

Cornwall; and in the churchyard, except as follows:—

(a.) In such walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in any such grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such earthen graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the bodies of any members of the family of any of the persons heretofore buried in such graves.

(c.) In the churchyard in any grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the body of any member of the family to which such grave space may be allotted.

(d.) In the churchyard in a grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place the burials may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the body of Mr. J. B. Fortescue and of the bodies of any members of his family.

WIGMORE.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint James, Wigmore, in the county of Hereford; and in the churchyard, except as follows:—

In the walled grave, wherein are interred the remains of the late Mr. Walter Jones, the burial may be allowed of one member of the family of the said Mr. Walter Jones, subject to the condition that the coffin buried in the said grave be separately entombed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

AT the Court at Saint James's, the 26th day of September, 1901.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS by "The Burial Act, 1855," it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the eleventh day of January, one thousand nine hundred, directing the discontinuance of burials, with certain exceptions, in the old churchyard of Hale Magna, in the county of Lincoln:

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the said Order be varied:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Order of the eleventh of January, one thousand nine hundred, be varied by the addition of the following clause to the Article in the said Order relating to burials in the old churchyard of Hale Magna, viz.:—

(c.) That in the grave in which the body of the wife of John Beresford is buried the interment of the said John Beresford be permitted.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Burial Act, 1855," it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council has been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyard hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Order; and whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyard be postponed:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyard be postponed as follows, viz.:—

In the Parish Churchyard of Manston, in the county of York, until the thirty-first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and one.

A. W. FitzRoy.

AT the Court at Saint James's, the 26th day of September, 1901.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Burial Act, 1855," it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the eighth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and one, varying an Order in Council of the third day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, affecting burials in the parish of Wrexham, in the county of Denbigh; and whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the said Order of the eighth August, one thousand nine hundred and one, be varied:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Order of the eighth day of August one thousand nine hundred and one relating to the old part of the new or additional parish churchyard in Ruthin-road, Wrexham, should be varied by substituting for the exception
