction as for the time being belongs to the High Court in England in cases of probate and administration of estates.

63. Probate or administration granted by the Court shall have effect over all the property of the deceased in Brunei, and shall effectually discharge persons dealing with an executor or administrator thereunder, notwithstanding that any defect afterwards appears in the grant.

64. Any person having in his possession or under his control any paper or writing of a deceased British subject, being or purporting to be testamentary, shall forthwith deliver the original to the Court.

Any person neglecting to do so for fourteen days after having knowledge of the death of the deceased shall be liable to such penalty, not exceeding two hundred dollars as the Court thinks fit to impose.

65. From the death of a British subject, in Brunei, intestate, until administration granted, his personal property in Brunei shall be vested in the Consul.

66. If any person, other than the Consul, takes possession of, or in any manner administers any part of, the personal property of any person deceased without obtaining probate or administration within three months after the death of the deceased, or within one month after the determination of any suit or dispute respecting probate or administration (if there is any such which is not ended within two months after the death of the deceased), he shall be liable to such penalty, not exceeding five hundred dollars, as the Court thinks fit to impose; and in every such case the same fees shall be payable by the person so administering as would have been payable by him if he had obtained probate or administration.

67. Where a British subject, not having at the time of death his fixed place of abode in Brunei, dies there, the Court shall, where the circumstances of the case appear to the Court so to require, forthwith on the death of the deceased, or as soon after as may be, take possession of his personal property within the particular jurisdiction, or put it under the seal of the Court (in either case, if the nature of the property or other circumstances so require, making an inventory), and so keep the property until it can be dealt with according to law.

68. Where it appears to the Court that the value of the property or estate of a deceased person does not exceed five hundred dollars, the Court may, without any probate or letters of administration, or other formal proceedings, pay thereout any debts or charges, and pay, remit, or deliver any surplus to such persons in such manner as the Governor in Council may approve, and shall not be liable to any action, suit, or proceedings in respect of anything done, or purporting to be done, under this Article.

Appeal in Civil Cases.

69.—(1.) Where a civil action in the Court involves the amount or value of five hundred dollars or upwards, any party aggrieved by any decision of the Court in the action shall have the right to appeal to the Supreme Court against the same on the following conditions, namely:—

(i.) The appellant shall give security to the satisfaction of the Court, and to such amount as the Court thinks reasonable, not exceeding two thousand dollars, for prosecution of the appeal, and for payment of any costs that may be ordered by the Supreme Court on the appeal to be paid by the appellant to any person.

(ii.) The appellant shall pay to the Court such sum as the Judge thinks reasonable, to defray the expense of the making up and transmission to the Supreme Court of the record.

(2.) In any civil case the Court may, if it thinks fit, give leave to appeal on the conditions aforesaid.

(3.) In any civil case the Supreme Court may give leave to appeal on such terms as it thinks fit.

70.—(1.) After three months from the date of a decision of the Court, an appeal against it shall not lie except by leave of the Supreme Court.

(2.) After six months from the date of a decision of the Court, application for leave to appeal against it shall not be entertained by the Supreme Court.

71.—(1.) Where a person ordered to pay money, or to do any other thing, appeals, the Court shall direct either that the decision appealed from be carried into execution, or that the execution thereof be suspended pending the appeal, as he thinks fit.

(2.) If the Court directs the decision to be carried into execution, the person in whose favour it is given, shall, before the execution of it, give security to the satisfaction of the Court for performance of any order to be made on appeal.

(3.) If the Court directs the execution of the decision to be suspended, the person against whom it is given shall, before an order for suspension is made, give security to the satisfaction of the Court for performance of such order as shall be made on appeal.

72.—(1.) The appellant shall file an appeal motion-paper in Court.

(2.) He may at the same time file any argument which he desires to submit to the Supreme Court in support of the appeal.

(3.) The motion-paper and the argument (if any) shall be served on such persons as respondents as the Court directs.

73.—(1.) A respondent may, within seven days after service, file in the Court a motion-paper of cross appeal (if any), and such argument as he desires to submit to the Supreme Court on the appeal and cross appeal (if any).

(2.) Copies thereof shall be furnished by the Court to such persons as the Court thinks fit.

74.—(1.) On the expiration of such seven days, the Court shall, without the application of any party, make up the record of appeal, which shall consist of the writ of summons, statements of claim and defence (if any), orders, and proceedings, all written and documentary evidence admitted or tendered, or a certified copy thereof, and the notes of the oral evidence, the appeal and cross appeal motion-paper, and the arguments (if any).

(2.) The several pieces shall be fastened together, consecutively numbered, and the whole shall be secured by the seal of the Judge, and be forthwith forwarded by him to the Supreme Court.

(3.) The Judge shall not, except for some special cause, take on himself the responsibility of the charge, or of the transmission to the Supreme Court, of original letters or documents produced in evidence. They shall be returned to the parties producing them; and they shall produce the originals, if required by the Supreme Court, at or before the hearing of the appeal.

75.—(1.) After the record of appeal is transmitted, until the appeal is disposed of, the Supreme Court shall be in exclusive possession of the whole action, as between the parties to the appeal.

(2.) Every application in the action, as between the parties to the appeal, shall be made to the Supreme Court, and not to the Court; but any application may be made through the Court.

76.—(1.) The Supreme Court shall, after receiving the record of appeal, fix a day for the hearing of the appeal, and shall give notice thereof through the Court to the parties to the appeal, such a day being fixed as will allow of the parties attending in person, or by counsel or solicitor if they so desire.

(2.) But if all the separate parties to an appeal appear in person at Singapore, or appoint persons there to represent them, as their counsel or solicitors in the appeal and cause the appearance or appointment to be notified to the Supreme Court, the Supreme Court may dispose of the appeal, without being required to give notice through the Court to the parties of the day fixed for the hearing thereof.

77. The Supreme Court may, if it thinks fit, require a party to an appeal to appear personally before it on the hearing of the appeal, or on any occasion pending the appeal.

78.—(1.) The Supreme Court may, from time to time, make any order necessary for determining the real question in controversy in the action, as among the parties to the appeal, and for that purpose may amend any defect or error in the record of appeal, and may enlarge the time for any proceeding except as otherwise by this Order expressly provided.

(2.) The Supreme Court may direct the Court to inquire into and certify its finding on any question, as between the parties to the appeal, or any of them, which the Supreme Court thinks fit to determine before final judgment is given in the appeal.

(3.) The powers of the Supreme Court under this Order may be exercised by the Supreme Court, notwithstanding that the appeal is brought against part only of the decision of the Court; and those powers may be exercised in favour of all or any of the parties to the action, although they have not appealed from, or complained of, the decision.

(4.) Generally, the Supreme Court shall, as among the parties to the appeal, have as full jurisdiction over the whole action as if it had been originally instituted and prosecuted in the Supreme Court by parties subject to the original jurisdiction of the Supreme Court.

(5.) The Supreme Court, may, if it thinks fit, remit the action to the Court to be reheard, or to be otherwise dealt with as the Supreme Court directs.

(6.) The appeal shall be determined by the Supreme Court according to the law to be administered under this Order by the Court.

79.—(1.) Notwithstanding anything in this Order, an appeal to the Supreme Court shall not lie from an order of the Court, made on the application of one party without notice to the other party.

(2.) But, if any person thinks himself aggrieved by such an order, he may, on notice to the other party, apply to the Court to vary or discharge the Order, and an appeal shall lie from the decision on that application.

80. For purposes of appeal in civil cases to His Majesty the King in Council, a decision of the Supreme Court on appeal under this Order shall have the effect of a decision of that Court under its ordinary primary jurisdiction.

PART V.—EVIDENCE.

81.—(1.) In any case, criminal or civil, and at any stage thereof, the Court, either of its own motion, or on the application of any party, may summon a British subject to attend to give evidence, or to produce documents, or to be examined.

(2.) If the person summoned, having reasonable notice of the time and place at which he is required to attend, fails to attend and be sworn, and give evidence, or produce documents, or submit to examination accordingly, and does not excuse his failure to the satisfaction of the Court, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Order.

