Rome, January 22.

THE French Cardinals seeing they could not bring the Pope to grant his Bulls to all the Bishops nominated by the French King, among whom there are 18 who assisted at the Assembly of the Clergy in 1682. and signed the 4 Propositions, they contented themselves with making Instances in favour of such of them as were not present at the said Assembly, which the Pope at last yielded to, and accordingly in a Publick Consistory, confirmed the Archbishop of Sens, and three other Bishops (who had the Money ready which they are to Pay for their Bulls) after having made a Declaration, for saving the Rights of the Church of Rome, according to what had been agreed on in a Congregation of Cardinals, held about this Matter some days before. On Monday last, the Pope gave Audience to above 100 Persons. The Congregation of the Inquisition has permitted the Sicur Gabrieli to choose what Monastery he likes best for his Retreat, and to dispose of his Place of Clerk of the Chamber, but all his other Benefices are given away.

Venice, Jan. 19. The Count de Muttoni, with several other Officers, are lately arrived here from our Army in the Levant, to make their Recruits against the next Campagne. They left the Captain-General at Napoli di Romania; and the Troops in a good Condition; His Excellency had given out divers Commissions for the making of new Levies in the Morea; and was putting things into such a Posture as might enable him to go early into the Field, and to undertake some considerable Enterprize against the Enemy. There are several Persons in Nomination for the Command of General of our Land Forces, but as yet no body is fixed upon, though it cannot now be long before they come to a Choice. The Infection that lately broke out in Hungary and Dalmatia, being quite ceased, the Senate have thought fit to reduce the Quarantine, to be performed by all Persons coming from thence, to 14 days only. Exeter, Feb. 7. There have fallen in these Parts great quantities of Snow since Wednesday last, which by a strong Wind is so driven into heaps in some places, and has made the Ways so unpassable, that the Mail from Plimouth is not yet arrived here, and divers Travellers are missing and feared to be lost in the Snow. The Baron de Bomgardem, Envoy Extraordinary from the Elector of Bavaria, went hence yesterday Morning towards Plimouth, to Embark there for Spain, but could get no farther than Ashburton. Harwich, Feb. 6. On Thursday last, the Spanish-Princess Pacquet-Boat, who sailed from hence the Sunday before with the Fridays Mail, returned into this Port, having put the said Mail on Shoar at Gorze; but by reason of the abundance of Ice, and the Winds changing and blowing very hard, she could not lye on that Coast, till the Messenger that was sent to the Brill could return with the Holland Mail.
