2. Arithmetic.
3. English Composition, including Orthography.
4. Geography (general).
5. Digesting Returns into Summaries.
6. Copying Manuscript (to test accuracy).

No subjects are obligatory, but no Candidate will be regarded as qualified who fails to obtain such an aggregate number of marks as may indicate in the judgment of the Civil Service Commissioners a competent amount of general proficiency.

V. Application for permission to attend an Examination must be made at such times and in such manner as the Civil Service Commissioners may appoint.

VI. A fee of £1 will be required from each Candidate attending the Examination.

*Civil Service Commission,
March 14, 1902.*

THE Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, viz.:—

SPECIAL REGULATIONS (Supplementary to the General Regulations issued 8th April, 1872, and amended by subsequent Notices in the London Gazette,) respecting Open Competitive Examinations for Clerkships (Class I) in the Civil Service.

1. Candidates must have attained the age of 22 and must not have attained the age of 24 on the first day of the Examination.

2. At the Examinations, exercises will be set in the following subjects only, the maximum of marks for each subject being fixed as follows, viz.:—