(3.) A person punished under this Article shall not be liable to an action in respect of the same matter; and any such action, if begun, shall be stayed by the Court in such manner and on such terms as the Court thinks fit.

(4.) In a criminal case, where it is proved that a British subject is likely to give material evidence either for the prosecution or for the defence, and that he will not voluntarily attend to give evidence the Court may issue a summons for his attendance.

(5.) If he does not obey the summons, and does not excuse his failure to the satisfaction of the Court, then, after proof of service of the summons, the Court may issue a warrant to compel his attendance.

(6.) Where it is proved that he will not attend to give evidence unless compelled to do so, the Court may issue a warrant in the first instance.

(7.) In civil cases any Court may, where the circumstances appear to justify it, order that the expenses of a witness, on his appearing to give evidence, shall be defrayed by the parties, or any of them.

(8.) A person attending to give evidence before the Court shall not be compelled or allowed to give any evidence, or produce any document, if, in the opinion of the Consul signified by him personally or in writing to the Court, the giving or production thereof would be injurious to His Majesty's service.

82.—(1.) Any person appearing before the Court to give evidence in any case, civil or criminal, may be examined or give evidence on oath in the form or with the ceremony that he declares to be binding on his conscience.

(2.) Any British subject wilfully giving false evidence in any suit or proceeding, civil or criminal, or any arbitration, or in any affidavit, shall be deemed guilty of wilful and corrupt perjury.

83.—(1.) The provisions of "The Evidence Act, 1851" (14 and 15 Vict., cap. 99), sections 7 and 11, relating to the proof of judicial and other documents, shall extend and be applied for all purposes as if Brunei were a British Colony.

(2.) The following Acts, namely:—

"The Foreign Tribunals Evidence Act, 1856; "

"The Evidence by Commission Act, 1859; "

"The Evidence by Commission Act, 1885; "

or so much thereof as is for the time being in force, and any enactment for the time being in force, amending or substituted for the same, are hereby extended to Brunei and the Court, with the adaptations following, namely:—

In the said Acts, the Consul is hereby substituted for a Supreme Court, or the Judge of a Court in a Colony.

(3.) The following Acts, namely:—

"The British Law Ascertainment Act, 1859; "

"The Foreign Law Ascertainment Act, 1861; "

or so much thereof as is for the time being in force, and any enactment for the time being in force, amending or substituted for the same, are hereby extended to Brunei and the Court, with the adaptations following, namely:—

In the said Acts the Consul is hereby substituted for a Superior Court in a Colony.

PART VI.—FOREIGNERS.

84.—(a.) Where a foreigner desires to institute an action against a British subject, or a British subject desires to institute an action against a foreigner, the Court may hear and determine it in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

(b.) Provided that the foreigner (i) first files in the Court his consent to the jurisdiction of the Court; and (ii) also, if required by the Court obtains and files a certificate in writing from a competent authority of his own Government to the effect that no objection is made by that Government to the foreigner submitting in the particular cause or matter to the jurisdiction of the Court; and (iii) also, if required by the Court, gives security, to the satisfaction of the Court, to such reasonable amount as the Court directs by deposit money or otherwise, to pay fees, costs, damages, and expenses, and to abide by and perform the decision to be given by the Court or on appeal.

(c.) A counter-claim or cross-suit cannot be brought or instituted in the Court against a plaintiff, being a foreigner.

85. When, pursuant to the agreement dated the seventeenth September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, between Her late Majesty Queen Victoria and the Sultan of Brunei, a civil proceeding is brought by a native against a British subject, an officer appointed by the Government of the Sultan shall be entitled to be present at, and to take part in, the proceedings, but shall have no voice in the decision.

PART VII.—DEPORTATION AND REMOVAL.

86.—(1.) Where it is shown on oath to the satisfaction of the Court that there is reasonable ground to apprehend that any British subject in Brunei is about to commit or cause a breach of the public peace, the Court may cause him to be brought before it and require him to give security to the satisfaction of the Court to keep the peace, or for his future good behaviour, as the case may require.

(2.) Where any British subject is convicted under this Order of any crime or offence, the Court may require him to give security to the satisfaction of the Court for his future good behaviour.

(3.) In either of these cases, if the person required to give security fails to do so, the Court may order that he be deported from Brunei to such place as the Court directs.

(4.) The place shall be a place in some part of His Majesty's dominions, the Government whereof consents to the reception therein of persons deported under this Order.

(5.) The person to be deported shall be detained in custody until a fit time and opportunity for his deportation arrives.

(6.) The Consul may order that the person to be deported do pay all or any part of the expenses of, or preliminary to, his deportation.

(7.) The Consul shall forthwith report to the Secretary of State any order of deportation made or confirmed by him, and the grounds thereof.

(8.) Where any person is deported to Singapore, he shall, on his arrival there, be delivered, with the warrant under which he is deported, into the custody of the Superintendent of Prisons of Singapore, who, on receipt of the person deported, with the warrant, shall detain him, and shall forthwith report the case to the Governor, who shall either, by warrant if the person is a native of the United Kingdom and if the circumstances of the case appear to make it expedient, cause the person so deported to be taken to England, and in the meantime to be detained in custody (so that the period of such detention do not exceed three months), or else shall discharge him from custody.

(9.) If any person deported returns to Brunei without the permission of the Secretary of State, or of the Consul, in writing under his hand, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Order, and shall be liable, on conviction, to imprisonment for any term not exceeding one month, with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars, or to a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars, without imprisonment, and also to be forthwith again deported in manner hereinbefore provided.

87.—(1.) Whenever under this Order any person is to be sent, removed, or deported from Brunei, the Court shall for that purpose (if necessary) cause him to be embarked on board one of His Majesty's vessels of war, or if there is no such vessel available, then on board any British or other fit vessel.

(2.) The warrant of the Consul, or of the Supreme Court (as the case may be), shall be sufficient authority to every constable, officer, or other person acting thereunder, and to the commander or master of any vessel of war, or other vessel (whether the constable, officer or other person, or the vessel or the commander or master thereof, is named therein or not), to receive, detain, take, and deliver up such person, according to the warrant.

(3.) The warrant shall be delivered to the constable, officer, or other person acting thereunder, and a duplicate thereof shall be delivered to the commander or master of any vessel in which the person to whom the warrant relates is embarked.

PART VIII.—REGULATIONS, COMMENCEMENT, &c.

88.—(1.) The Consul may, subject to the provisions of this Order, make such Regulations, to be called "King's Regulations," as to him seem fit, for the peace, order, and good government of British subjects resident in, or resorting to, Brunei.

(2.) The power aforesaid, extends to the making of Regulations for securing observance of the stipulations of Treaties between His Majesty and the Sultan of Brunei, and for enforcing any local law or customs, whether relating to trade, commerce, revenue, or any other matter, and for maintaining friendly relations between British subjects and native subjects and authorities, and for requiring returns to be made of the nature, quantity, and value of articles exported from or imported into Brunei, by or on account of any British subject or in any British ship, and for prescribing the times and manner at or in which, and the persons by whom, such Returns are to be made.

(3.) Regulations made under this Order shall not have effect unless and until they are approved by the Secretary of State, save that, in case of urgency declared in any such Regulations, the same shall take effect before that approval, and shall continue to have effect unless and until they are disapproved by the Secretary of State, and until notification of that disapproval has been received and published by the Consul.

89. Any Regulations made under this Order may, if the Consul thinks fit, impose penalties for offences against the same.

Penalties so imposed shall not exceed the following, namely: for any offence, imprisonment for three months, with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine of five hundred dollars, or a fine of five hundred dollars without imprisonment; with or without a further fine, for a continuing offence, of fifty dollars for each day during which the offence continues after conviction.

In addition to or in lieu of penalties, such Regulations may provide for forfeiture of any goods, receptacles, or things in relation to which, or to the contents of which, any breach is committed of such Regulations, of any Treaty, or any native Law or Ordinance the observance of which is provided for by such Regulations.

