

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the civil parish of Gravenhurst without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials shall be discontinued therein as follows; viz.:

GRAVENHURST, BEDS.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Giles, Upper Gravenhurst, and in the churchyard.

A. W. FitzRoy.

AT the Court at Saint James's, the 13th day of January, 1902.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Burial Act, 1853," it was enacted that, in case it appeared to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground should be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case might require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, should be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances might require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it should please His Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration, by the Privy Council, should be published in the London Gazette, and should be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation was so considered; provided also that no such representation should be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation should have been given to the Incumbent and vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas by "The Burial Act, 1853," it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas by "The Burial Act, 1900," it was enacted that the powers and duties of the Secretary of State should be transferred to the Local Government Board:

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representation, have made a representation stating that they are of opinion that the opening of any new burial-ground in the civil parish of Lakenheath in the county of West Suffolk, save with their previous approval, should be prohibited, and that the Order of Her late Majesty in Council of the third day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, so far as it relates to Lakenheath, should be varied, so as to read as follows, viz.:

LAKENHEATH.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Mary, Lakenheath; and in the whole of the churchyard, except as follows:—

In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said churchyard burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twenty-fourth day of February next.

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation one month before the said twenty-fourth day of February.

A. W. FitzRoy.

AT the Court at Saint James's, the 13th day of January, 1902.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes of Saint Anne, Catterick, in the county of York; Saint Mary, Farthingstone, in the county of Northampton; Saint Mary, Harlington, in the county of Bedford; Saint George, in the county of Denbigh; and Saint Thomas à Beckett, Sourton, in the county of Devon, ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representations have under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, made representations stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the civil parishes of Catterick, Farthingstone, Harlington, Saint George Denbighshire, and Sourton, without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials should be discontinued therein, as follows, viz.:

CATTERICK.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Anne, Catterick, in the county of York; and in the churchyard, after the thirtieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and two, except as follows:—

In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said churchyard burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

FARTHINGSTONE.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Mary, Farthingstone, in the county of Northampton; and in the churchyard, except as follows:—

(a.) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said churchyard burial may be allowed subject to the condition that
