6. The Bill may, in lieu of containing provisions for the method, conditions, and scale or basis of the distribution and allotment of the shares, stock, debenture stock, and annuities of the Continuing Company among the shareholders of the Two Companies, provide for the formulation of a scheme or schemes in that behalf to take effect on the approval of the High Court being signified in respect thereof.

7. To define and declare the capital, whether in stock or shares, of the Continuing Company, and the debentures, debenture stock, annuities, or other obligations charged wholly or in part upon the undertaking of that Company.

8. To enable the board of directors of the Continuing Company to create and issue debenture stock, charged wholly or in part upon the undertaking of the Company, or not so charged, to an amount not exceeding two-thirds of the nominal value of the share capital of the Company at the time allotted, or such other amount as the Bill may prescribe or Parliament sanction.

9. To provide for the number and qualification of directors of the Continuing Company, and the amount of the remuneration to be paid to the directors.

10. To provide for the substituted shares, stock, debenture stock, and annuities of the Continuing Company being held subject to the same trusts as the shares, stock, debenture stock, and annuities of the Two Companies for which the same were substituted, and to

13. To alter, vary, or extinguish any existing rights or privileges which would or might impede or interfere with the objects or purposes of the Bill, or which it may be necessary to alter, vary, or extinguish in giving effect thereto, and to confer upon the Company all such powers, rights, and privileges as may be necessary or expedient for effecting the objects aforesaid as fully in all respects as if such objects and powers had been included in and authorised by the present Memoranda, Articles of Association, Rules, and Regulations of the Two Companies or either of them.
