Board of Trade.—Session 1902.

Wellingborough Gas.

Application to the Board of Trade by the Wellingborough Gas Light Company, Limited, under the Gas and Waterworks Facilities Act, 1870, for a Provisional Order for Powers to Acquire Additional Lands and to Construct and Maintain Additional Works for the Manufacture and Storage of Gas and Residual Products; Supply of Fittings; Supply of Gas in bulk beyond Limits; Incorporation and Amendment of Acts and other purposes.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to the Board of Trade on or before the 23rd day of December next, by the Wellingborough Gas Light Company, Limited (hereinafter called "the Company") for a Provisional Order under the Gas and Waterworks Facilities Act, 1870, for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

1. To authorize the Company, in addition to the land described in the Wellingborough Gas Order, 1879, and upon which their present gasworks are constructed, to purchase, hold and use the lands next hereinafter described, and thereon to construct and maintain further gasworks, purifiers, mains, pipes, machinery, and other apparatus and works for the manufacture, storage and supply of gas, coke, and other residual products obtained in the manufacture of gas, and to make and store gas and residual products thereon. The land hereinbefore referred to and to be purchased, held and used for the manufacture and storage of gas and residual products is as follows:—

All those two closes of pasture land, containing according to the Ordnance Survey twenty-eight acres one rood and twenty-four perches or thereabouts, situate in the parish of Wellingborough, in the county of Northampton, bounded on or towards the north by Union-road, on or towards the east by the branch line of the Midland Railway to Northampton, on or towards the south by the River Nene, and on or towards the west partly by property belonging or reputed to belong to David Dulley, and partly by other land belonging or reputed to belong to the Trustees of Fisher's Charity Estates.

2. To empower the Company to provide, sell, and let on hire and fix gas engines, dynamos, motors, stoves, ranges, pipes, fittings, apparatus and appliances for lighting, heating, cooking, motive power, and all other purposes whatsoever, and to supply the same with gas, and to exclude the same from liability to distress, or to be taken in execution or in proceedings in bankruptcy.

3. To authorize the Company to supply gas in bulk or otherwise to any local authority, company or person, requiring a supply of gas for any purpose, either within or beyond the limits of the intended Act.

4. To authorize the Company to acquire, hold and use patent rights and licences thereunder.

5. To make provision in regard to the supply and consumption of gas and in regard to matters incidental to the objects of the intended Act, including the following:—The exemption of the Company from liability to supply with gas any person in debt to them; the giving of notices by consumers of their intention to discontinue the supply of gas or to leave premises supplied with gas, the period for which allowances or surcharges shall be made in the event of meters being found defective.

6. To alter, amend, extend, and repeal any provisions of the Wellingborough Gas Orders, 1879, 1890, and 1899, and of any other Act or Acts which would interfere with the objects of the Provisional Order.

7. To vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would interfere with the objects or purposes of the Provisional Order, and to confer other rights and privileges.

8. To incorporate so far as may be necessary or desirable all or some of the provisions of the Gasworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1871, and of the Lands Clauses Acts.

On or before the 30th day of November, 1901, a copy of this Notice, as published in the London Gazette, and a map showing the existing limits of supply, and the lands occupied by the existing gasworks, and also the further lands proposed to be acquired and used for the manufacture and storage of gas, and also showing the present gasworks, will be deposited for public inspection at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Northampton at Northampton, and also at the office of the Board of Trade, Whitehall-gardens.

The draft of the proposed Provisional Order will be deposited at the office of the Board of Trade on or before the 23rd day of December next, and printed copies thereof when deposited and of the Provisional Order when made may be obtained on application at the office of the undersigned Solicitors and Parliamentary Agents, on payment of one shilling for each copy.

Every company, corporation, or person desirous of making any representation to the Board of Trade or of bringing before them any objection respecting the application may do so by letter on paper of foolscap size addressed to the Assistant-Secretary of the Railway Department of the Board of Trade, Whitehall-gardens, London, S.W., on or before the 15th day of January, 1902.

Copies of the objections must at the same time be sent to the undersigned Solicitors or Parliamentary Agents, and in forwarding to the Board of Trade such objections the objectors or their agents should state that a copy of the same has been furnished to the promoters or their agents.

Dated this 10th day of October, 1901.
