CORONATION OF THEIR MAJESTIES.

COURT OF CLAIMS.

THE Right Honourable the Commissioners appointed by His Majesty to hear and determine all Claims of Services to be performed at the time of the ensuing Coronation (except those dispensed with by His Majesty's Royal Proclamation of the 26th day of June last), and of fees to be received for the same, at their last meeting held at the Council Office, Whitehall, on the 17th day of July last, resolved as follows:—

1. All Claims must be made by Petition. Petitions may be sent under cover to the Clerks of the Court of Claims, Privy Council Office, Whitehall.
2. Petitioners are not required to appear in person before the Court, unless summoned.
3. Petitioners may appear by Solicitors, Agents, or Counsel.
4. If a Claim was admitted in 1838, the Court will forthwith admit such Claim, provided the Commissioners are satisfied that the present Petitioner represents the person whose Claim was admitted in 1838, and that there is no counter-claim.
5. Petitioners to be requested to present their Claims on or before the 31st day of October, 1901.

The Court stood adjourned till some day in the month of November next, of which notice will be given in the London Gazette.

The Commissioners are required by the Proclamation to exclude from their consideration such claims as may be submitted to them in respect of rights or services connected with the parts of the Ceremonial heretofore performed in Westminster Hall and with the Procession, the Ceremony being confined to Westminster Abbey.

AT the Court at Saint James's, the 26th day of September, 1901.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.
 Lord George Hamilou.
 Mr. Chamberlain.
 Mr. St. John Brodrick.
 Sir Charles Scott.

WHEREAS, by an Order in Council dated the nineteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, provision has been made for the surrender by the Government of the Straits Settlements to Foreign States in the case of which the Extradition Act, 1870, does not apply, of persons accused or convicted of the commission of certain crimes and offences within the jurisdiction of such States:

And whereas by an Order in Council, dated the twenty-sixth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, the said Order of the nineteenth of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, was amended:

And whereas it is expedient to further amend the said Order of the nineteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine:

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, as follows:—

1. The said Order in Council of the nineteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, and this Order shall be read and construed as one Order.

2. The said Order in Council of the nineteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, may be cited as The Straits Settlements Extradition Order, 1889, and this Order may be cited as The Straits Settlements Extradition Order, 1901.

3. The Straits Settlements Extradition Order, 1889, shall continue to be construed and take effect as if the territory of the British North Borneo Company had been specified in the second schedule thereto, and the said territory shall be deemed to be a "Protected State" for the purposes of the said Order.

4. In Clause 13 of the Straits Settlements Extradition Order, 1889, the expression "Minister of State" shall in the case of any of the protected States (except the territory of the British North Borneo Company) include any officer appointed by Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, by His Majesty, or by the Governor as Resident-General, Resident, or Secretary to the Resident in such State, and shall in the case of the territory of the British North Borneo Company mean the Principal Representative for the time being of the British North Borneo Company in North Borneo.

The said Order in Council of the twenty-sixth day of October one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six is hereby revoked without prejudice to anything lawfully done thereunder.

A. W. FitzRoy.
