"And we further recommend and propose that the first year in respect of which the said yearly sums of thirty-eight pounds and thirty pounds hereinbefore recommended to be paid to the said Archdeacon of Derby and the said Archdeacon of Nottingham respectively shall be payable shall be the year ending the first day of January in the year one thousand nine hundred and three, and that every payment in respect of the said yearly sums or one or more of them shall be made by us only after we shall have been satisfied that the Archdeacon who applies for the same has during the previous twelve calendar months complied with the conditions as to residence which for the time being are required by law and that he has not collected procurations, synodals, visitation fees or induction fees during the same period.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of June, 1902.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the forty-eighth and forty-ninth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the fifteenth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and two, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the forty-eighth and forty-ninth years of Her said late Majesty chapter fifty-five have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for augmentating the income of the Archdeaconry of Huntingdon in the diocese of Ely.

"Whereas part of the income of the said Archdeaconry of Huntingdon has hitherto been derived from procurations, synodals, visitation fees and induction fees, or some or one of these sources. And it appears to us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners that it is undesirable that fees derived from any of these sources should continue to be received by such Archdeacon as aforesaid and such Archdeacon has discontinued to collect such fees.

"And whereas by reason of such discontinuance the income of such Archdeacon as aforesaid has been diminished and reduced below the yearly sum of two hundred pounds.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the augmentation hereinafter recommended and proposed is required in order to raise the annual income of the said Archdeacon to two hundred pounds.

"Now therefore we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend Alwyne Bishop of Ely (testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the Venerable Francis Gerald Vesey now Archdeacon of the said Archdeaconry of Huntingdon (in testimony whereof he the said Archdeacon has signed and sealed this scheme) humbly recommend and propose that subject as is hereinafter mentioned we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners be authorized to pay by half-yearly payments on the first day of January and the first day of July in every year out of the common fund created by the said Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter one hundred and thirteen to the Archdeacon of the said Archdeaconry of Huntingdon and to his successors in the same Archdeaconry, the yearly sum of twenty-four pounds in addition to the yearly sum of one hundred and seventy-six pounds now payable by us to the Archdeacon for the time being of the same Archdeaconry.

"And we further recommend and propose that the first year in respect of which the said yearly sum of twenty-four pounds hereinbefore recommended to be paid to the said Archdeacon of Huntingdon shall be payable shall be the year ending the first day of January in the year one thousand nine hundred and three, and that every payment in respect of the said yearly sum shall be made by us only after we shall have been satisfied that the Archdeacon who applies for the same has during the previous twelve calendar months complied with the conditions as to residence which for the time being are required by law and that he has not collected procurations, synodals, visitation fees or induction fees during the same period.

"And we further recommend and propose that whenever any Archdeacon who may be entitled to receive the said yearly sum of twenty-four pounds hereinbefore recommended to be paid to the said Archdeacon of Huntingdon shall resign or otherwise avoid his Archdeaconry, such yearly sum shall be apportionable between such Archdeacon or his representatives (as the case may be) and the Archdeacon who shall next be collated to the same Archdeaconry.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or either of them or any other Act of Parliament."