90. All Regulations made under this Order, whether imposing penalties or not, shall be printed, and a printed copy thereof shall be affixed, and be at all times kept exhibited conspicuously in the public office of the Consulate at Brunei.

Printed copies of the Regulations shall be kept on sale at such reasonable price as the Consul from time to time directs.

91. The respective powers aforesaid extend to the making of Regulations for the governance, visitation, care, and superintendence of prisons in Brunei, and for the infliction of corporal or other punishment on prisoners committing offences against the rules or discipline of a prison; but the provisions of this Order respecting penalties, and respecting the printing, affixing, exhibiting, and sale of Regulations, and the mode of trial of charges of offences against Regulations, do not apply to Regulations respecting prisons and offences of prisoners.

92. The Judge may, with the approval of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, make Rules of Court and prescribe forms of procedure as to all civil and criminal proceedings and the fees to be taken therein.

The Supreme Court may make Rules of Court and prescribe forms of procedure as to appeals to the Supreme Court under this Order, and may fix the fees to be taken on such appeals.

All such Rules shall be transmitted forthwith to the Secretary of State for his approval, and so far as they relate to fees, for the approval of the Treasury, and until disallowance by him shall have full force and effect.

93. Not later than the thirty-first March in each year, the Consul shall transmit to the Secretary of State a report on the operation of this Order so far as relates to judicial affairs for the year ending the thirty-first December then last, showing the number and nature of the proceedings, criminal and civil, taken in the Court, and the result thereof, and the number and amount of fees received, and such other information, and being in such form, as the Secretary of State from time to time directs.

94. This Order shall commence and take effect as follows:—

As to the appointment of any officers, the issue of any instructions, proclamations, or notifications, immediately from and after the passing of this Order;

As to all other matters and provisions comprised and contained in this Order, from and after the expiration of one month after this Order is first publicly exhibited at Brunei.

In the event of the death, incapacity, removal, or absence from the said territories of the Commissioner for the time being, all and every the powers and authorities by this Order granted to him shall, until His Majesty's further pleasure is signified therein, be vested in such person as may be appointed to administer the same by any instrument under His Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet, or, if there be not in the said territories any person so appointed, then in the Senior Military Officer for the time being in command of His Majesty's forces within the said territories.

(3.) The Commissioner shall administer the Government of the said territories in the name and on behalf of His Majesty, and shall do and execute in due manner all things that shall belong to the trust thereby reposed in him, according to the several powers and authorities granted or appointed to him by virtue of this Order and of his Commission, and according to such instructions as may from time to time be given to him under His Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet, or by Order of His Majesty in Council, or by His Majesty through a Secretary of State, and according to such laws as are or shall hereafter be in force in the said territories.

4. The Commissioner shall have an official seal, bearing the style of his office, and such device as a Secretary of State from time to time approves, and such seal shall be deemed the public seal of the said territories, and may be kept and used by the Commissioner for the sealing of all things whatsoever that shall pass the public seal. And, until a public seal shall be provided, the seal of the Commissioner may be used as the public seal.

5. The Commissioner may make and execute in His Majesty's name and on his behalf, under the public seal, grants and dispositions of any lands which may be lawfully granted or disposed of by His Majesty within the said territories.

6. The Commissioner may, as he shall see occasion, in His Majesty's name and on his behalf, grant to any offender convicted of any crime in any Court or before any Judge or Magistrate within the said territories a free and unconditional pardon, or a pardon subject to such conditions as may be lawfully thereunto annexed, or any respite of the execution of the sentence of any such offender for such period as to him may seem fit.

7. The Commissioner may, as he shall see occasion, in His Majesty's name and on his behalf, remit any fines, penalties, or forfeitures which may accrue or become payable to His Majesty.

8. A Secretary of State or the Commissioner, subject to the directions of a Secretary of State, may, on behalf of His Majesty, appoint, for the administration of the said territories, such public officers under such designations as he may think fit, and may prescribe their duties.

The Commissioner may, upon sufficient cause to him appearing, suspend from the exercise of his office within the said territories any person exercising the same, which suspension shall continue and have effect only until His Majesty's pleasure therein shall be made known and signified to the Commissioner. And, in proceeding to any such suspension, he shall observe the directions in that behalf given to him by such instructions as may hereafter be addressed to him by a Secretary of State.

9.—(1.) The Commissioner may make and proclaim Ordinances for the peace, order, and good government of the said territories and of all persons within the same.

(2.) Under this Article any of the Laws and Ordinances of Hong Kong may be applied to the said territories with such modifications and adaptations as circumstances may require.

(3.) Every such Ordinance shall forthwith be transmitted to the Secretary of State unless it has been previously approved by him.

(4.) Every such Ordinance shall, from and after the Proclamation thereof, or such other date as may be fixed by the Ordinance, have the force of law, unless the disallowance of such Ordinance by His Majesty shall, within the space of one year after such Proclamation, be signified to the Commissioner by the Secretary of State.

(5.) Every Ordinance which shall be disallowed by His Majesty shall cease to be of any force or effect so soon as the disallowance thereof shall be published by the Commissioner.

10. Every Ordinance Proclamation or other public Notification under this Order shall be published in such manner as the Commissioner may direct.

11. Anything in this Order to the contrary notwithstanding, all natives resident within the walled city of Wei-hai-Wei shall continue to be under the jurisdiction of Chinese officials except so far as such jurisdiction may be inconsistent with the naval and military requirements of His Majesty, or with the peace, order, and good government of the said territories.

PART III.—JUDICIAL.

12. There shall be and there is hereby established in and for the said territories a Court styled His Majesty's High Court of Wei-hai-Wei, in this Order referred to as "the Court."

Until a Judge is appointed the High Court shall be held and constituted by the Commissioner, and thereafter by the Commissioner or the Judge, or by both sitting together.

The High Court shall be a Court of Record.

13. His Majesty may from time to time appoint a Judge under His Sign Manual.

He shall be a member of the Bar of England, Scotland, or Ireland.

In case of the illness of the Judge, or of his absence from the said territories or from the place where the High Court usually sits, or in any other emergency, the Commissioner may temporarily appoint a person who has held judicial office in His Majesty's service, or otherwise has legal knowledge and experience, to be Acting Judge.

14.—(1.) The Secretary of State may appoint for any district or districts of the said territories a Magistrate or Magistrates, each of whom shall hold a Court.

(2.) The Court of a Magistrate is in this Order included in the term "the Court," unless the context implies a reference to the High Court only.

15. Subject to the directions of the Secretary of State, and to the provisions of this Order, the Commissioner may from time to time appoint such and so many persons to be registrars, clerks, bailiffs, interpreters, and other officers of the Court as he thinks fit, and may prescribe their duties, and may remove from office any person so appointed.

16. All jurisdiction, criminal and civil, over all persons and in all cases respectively being and arising within the territories, shall, subject to and according to the provisions of this Order, be vested in the High Court.

17. The High Court may sit at any place in the said territories as occasion requires.

18. The whole or any part of the jurisdiction and authority of the High Court for or in respect of any district may, subject to the provisions of this Order, and of any Ordinance made thereunder, be exercised by the Magistrate (if any) appointed to act for that district and being therein.

Provided as follows:—

(1.) The High Court shall have concurrent jurisdiction in every such district, and may order any case, civil or criminal, pending before a Magistrate to be removed into the High Court, whether sitting in the district or elsewhere:

(2.) A Magistrate, unless he is a European British subject, shall not have jurisdiction to hear or determine any case in which any accused person or defendant is not a native.

19. Subject to the other provisions of this Order the criminal and civil jurisdiction of the Court shall, as far as circumstances admit, be exercised on the principles of and in conformity with the Statute Law and other law for the time being in force in England, and with the procedure and practice of Courts of Justice and Justices of the Peace in England, according to their respective jurisdiction and authority.

For the purpose of facilitating the application of such Statute Law, the Court may construe any enactment with such alterations and modifications not affecting the substance as may be necessary to meet the circumstances of the said territories.

