

incumbent of the united benefice for the same purpose.

"5. That upon the union taking effect the font and communion table, now in the church of Saint George, Botolph-lane, shall, if the joint vestry of the united benefice desire it, and if the Bishop of London shall approve, be transferred to the parish church of the united benefice, but if not needed for such church, they shall be transferred to any other church or chapel, or churches or chapels within the diocese of London which the Bishop may select.

"6. That upon the union taking effect if the sacramental plate, or any portion thereof, used in the church of Saint George Botolph-lane shall in the opinion of the joint vestry of the united benefice be needed for use in the parish church of the united benefice, such sacramental plate or such portion thereof, as the case may be, shall, if the Bishop of London shall approve, be transferred to the parish church of the united benefice; but if not needed for such church, such sacramental plate, or the portion thereof which shall not be so needed, shall, if the Bishop of London shall approve, be offered to the incumbent and churchwardens of the church of the new benefice hereinafter mentioned, if such new benefice shall be within the diocese of London, and if accepted by the said incumbent and churchwardens, shall be transferred to the church of such new benefice, but if not so accepted, or if such new benefice shall not be within the diocese of London, then such sacramental plate, or the portion thereof which shall not be needed for the parish church of the united benefice, shall be transferred to any other church or chapel, or churches or chapels within the diocese of London, which the Bishop may select.

"7. That upon the union taking effect the organ and the carved work now in the church of Saint George, Botolph-lane, or so much of such carved work as the joint vestry of the united benefice shall desire, shall, with the approval of the Bishop of London, be transferred to the parish church of the united benefice; but if such organ or the whole or a part of such carved work be not needed for such church, the whole or such part as shall not be needed for such church shall be transferred to the church of the new benefice hereinafter mentioned, unless it shall seem more expedient to the Bishop of London that the same shall be sold, and the proceeds to arise from such sale shall in such case be added to the proceeds to arise from the sale hereinafter recommended of the materials and site of the church of Saint George, Botolph-lane.

"8. That upon the union taking effect if the tables of fees used in the two churches be alike in all particulars the table of fees used in the church which will become the parish church of the united benefice shall (until revised or altered by proper authority) be the table of fees for the united parishes, but if such tables of fees be not alike in all particulars, the same shall be of no authority, and a new table of fees shall be made by the proper authority for the use of the united parishes as if the same were one parish.

"9. That if upon the union taking effect the persons who at the present time hold the respective offices of organist and sexton of Saint Mary-at-Hill shall at that time hold their respective offices, such persons shall be respectively organist and sexton of the united benefice; but no organist or sexton of the united benefice shall have any larger estate and interest in his office than he shall have possessed in his original office before the union.

"10. That upon the final closing of the church of Saint George Botolph-lane the register books of baptisms, marriages, and burials of the parishes of Saint George, Botolph-lane and Saint Botolph Billingsgate, shall be transferred to the parish church of the united benefice.

"11. That if upon the union taking effect Mr. George Packer, who is now the parish clerk of Saint George Botolph-lane, Miss Annie Ward who is now the sextoness of the church of Saint George, Botolph-lane, and Mr. John Samuel Ollier, who is now the organ blower of the same church, or one or more of them, shall hold their respective offices, their services shall be dispensed with, and by way of compensation for the loss of their offices the said George Packer shall receive for the remainder of his life a yearly sum or pension of forty pounds, the said Annie Ward shall receive for the remainder of her life a yearly sum or pension of forty-five pounds and the said John Samuel Ollier shall receive for the remainder of his life a yearly sum or pension of twelve pounds, such yearly sums or pensions to be paid by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners out of the moneys received by us under the fourteenth section of the City of London Parochial Charities Act, 1883.

"12. That the joint vestry of the united parishes for all ecclesiastical purposes shall include the members for the time being of the select vestry of the parish of Saint Mary-at-Hill, and the churchwardens for the time being (being parishioners) of the parish of Saint Andrew Hubbard, the parish of Saint George Botolph-lane and the parish of Saint Botolph Billingsgate respectively.

"PART III.

"As to the endowments and parsonage house of the united benefice, we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners further recommend and propose:—

"1. That upon the union taking effect, all the properties, revenues and income, constituting the endowments of the rectory of Saint Mary-at-Hill with Saint Andrew Hubbard, and of the rectory of Saint George Botolph-lane, with Saint Botolph, Billingsgate (including the parsonage house belonging to the last-mentioned rectory) shall be transferred to and annexed to the united benefice and that so soon after the union taking effect as the existing vested interest in the income of the united benefice shall have ceased and determined, the incumbent at that time of the said united benefice, and his successors shall be entitled to retain an annual sum of five hundred and thirty pounds out of the income arising from or constituting such endowments, and that the residue of such income, and also a sum of seventy-three pounds per annum, to be paid by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, after the ceasing of the pensions contemplated by clause 11 of Part II of this scheme, out of the moneys received by us under the fourteenth section of the City of London Parochial Charities Act, 1883, shall form the endowment or part of the endowment, of the new district which is hereinafter proposed to be constituted or created and such residue of the income of the united benefice shall from time to time be paid by the incumbent of the said united benefice by half-yearly payments to the minister or incumbent of such new district or until such new district shall have been constituted or created to us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners to be accumulated by us towards the endowment of such new district. Provided always that if the full annual sum shall under clause 3 of Part I of this scheme, become payable to a retiring incumbent by way of compensation, then, and in such case, the recom-