Except as regard acts which are or may be made offences by this or any other Order in Council applying to the said territories, or by any laws or regulations made thereunder, such acts only as would be offences if committed in England shall be deemed to be offences rendering the person committing the same liable to punishment.

Provided that in civil cases between natives the Court shall be guided by Chinese or other native law and custom, so far as any such law or custom is not repugnant to justice and morality.

Subject to the provisions of this Order and of any Ordinance made under this Order, the High Court may make rules of Court with respect to procedure in all criminal and civil matters in the High Court and in Magistrates' Courts.

20.—(1.) When a native is a party to any case, criminal or civil, the Court, if it thinks fit, may try the case with two assessors.

(2.) An assessor shall be a native having a competent knowledge of Chinese law and custom, nominated and summoned or requested by the Court to act as assessor.

(3.) An assessor shall not have any voice in the decision of the Court, but his opinion, whether concurring or dissenting, shall be recorded in the Minutes.

PART IV.—CRIMINAL MATTERS.

21.—(1.) The High Court may award any such punishment as may be awarded by any Court of criminal jurisdiction in England for the time being.

(2.) Subject to the maximum penalties provided by law, a Magistrate shall not award imprisonment, with or without hard labour, exceeding a term of twelve months, nor any fine exceeding four hundred dollars.

(3.) A magistrate shall not try any of the following offences: Treason, murder, rape, forgery, and perjury; nor, except by direction of the High Court in writing, any offence punishable with penal servitude for seven years or upwards. Such direction may be given in any case after the accused is committed for trial before the High Court, if the High Court is of opinion that the offence will be adequately punished with such punishment as the Magistrate has power to award.

22.—(1.) A criminal prosecution is commenced by a complaint made to the Court, or by the issue of a summons or warrant by the Court of its own motion.

(2.) For the issue of a summons the complaint need not be on oath, unless the Court so requires.

(3.) A warrant may be issued if the complaint is in writing and on oath, or if the accused person does not appear on a summons, and it is proved that the summons has been served or cannot be served.

(4.) On receiving a complaint, whether on oath or not, the Court may, if it is of opinion that the complaint discloses no offence, or is otherwise unsubstantial, decline to issue any summons or warrant.

(5.) An accused person arrested on warrant shall be brought before the Court within forty-eight hours after arrest unless exceptional circumstances prevent his being so brought, and the complaint shall be heard as soon thereafter as circumstances reasonably admit. Due notice of the time and place of hearing shall be given to the prosecutor (if any), and summonses issued to the witnesses, if any.

23.—(1.) When the accused is before the Court; and the prosecutor has had notice of the time and place appointed for the hearing of the complaint, but does not appear, the Court, unless it thinks fit to adjourn the hearing, shall dismiss the complaint;

(2.) If both parties are present the Court shall proceed to hear the complaint; and

(a.) If the offence is legally punishable, or if the Court thinks it would be adequately punished, with imprisonment not exceeding six months, or with fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, the case shall be tried summarily on the complaint;

(b.) Otherwise, the Court shall take the depositions of the prosecutor and witnesses with a view to determining whether the accused shall be tried on a charge.

(3.) The following offences are not triable summarily, that is to say: treason, murder, rape, arson, housebreaking, robbery with violence, forgery, and perjury.

24. At a summary trial the substance of the complaint shall be stated to the accused, and he shall be asked if he admits or denies the truth of the complaint. If he admits, the Court may convict him and award punishment, but may first take further evidence if it thinks fit. If he denies, the Court shall hear the evidence of the prosecutor and witnesses, and of the witnesses, if any, for the accused, and either discharge the accused or convict him and award punishment.

25.—(1.) At the preliminary examination of a case which must be, or may in the opinion of the Magistrate require to be, sent for trial to another Court, the procedure shall be as follows:—

(a.) The Court shall, in the presence of the accused, take the depositions on oath of those who know the facts and put them in writing;

(b.) The accused may cross-examine each witness for the prosecution, and the witness's answers shall form part of his deposition;

(c.) The deposition of each witness shall be read over to the witness and signed by him.

(d.) After the evidence of the witnesses for the prosecution has been taken, the Court shall ask the accused if he wishes to make any statement or has any witnesses to call, or other evidence to adduce in his defence; and the Court shall then take his statement and the evidence of his witnesses (if any);

(e.) The accused shall be informed that any statement he may make may be used against him at the trial, and also that he may be sworn as a witness himself;

(f.) The Court having heard all the evidence, shall consider the whole matter, and if he thinks that a prima facie case is made out against the accused, shall cause a charge, on which the accused is to be put on his trial, to be framed, and read over to the accused.

(g.) The Court shall bind by recognizance the prosecutor and every witness to appear at the trial and give evidence;

(h.) If a person refuses to enter into a recognizance, the Court may send him to prison, there to remain till the trial, unless in the meantime he enters into recognizance;

(i.) Until the trial the Court shall either admit the accused to bail, or send him to prison for safe keeping;

(j.) The accused shall be entitled to a copy of the charge on which he is to be tried;

(k.) The complaint (if any), the depositions, the statement of the accused (if any), the charge on which the Court orders him to be tried, and the recognizances shall be carefully transmitted to the Court before which the trial is to take place.

(2.) At the preliminary examination of a case which may be tried on a charge before the same Court, the procedure above described may be varied as follows:—

After hearing so much evidence as is in the opinion of the Court sufficient to raise a strong presumption against the accused and to enable the Court to frame a charge, the Court may proceed to frame a charge and appoint a day for the trial.

(3.) When an accused person is arrested in one district in respect of an offence committed in another district, the preliminary examination may be commenced in the district in which the accused is arrested. In this case any depositions taken shall be transmitted, with the accused, to the Court of the district in which the offence was committed.

26.—(1.) The charge upon which an accused person is tried shall state the offence, with such particulars as to the time and place of the alleged offence, and the person (if any) against whom or the thing (if any) in respect of which it was committed, as are reasonably sufficient to give the accused notice of the matter with which he is charged.

(2.) There shall be a separate charge for each offence, and every charge shall be tried separately, but if the acts form one transaction, or if the offences are of the same kind, the charges may be tried together, if the Court thinks fit.

(3.) When more persons than one are accused of the same offence, or of different offences committed in the same transaction, or where one is accused of committing an offence and another with abetting or attempting to commit that offence, they may be charged and tried together or separately, as the Court thinks fit.

(4.) The Court may alter any charge at any time, but if the alteration is likely to prejudice the accused or the prosecutor, the Court may adjourn the trial for such time as may be necessary.

(5.) No error or omission in stating the offence or the particulars shall be regarded as material unless the accused was misled by the error or omission.

(6.) When a person is charged with an offence, and the evidence proves either the commission of a minor offence or an attempt to commit the offence charged, he may be convicted of the minor offence or the attempt.

(7.) For the purposes of the application of any statute law, a charge framed under the provisions of this Order shall be deemed to be an indictment.

27. The Court may, at any stage of the prosecution, in its discretion admit to bail a person charged with any felony, riot, or assault, but a person charged with murder shall not be admitted to bail except by or by direction of the High Court.

In all other cases the Court shall admit the accused to bail unless the Court sees good reason to the contrary.

The High Court may admit a person to bail although a Magistrate has not thought fit to do so.

28. The Court may, if it thinks fit, order a person convicted of an assault to pay to the person assaulted, by way of damages, any sum not exceeding fifty dollars.

Damages ordered to be paid may be either in addition to or in lieu of a fine, and shall be recoverable in like manner as a fine.

Where such damages are ordered an action cannot be brought for the assault.

29. The Court may, from time to time, postpone or adjourn any trial if it considers it necessary to do so in the interests of justice.

During the postponement or adjournment the accused may be committed to prison for safe custody, or admitted to bail or suffered to go at large, as the Court thinks fit.

30. Where there is reasonable cause to suspect that anything, by, or in respect of which any offence cognizable by the Court has been committed, is in any house or place within the jurisdiction of the Court, the Court may, by a search warrant, authorize an officer of the Court to search the house or place, and if anything searched for be found, to seize it and bring it before the Court for adjudication.

31. A warrant for apprehension or a search warrant may be issued and executed on any day at any time.

32. A sentence of death shall not be carried into effect unless confirmed by the Commissioner.

For this purpose, when the trial has been held by the Judge, he shall transmit his notes, or a copy thereof, and a report on the case to the Commissioner.

The Commissioner may commute the sentence to such punishment as he thinks proper in the circumstances, or may pardon the convict.

33. The Court may order a person convicted before it to pay all or a part of the expenses of the prosecution, the amount to be specified in the order.

The Court may, when it thinks a prosecution is vexatious or frivolous, order the complainant to pay all or a part of the expenses of the prosecution and of the accused, the amount being specified in the order.

In both cases the Court may order that the whole or such portion as the Court thinks fit of the expenses so paid be paid over to the complainant, or the accused, as the case may be.

34.—(1.) When a person is convicted before a Magistrate, and the punishment imposed is a fine of one hundred dollars or upwards, or imprisonment for three months or upwards, he may appeal to the High Court.

(2.) The Magistrate shall postpone the execution of the sentence pending the appeal and shall, as on a remand, either commit the person convicted to prison for safe custody, or admit him to bail, or take security for the payment of the fine (if any).

(3.) The Magistrate shall frame a statement setting out the facts and the grounds of the conviction and sentence, and any question of law, and any objections alleged by the person convicted, and transmit the same, together with the notes of the evidence and any documents adduced in evidence, to the High Court.

(4.) The High Court shall either affirm or annul the conviction or amend it, or affirm or annul the sentence or vary it, or rehear the case itself, or order a rehearing before the Magistrate, giving all necessary and proper directions.

35.—(1.) In each of the following cases, namely:—

(i.) Where a person is convicted before the High Court, or his conviction before a Magistrate is affirmed by the High Court, and the person so convicted declares his desire to appeal to the Supreme Court on any question of law affecting the conviction or sentence; or

(ii.) Where the High Court thinks fit to reserve for the judgment of the Supreme Court any question of law arising on the trial,—

The High Court shall frame a statement setting out the facts, and the grounds of the conviction and sentence, and the question or questions of law raised by the person convicted or by the High Court.

(2.) The High Court shall annex to that statement certified copies of the summons, indictment, (if any), and proceedings, and of all documentary evidence admitted or tendered, and appearing to that Court to be material, and the depositions, the notes of the oral testimony, any statement or objections to the conviction or sentence made by the person convicted, and any argument thereon that he desires to submit to the Supreme Court, and a note of the reasons why any tendered evidence which is not transmitted appears to the Court to be immaterial.

(3.) The High Court shall forthwith send the statement and its annexes to the Supreme Court.

(4.) The High Court shall postpone the execution of the sentence pending the appeal, and shall, as on a remand, either (if necessary) commit the person convicted to prison for safe custody, or admit him to bail, with or without security, by recognisance, deposit money, or otherwise.

(5.) The Supreme Court shall hear and finally determine the matter, after considering the statement of the High Court, and hearing publicly any argument offered on behalf of the prosecution, or of the person convicted.

(6.) The Supreme Court may require the High Court to make any amendment in or addition to its statement or the annexes thereto.

(7.) The judgment of the Supreme Court shall be delivered publicly.

(8.) The Supreme Court shall either affirm or annul the conviction, or amend it, and shall either affirm or annul the sentence or vary it, and shall give all necessary and proper consequential directions.

36. The Supreme Court shall not annul a conviction or sentence, or vary a sentence, on the ground—

(i.) Of any objection which, if stated during the trial, might, in the opinion of the Supreme Court, have been properly met by amendment, by the High Court; or

(ii.) Of any error or informality which, in the opinion of the Supreme Court, did not affect the substance of the case or subject the appellant to any undue prejudice.

37. There shall be no appeal in a criminal case to His Majesty the King in Council from a decision of the Supreme Court, except by special leave of His Majesty in Council.

38. The Commissioner may by general order prescribe the manner in which and the prisons in which punishments are to be carried into execution, and may make rules for the government of the prisons and of all persons therein.

39.—(1.) When an offender is sentenced to imprisonment and the High Court thinks it expedient that the sentence be carried into effect within his Majesty's dominions, the place shall be either Hong Kong or a place in some other part of His Majesty's dominions the Government whereof consents that offenders may be sent thither under this Article.

(2.) The High Court may, by warrant under the hand of the Judge, cause the offender to be sent to such place as aforesaid, in order that the sentence may be carried into effect accordingly.

(3.) The warrant shall be sufficient authority to any person to whom it is directed to receive and detain the person named therein, and to carry him and deliver him up at the place named, according to the warrant.

40. "The Fugitive Offenders Act, 1881" and "The Colonial Prisoners Removal Act, 1884" shall apply to the said territories as if they were part of His Majesty's dominions, subject as follows:—

(a.) The Commissioner is hereby substituted for the Governor or Government of a British possession;

(b.) The High Court is hereby substituted for a Superior Court, and for a Magistrate of a British possession;

(c.) For the purposes of the said Act of 1881, and of this Article in relation thereto, the said territories and Hong Kong shall be deemed to be one group of British possessions.

41.—(1.) In cases of murder or manslaughter if either the death, or the criminal act which wholly or partly caused the death, happened within the said territories, the High Court shall have the like jurisdiction over any person who is charged either as the principal offender, or as accessory before the fact to murder, or as accessory after the fact to murder or manslaughter, as if both the criminal act and the death had happened within that jurisdiction.

(2.) In the case of any offence committed on the high seas, or within the Admiralty jurisdiction, by any person on board a British ship, or by any British subject on board a foreign ship to which he did not belong, the High Court shall, subject to the provisions of this Order, have jurisdiction as if the offence had been committed within the said territories. In cases tried under this Article no different sentence can be passed from the sentence which could be passed in England if the offence were tried there.

(3.) The foregoing provisions of this Article shall be deemed to be adaptations, for the purposes of this Order and of "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," of the following enactments, that is to say:—

"The Admiralty Offences (Colonial) Act, 1849."

"The Admiralty Offences (Colonial) Act, 1860."

"The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894," Section 686.

42. When a British subject, being within the said territories, is accused of having committed any offence on board a British or Chinese ship at a distance of not more than one hundred miles from the coast of China, or on board a ship not lawfully entitled to claim the protection of the flag of any State at such a distance as aforesaid, he may be apprehended, charged, and tried, in like manner as if the offence had been committed within the said territories.

The High Court, on receiving satisfactory information that any soldier, sailor, marine, or other person belonging to any of His Majesty's naval or military forces has deserted therefrom, and has concealed himself in any British ship at such distance as aforesaid, may issue a warrant for the search for and apprehension of such deserter, and, on being satisfied on investigation that any person so apprehended is such a deserter, shall cause him to be, with all convenient speed, taken and delivered over to the officer in command of a vessel of war of His Majesty, or to the nearest military station of His Majesty's forces.

43. Where the High Court issues a summons or warrant against any person on a charge of an offence committed on board of or in relation to any ship, other than a ship enjoying immunity from civil process, then, if it appears to the Court that the interests of public justice so require, that court may issue a warrant or order for the detention of the ship, and may cause the ship to be detained accordingly, until the charge is heard and determined, and the Order of the Court thereon is fully executed, or for such shorter time as the Court thinks fit; and the Court shall have power to make all such orders as appear to it necessary or proper for carrying this provision into effect.

44. If any person—

(i.) Publicly derides, mocks, or insults any religion established or observed within the said territories; or

(ii.) Publicly offers insult to any religious service, feast, or ceremony, or to any place of worship, tomb, or sanctuary belonging to any religion established or observed within the said territories, or belonging to the ministers or professors thereof; or,

(iii.) Publicly and wilfully commits any act tending to bring any religion established or observed within the said territories, or its ceremonies, mode of worship, or observances, into hatred, ridicule, or contempt, and thereby to provoke a breach of the public peace; he shall be guilty of an offence, and on conviction thereof, liable to imprisonment not exceeding two years, with or without hard labour, and with or without a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or to a fine alone not exceeding five hundred dollars.

45. If any person—

(i.) Does any act calculated to excite tumult or disorder, or to excite enmity between British subjects, Chinese subjects, and foreign subjects, or any of them, or to excite opposition to the lawful authority of His Majesty within the said territories; or,

(ii.) Without His Majesty's authority levies war, or takes part in any operation of war, or aids or abets any person in carrying on war, insurrection, or rebellion against the Emperor of China, or against any Government exercising authority in any part of the dominions of the Emperor of China, he shall on conviction be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding two years, with or without hard labour, or to a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or to both imprisonment and fine.

46.—(1.) Where a person has been convicted under the last preceding article, he shall in addition to the punishments therein mentioned, and without further proceedings, be liable to deportation; and the Court may order that he be deported to such place as the Commissioner may direct, but every such order shall be subject to confirmation by the Commissioner.

(2.) The place shall be a place the Government thereof consents to the reception therein of the person to be deported.

(3.) The person to be deported shall be detained in custody until a fit opportunity for his deportation occurs.

(4.) He shall, as soon as is practicable, and either after execution of the sentence, or while it is in course of execution, be embarked in custody under the warrant of the Commissioner on board one of His Majesty's vessels of war, or, if there is no such vessel available, then on board any British or other fit vessel bound to the place of deportation.

(5.) The warrant shall be sufficient authority to the commander or master of the vessel to receive and detain the person therein named, and to carry him to and deliver him up at the place named according to the warrant.

(6.) If any master of a British ship, after a reasonable remuneration for the conveyance of a deported person has been tendered or paid to him, refuses or fails to carry such person to the place named, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred dollars.

(7.) The Court may order the person to be deported to pay all or any part of the expenses of his deportation. Subject thereto, the expenses of deportation shall be defrayed in such manner as the Secretary of State, with the concurrence of the Treasury, may direct.

(8.) The Commissioner shall forthwith report to the Secretary of State any order of deportation made or confirmed by him, and the grounds thereof.

(9.) If any person deported under this Order returns to the said territories without permission in writing of the Secretary of State (which permission the Secretary of State may give), he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars; and he shall also be liable to be forthwith again deported.

47. The Court shall have all the powers appertaining to the office of Coroner in England, provided as follows:—

(a.) Where a person is charged with causing the death, the Court may proceed forthwith with the preliminary examination;

(b.) Where no person is charged with causing the death, the Court shall, without any jury, hold an inquest, taking the depositions of those who know the facts. If, during or after the inquest, any person is so charged, the depositions shall be read over in the presence of the witnesses and of the accused, who shall be entitled to cross-examine each witness, and the procedure shall be as in other cases of preliminary examination. If after the inquest the Court does not see fit to cause any person to be charged, the Court shall send a copy of the depositions to the Commissioner, together with a report as to the cause of the death.

PART V.—CIVIL MATTERS.

48.—(1.) Every civil proceeding in the Court shall be taken by action, and not otherwise, and shall be designated an action.

(2.) For the purposes of any statutory enactment or other provision applicable under this Order to any civil proceeding in the Court, an action under this Order shall comprise and be equivalent to a suit, cause, or petition, or to any civil proceeding, howsoever required by any such enactment or provision to be instituted or carried on.

49.—(1.) Every action shall be heard and determined in a summary way.

(2.) Every application in the course of an action may be made to the Court orally, and without previous formality, unless in any case the Court otherwise directs, or the Rules of Court otherwise provide.

(3.) No action or proceeding shall be treated by the Court as invalid on account of any technical error or mistake in form or in words.

(4.) All errors and mistakes may be corrected, and times may be extended, by the Court in its discretion, and on such terms as the Court thinks just.

50.—(1.) The sittings of the Court for the hearing of actions shall, where the amount of business so required, be held on stated days.

(2.) The sittings shall ordinarily be public, but the Court may, for reasons recorded in the Minutes, hear any particular case in the presence only of the parties and their legal advisers and the officers of the Court.

51. Every action shall commence by a summons, issued from the Court, on the application of the Plaintiff, and served on the Defendant (in this Order referred to as an original summons).

52. In each Court there shall be kept a book, called the Action Book, in which all actions brought in the Court shall be entered, numbered consecutively in each year, in the order in which they are commenced, with a short statement of the particulars of each action, and a note of the several proceedings therein.

53.—(1.) An original summons shall not be in force for more than twelve months from the day of its date (including that day).

(2.) If any Defendant named therein is not served therewith, the Plaintiff may, before the end of the twelve months, apply to the Court for renewal thereof.

(3.) The Court, if satisfied that reasonable efforts have been made to serve the Defendant, or for other good reason, may order that the summons be renewed for six months from the date of renewal, and so, from time to time, during the currency of the renewed summons.

(4.) The summons shall be renewed by being re-sealed with the seal of the Court, and a note being made thereon by the Court or its officer, stating the renewal and the date thereof.

(5.) A summons so renewed shall remain in force and be available to prevent the operation of any statute of limitation, and for all other purposes, as from the date of the original summons.

(6.) The production of a summons purporting to be so renewed shall be sufficient evidence of the renewal and of the commencement of the action, as of the date of the original summons, for all purposes.

54. If an action is not proceeded with and disposed of within twelve months from service of the original summons, the Court may, if it thinks fit, without application by any party, order the same to be dismissed for failure to proceed.

55. The Court may, at any time, if it thinks fit, either on or without application of a Defendant, order the Plaintiff to put in further particulars of his claim.

56. There shall ordinarily be no written pleadings; but the Court may at any time, if it thinks fit, order the Plaintiff to put in a written statement of his claim, or a Defendant to put in a written statement of his defence.

57. The evidence on either side may, subject to the direction of the Court, be wholly or partly oral, or on affidavit or by deposition.

58.—(1.) Notwithstanding anything in this Order, the Court (for reasons recorded in the Minutes) may at any time do any of the following things as the Court thinks just:—

(i.) Defer or adjourn the hearing or determination of any action, proceeding, or application;

(ii.) Order or allow any amendment of any pleading or other document;

(iii.) Appoint or allow a time for, or enlarge or abridge the time appointed or allowed for, or allow further time for, the doing of any act or the taking of any proceeding.

(2.) Any Order within the discretion of the Court may be made on such terms respecting time, costs, and other matters, as the Court thinks fit.

59. Subject to the provisions of this Order and any Rules of Court, the costs of and incident to all proceedings in the Court shall be in the discretion of the Court.

60.—(1.) All orders of the Court shall, if not made in writing, be drawn up in writing and filed with the papers in the action.

(2.) The seal of the Court shall be affixed to every order, which shall then be part of the record in the action.

(3.) The order shall bear the date of the day of the delivery of the decision on which the order is founded.

(4.) All money ordered by the Court to be paid by any person shall be paid into the office of the Court, unless the Court otherwise directs.

61.—(1.) On proof of great urgency or other peculiar circumstances, after an action is brought, the Court may, if it thinks fit, on the application of a plaintiff, or of its own motion, make an order for stopping the clearance of, or for the arrest and detention of, a ship about to leave the said territories, other than a ship enjoying immunity from civil process.

(2.) The Court may, at any time, on reasonable cause shown, discharge or vary the order.

62.—(1.) Any agreement in writing between any persons to submit present or future differences to arbitration, whether an arbitrator is named therein or not, may be filed in the Court by any party thereto, and, unless a contrary intention is expressed therein, shall be irrevocable, and shall have the same effect as an order of the Court.

(2.) Every such agreement is in this Order referred to as a submission.

(3.) If any action is commenced in respect of any matter covered by a submission, the Court, on the application of any party to the action, may by order stay the action.

63.—(1.) The High Court shall have, with respect to all persons within the said territories, all such jurisdiction in bankruptcy as for the time being belongs to the High Court in England.

(2.) Magistrates may exercise such jurisdiction in bankruptcy as may be prescribed by Ordinances, and subject thereto by Rules of Court; provided that a Magistrate shall not exercise any bankruptcy jurisdiction unless he is so authorised by the Commissioner.

(3.) Proceedings in bankruptcy shall be originated by a summons to the debtor to show cause why he should not be adjudicated bankrupt, or by a summons issued by the debtor himself to his creditor, or any of his creditors, to show cause why he, the debtor, should not be adjudicated bankrupt.

(4.) On or after the issue of such summons, the High Court may stay any proceedings pending in any Court in respect of any debt provable in bankruptcy, or may allow the proceedings to continue on such terms as the High Court thinks fit.

(5.) On or after the issue of such summons, the High Court may appoint a receiver or manager of the property or business of the debtor.

64.—(1.) The High Court shall have Admiralty jurisdiction for and within the said territories, and over vessels and persons coming within the same.

(2.) The following enactments of "The Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890," that is to say, section 2, sub-sections (2) to (4); sections 5 and 6; section 16, sub-section (3); shall apply to the High Court as if that Court were a Colonial Court of Admiralty, and as if the said territories were a British possession; and for the purpose of this application the expressions "judgment" and "appeal" shall, in the enactments so applied, have the same respective meanings as are assigned thereto in section 15 of the said Act.

65.—(1.) The High Court shall, as far as circumstances admit, have, for and within the said territories, all such jurisdiction relative to the custody and management of the persons and estates of lunatics as for the time being belongs to the Lord Chancellor or other Judge or Judges in England intrusted by virtue of His Majesty's Sign Manual with the care and commitment of the custody of the persons and estates of lunatics.

66.—(1.) The High Court shall, as far as circumstances admit, have, for and within the said territories, all such jurisdiction, except the jurisdiction relative to dissolution, or nullity, or jactitation of marriage, as for the time being belongs to the High Court in England.

(2.) The High Court shall have the like jurisdiction in relation to native marriages as would be exercised by any Chinese Court, if His Majesty had not acquired power and jurisdiction in the said territories, and subject to the provisions of any Ordinance, may exercise the same in accordance with Chinese law and custom so far as consistent with justice and morality, observing, nevertheless, the procedure of the High Court, so far as is practicable.

67.—(1.) The High Court shall be a Court of Probate, and, as such, shall, so far as circumstances admit, have all such jurisdiction as for the time being belongs to the High Court in England in cases of probate and administration of estates.

(2.) The Commissioner may by Ordinance confer on Magistrates or on any Magistrate named or designated in the Ordinance in this behalf, jurisdiction in cases of probate and administration.

(3.) In all cases where the deceased was a native effect shall be given to Chinese law and custom so far as the same are consistent with justice.

Appeal in Civil Cases.

68.—(1.) Where a civil action in the High Court involves the amount or value of five hundred dollars or upwards, any party aggrieved by any decision of the Court in the action shall have the right to appeal to the Supreme Court against the same on the following conditions, namely:—

(i.) The appellant shall give security to the satisfaction of the Judge, and to such amount as the Judge thinks reasonable, not exceeding two thousand dollars, for prosecution of the appeal, and for payment of any costs that may be ordered by the Supreme Court on the appeal to be paid by the appellant to any person.

(ii.) The appellant shall pay to the High Court such sum as the Judge thinks reasonable, to defray the expense of the making up and transmission to the Supreme Court of the record.

(2.) In any civil case the High Court may, if it thinks fit, give leave to appeal on the conditions aforesaid.

(3.) In any civil case the Supreme Court may give leave to appeal on such terms as it thinks fit.

69.—(1.) After three months from the date of a decision of the High Court, an appeal against it shall not lie except by leave of the Supreme Court.

(2.) After six months from the date of a decision of the High Court, application for leave to appeal against it shall not be entertained by the Supreme Court.

70.—(1.) When a person ordered to pay money, or to do any other thing, appeals, the Judge shall direct either that the decision appealed from be carried into execution; or that the execution thereof be suspended pending the appeal, as he thinks fit.

(2.) If the Judge directs the decision to be carried into execution, the person in whose favour it is given, shall, before the execution of it, give security to the satisfaction of the Judge for performance of any order to be made on appeal.

(3.) If the Judge directs the execution of the decision to be suspended, the person against whom it is given shall, before an order for suspension is made, give security to the satisfaction of the Judge for performance of such order as shall be made on appeal.

71.—(1.) The appellant shall file an appeal motion-paper in the High Court.

(2.) He may at the same time file any argument which he desires to submit to the Supreme Court in support of the appeal.

(3.) The motion-paper and the argument (if any) shall be served on such persons as respondents as the High Court directs.

72.—(1.) A respondent may, within seven days after service, file in the High Court a motion-paper of cross appeal (if any), and such argument as he desires to submit to the Supreme Court on the appeal and cross appeal (if any).

(2.) Copies thereof shall be furnished by the High Court to such persons as the Court thinks fit.

73.—(1.) On the expiration of such seven days, the High Court shall, without the application of any party, make up the record of appeal, which shall consist of the writ of summons, statements of claim and defence (if any), orders, and proceedings, all written and documentary evidence admitted or tendered, or a certified copy thereof, and the notes of the oral evidence, the appeal and cross appeal motion-paper, and the arguments (if any).

(2.) The several pieces shall be fastened together, consecutively numbered; and the whole shall be secured by the seal of the Judge, and be forthwith forwarded by him to the Supreme Court.

(3.) The Judge shall not, except for some special cause, take on himself the responsibility of the charge, or of the transmission to the Supreme Court, of original letters or documents produced in evidence. They shall be returned to the parties producing them; and they shall produce the originals, if required by the Supreme Court, at or before the hearing of the appeal.

74.—(1.) After the record of appeal is transmitted, until the appeal is disposed of, the Supreme Court shall be in exclusive possession of the whole action, as between the parties to the appeal.

(2.) Every application in the action, as between the parties to the appeal, shall be made to the Supreme Court, and not to the High Court; but any application may be made through the High Court.

75.—(1.) The Supreme Court shall, after receiving the record of appeal, fix a day for the hearing of the appeal, and shall give notice thereof through the High Court to the parties to the appeal, such a day being fixed as will allow of the parties attending in person, or by counsel or solicitor if they so desire.

(2.) But if all the separate parties to an appeal appear in person at Hong Kong, or appoint persons there to represent them as their counsel or solicitors in the appeal, and cause the appearance or appointment to be notified to the Supreme Court, the Supreme Court may dispose of the appeal, without being required to give notice through the High Court to the parties to the appeal, of the day fixed for the hearing thereof.

76. The Supreme Court may, if it thinks fit, require a party to an appeal to appear personally before it on the hearing of, the appeal, or on any occasion pending the appeal.

77.—(1.) The Supreme Court may, from time to time, make any order necessary for determining the real question in controversy in the action, as among the parties to the appeal, and for that purpose may amend any defect or error in the record of appeal, and may enlarge the time for any proceeding except as otherwise by this Order expressly provided.

(2.) The Supreme Court may direct the High Court to inquire into and certify its finding on any question, as between the parties to the appeal, or any of them, which the Supreme Court thinks fit to determine before final judgment is given in the appeal.

(3.) The powers of the Supreme Court under this Order may be exercised by the Supreme Court, notwithstanding that the appeal is brought against part only of the decision of the High Court; and those powers may be exercised in favour of all or any of the parties to the action, although they have not appealed from, or complained of, the decision.

(4.) Generally, the Supreme Court shall, as among the parties to the appeal, have as full jurisdiction over the whole action as if it had been originally instituted and prosecuted in the Supreme Court by parties subject to the original jurisdiction of the Supreme Court.

(5.) The Supreme Court may, if it thinks fit, remit the action to the High Court, to be reheard, or to be otherwise dealt with as the Supreme Court directs.

(6.) The appeal shall be determined by the Supreme Court according to the law to be administered under this Order by the High Court.

78.—(1.) Notwithstanding anything in this Order, an appeal to the Supreme Court shall not lie from an order of the High Court, made on the application of one party, without notice to the other party.

(2.) But, if any person thinks himself aggrieved by such an order, he may, on notice to the other party, apply to the High Court to vary or discharge the order, and an appeal shall lie from the decision on that application.

79. Subject to the provisions of this Order and of any Ordinance made under this Order, the Supreme Court may, with the consent of the Commissioner and with the approval of the Secretary of State, make rules of Court with respect to the hearing of appeals under this Order.

80. For purposes of appeal in civil cases to His Majesty the King in Council, a decision of the Supreme Court on appeal under this Order shall have the effect of a decision of that Court under its ordinary primary jurisdiction.

PART VI.—MISCELLANEOUS.

81. A Land Commission is hereby constituted for the said territories, consisting of the Judge and one other Commissioner who shall be appointed and may be removed by His Majesty's Commissioner.

The Land Commission shall deal with such questions relating to the titles, tenures, occupancy, and assessment of lands in the said territories as may be assigned for their determination by any Ordinance, which may also prescribe the powers, duties, and proceedings of the Commission.

(2.) The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty may from time to time, with the concurrence of the Secretary of State for the Colonies, alter the limits of the Admiralty waters, and such alteration shall be carried into effect by Ordinance as provided by Article 9 of this Order in Council.

(3.) The Naval Commander-in-Chief will make such regulations as will permit of the use of Admiralty waters by mercantile vessels, so far as is necessary.

83. The Commissioner may make Rules of Court and prescribe forms of procedure as to all civil and criminal proceedings and the fees to be taken therein.

All such Rules shall be transmitted by the Commissioner to the Secretary of State, for his approval, and, so far as they relate to fees, for the approval of the Treasury, and until disallowance by him shall have full force and effect.

84. Not later than the 31st March in each year, the Commissioner shall transmit to the Secretary of State a report on the operation of this Order so far as relates to judicial affairs for the year ending the 31st December then last, showing the number and nature of the proceedings, criminal and civil, taken in the Courts under this order, and the result thereof, and the number and amount of fees received, and such other information, and being in such form, as the Secretary of State from time to time directs.

85. From and after the commencement of this Order, the Orders in Council relating to the exercise of His Majesty's jurisdiction in China shall cease to have any effect in the territories within the limits of this Order, with such savings and exceptions (if any) as may be made by any Proclamation issued by the Commissioner before the commencement of this Order.

AT the Court of Saint James's, the 24th day of July, 1901.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Foreign Deserters Act, 1852," it is provided that, whenever it is made to appear to His Majesty that due facilities are or will be given for recovering or apprehending seamen who desert from British merchant ships in the territories of any foreign Power, His Majesty may, by Order in Council stating that such facilities are or will be given, declare that seamen, not being slaves, who desert from merchant ships belonging to a subject of such Power when within His Majesty's dominions shall be liable to be apprehended and carried on board their respective ships, and may limit the operation of such Order, and may render the operation thereof subject to such conditions and qualifications, if any, as may be deemed expedient.

And whereas by Orders in Council dated respectively the twenty-eighth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, the twenty-seventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, the twenty-eighth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, the seventeenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, and the twenty-third day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, and published in the *London Gazette*s dated respectively the fifteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, the twenty-eighth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, the twenty-third day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, and the twenty-seventh day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, the provisions of the above recited Act were made applicable as regards merchant ships belonging respectively to the citizens of the Republics of Chili and Nicaragua, to the Kingdom of Madagascar, to the Regency of Tunis, and to the Kingdom of Hawaii:

And whereas the provisions of "The Foreign Deserters Act, 1852," were repealed by and renacted in the provisions of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894":

And whereas by section seven hundred and forty-five of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894," it is provided that any Order in Council made under any enactment repealed by the said Act shall continue in force as if it had been made under the said Act:

And whereas by section seven hundred and thirty-eight of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894," it is provided inter alia that where His Majesty has power under that Act or any Act thereafter to be passed amending the same to make an Order in Council His Majesty may from time to time make that Order in Council and by Order in Council revoke any Order so made.

And whereas it appears expedient to His Majesty to revoke the said Orders in Council:

Now therefore His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894," and by and with the advice of His Privy Council is pleased to order and declare that upon and from the publication hereof in the London Gazette the before mentioned Orders in Council dated respectively the twenty-eighth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, the twenty-seventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, the twenty-eighth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, the seventeenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, and the twenty-third day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, shall be revoked, and the same are hereby revoked accordingly.

A. W. FitzRoy.

AT the Court at Saint James's, the 24th day of July, 1901.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty hath acquired power and jurisdiction within divers countries on the West Coast of Africa, near or adjacent to His Majesty's Colony of Lagos:

And whereas by an Order in Council of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria bearing date the twenty-ninth day of December one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, it was provided that it should be lawful for the Legislative Council for the time being of the Colony of Lagos, by Ordinance or Ordinances, to exercise and provide for giving effect to all such powers and jurisdiction as Her Majesty might, at any time before or after the passing of the said Order in Council, have acquired in the said territories adjacent to the Colony of Lagos, subject to such provisions as are in the said Order in Council described and set forth:

And whereas by a further Order of Her late Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh December one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, provision was made for the exercise of Her Majesty's jurisdiction within the territories therein described and set forth:

And whereas the said last-recited Order has never been brought into operation within the said territories, and it is expedient that the said Order should be revoked:

And whereas it is expedient to define the limits within which the powers and jurisdiction of His Majesty in the said territories under the provisions of the Order in Council of the twenty-ninth December one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven shall in future be exercised:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of the powers by "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," or otherwise in His Majesty vested, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

I. This Order may be cited as the "Lagos Protectorate Order in Council, 1901."

II. Provided that nothing in any such Ordinance or Ordinances contained shall take away or affect any rights secured to any natives in the said territories by any treaties or agreements made on behalf or with the sanction of His Majesty, and that all such treaties and agreements shall be and remain operative and in force, and that all pledges and undertakings therein contained shall remain mutually binding on all parties to the same.

III. The limits of this Order are the territories of Africa which are bounded on the south by the Atlantic Ocean, on the west by the line of the frontier between the British and French possessions, on the north and north-east by the British Protectorate of Northern Nigeria, and on the east by the British Protectorate of Southern Nigeria.

Provided always, that such parts of the territories so bounded as are within that portion of His Majesty's Dominions which is known as the Colony of Lagos, shall not be included within the limits of this Order. The territories within the limits of this Order shall be known and described as the Lagos Protectorate.

IV. The Order of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria in Council of the twenty-seventh December one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine is hereby revoked.

V. This Order shall be published in the Gazette of the Colony of Lagos, and shall thereupon commence and come into operation; and the Governor shall give directions for the publication of this Order at such places, and in such manner, and for such time or times as he thinks proper for giving due publicity thereto within the Lagos Protectorate.

And the Right Honourable Joseph Chamberlain one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State is to give the necessary direction herein accordingly. A. W. FitzRoy.

AT the Court at Saint James's, the 24th day of July, 1901.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

And whereas it has been made to appear to His Majesty that the said Scale, Rules, and Exemptions should be altered to the extent hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in exercise of the powers vested in Him by the above-recited provisions, doth, for the purpose of the levying of light dues in pursuance of the said Act and for no other purpose whatever, alter, by this Order in Council, the Scale, Rules, and Exemptions set out in the said second schedule to the said Act in manner following, that is to say:—

A. W. FitzRoy.

AT the Court at Saint James's, the 24th day of July, 1901.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section two of "The Board of Education Act, 1899," it is lawful for His Majesty in Council, subject to the provisions of that section, from time to time, to transfer to the Board of Education any of the powers of the Charity Commissioners in matters appearing to His Majesty to relate to education, and the Order may make such provision as appears necessary for applying to the exercise of those powers by the Board of Education the enactments relating to the Charity Commissioners.

Now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and by virtue of the authority committed to Him by "The Board of Education Act, 1899," and of all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

(3.) For the purposes of the transfer effected by this section the provisions of the Charitable Trusts Acts, 1853 to 1894, and the Endowed Schools Acts, 1869 to 1889, shall apply with the modifications and adaptations set forth in the schedule of this Order.

(4.) A. W. FitzRoy.
