ORDER OF THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE.

(DATED 1ST JULY 1902.)

SOUTH-WEST WALES (MUZZLING AND CONTROL OF DOGS) ORDER OF 1902.

The Board of Agriculture, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 and 1896, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:

Extent and Enforcement.

1. This Order applies to and shall be in force in the district described in the first schedule to this Order (in this Order referred to as the scheduled district), and shall be enforced by the Local Authority.

Movement of dogs out of scheduled district prohibited.

2. No dog shall be moved out of the scheduled district, but this Article shall not apply to the movement of a dog through the scheduled district by railway from a place outside the said district to another place outside the said district without unnecessary delay and without being rebooked within the scheduled district.

Control of dogs in public places.

3.—(1.) A dog in or on any public place in the scheduled district shall at all times be efficiently muzzled with an effective wire cage muzzle and shall also, between sunset and sunrise, be led by a person with a collar and chain or other attachment.

(2.) The provisions of this Article shall not apply to any dog confined in a suitable hamper, crate, box, or other receptacle, so constructed as to render it impossible for such dog while so confined to bite any person or animal.

Control of dogs not in public places.

4. A dog on any premises in the scheduled district, not being a public place, shall, subject as hereinafter mentioned, be kept under control by being—

- (i.) confined in a kennel or other enclosure from which the dog cannot escape; or
- (ii.) secured to some premises by a collar and chain; or
- (iii.) efficiently muzzled with an effective wire cage muzzle, and also led by a person with a collar and chain or other attachment;

Provided that, between sunrise and sunset, it shall be sufficient if the dog while on any premises, not being a public place, is either muzzled or led as above mentioned.

Temporary provision as to part of scheduled district.

5. Until the ninth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and two (including that day) a dog in that part of the scheduled district which is described in Part II of the first schedule to this Order need not be muzzled if it is led by a person with a collar and chain or other attachment.

Seizure, detention, and disposal of unmuzzled dogs.

6.—(1.) Any dog found in or on any public place, which is not muzzled or is not led in manner prescribed by this Order, may be seized by the Local Authority or by the police and any dog so seized shall be dealt with by the Local Authority as follows:

- (i.) If the dog is diseased or suspected or has been bitten by a diseased or suspected dog it shall be forthwith slaughtered.
- (ii.) If the dog has been exposed to the infection of rabies it shall be detained, slaughtered, or otherwise dealt with as the Local Authority think expedient, but so that the dog shall not, while detained by the Local Authority, be allowed to come in contact with any other animal.
- (iii.) In any other case the dog shall be detained in some proper place and be there kept for such period as the Local Authority think expedient: Provided that where the person having charge of or the owner of a dog so detained is known, the Local Authority shall cause notice to be forthwith given to such person or owner of the fact of the dog having been so seized and detained, and the dog shall, without prejudice to the recovery of any penalty for the infringement of this Order, be given up to such person or owner on payment of the reasonable expenses incurred in respect of such detention. If the dog so seized and detained has not been claimed by such person or owner within three days after the seizure, or, where such person or owner is known, within two days after the aforesaid notice has been given, the Local Authority may cause the dog to be slaughtered or otherwise disposed of in such manner as the Local Authority deem expedient.

(2.) Every dog shall for the purposes of this Article be deemed to have been exposed to the infection of rabies which has been in the same shed, stable, building, kennel, field, or other place or otherwise in contact with any diseased or suspected dog, or which has in any other way been exposed to the infection of rabies.

General provisions of the Rabies Order of 1897.

7. Subject to the provisions of this Order, all the provisions of the Rabies Order of 1897 shall, so far as the same are applicable, continue to apply, during the continuance of this Order, to the scheduled district.

Offences.

8.—(1.) If a dog is moved in contravention of this Order, the owner of the dog, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the movement, and the person moving or conveying the dog, and the consignee or other person receiving or keeping it, knowing it to have been moved in contravention as aforesaid, and the occupier of the place from which the dog is moved, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(2.) If any dog is not kept under control in manner prescribed by this Order the owner of the dog and the person for the time being in charge thereof, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(3.) If any dog found in or on any public place is not muzzled or is not led in manner prescribed by this Order, the owner of the dog, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person allowing the same to be in or on such public place in contravention of this Order, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

Interpretation.

9. In this Order—

“The Act of 1894” means the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

“Disease” means rabies, “diseased” means affected with rabies, and “suspected” means suspected of rabies:

“Public place” includes any street, highway, thoroughfare, public bridge, royal park, public park garden or pleasure ground, common, uninclosed land, or other place to which the public have for the time being access:

Other terms have the same meaning as in the Rabies Order of 1897.

Existing muzzling regulations of Local Authority.

10. All Regulations made under any Order of the Board by the Local Authority which provide for the muzzling of dogs in any part of the scheduled district, and are in force immediately before the date of this Order, shall, as regards the scheduled district, be suspended and cease to apply so long as this Order applies thereto.

Revocation of Orders superseded.

11. The restrictions imposed by this Order are substituted for those imposed by the Orders described in the second schedule to this Order, and such Orders are accordingly hereby revoked: Provided that such revocation shall not invalidate or make unlawful anything done under any of those Orders before the date of this Order, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, any of the Orders hereby revoked before the date of this Order.

Short Title.

12. This Order may be cited as the SOUTH-WEST WALES (MUZZLING AND CONTROL OF DOGS) ORDER OF 1902.

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture have hereunto set their Official Seal this first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and two.

T. H. Elliott,
Secretary.

East Dudgeon and Emerson Knolls—Depth on, Buoy moved.

With reference to Notice to Mariners No. 320 of 1902:—

Information, dated 12th June, 1902, has been received from the Trinity House, London, that a depth of 4 fathoms, low water springs, exists about 6 cables to the northward of Emerson knoll, from which Dudgeon light-vessel bears S. 30° W., distant $4\frac{1}{2}$ miles.

Approximate position, lat. $53^{\circ} 18\frac{1}{2}'$ N., long. $0^{\circ} 58\frac{1}{2}'$ E.

Also, that from soundings recently obtained there is now a depth of 29 feet over Emerson knoll.

Consequent on these alterations the East Dudgeon bell buoy, painted black and surmounted by a ball, has been shifted to a position in a depth of 51 feet at a distance of 4 cables S. 73° E. from the 4-fathom patch.

These shoals will in future be called East Dudgeon shoals, and the name Emerson knoll will be erased from the Chart.

Mr. Justice Swinfen Eady.

1902. L. No. 044.

In the Matter of the LEAMINGTON AND WARWICK ELECTRICAL COMPANY LIMITED, and in the Matter of the Companies (Memorandum of Association) Act, 1890.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition presented to His Majesty's High Court of Justice on the 23rd day of April, 1902, for confirming a Special Resolution of the Company passed on the 22nd day of January, 1902, and confirmed on the 12th day of February, 1902. That the Memorandum of Association of the Company be altered by including among the objects for which the Company is established the following to be inserted between the objects now lettered C and D in the Company's Memorandum of Association, and that Clause 3 of the Memorandum of Association be relettered accordingly, namely:

(d.) "To carry on the business of electrical engineers, electricians, engineers and contractors, manufacturers of electrical apparatus, and mechanical and chemical engineers, and of generating, producing, and supplying light, heat, sound, and power by electricity, galvanism, magnetism or otherwise, suppliers of electricity, whether for the purpose of light, heat, motive power, telephonic or other purposes, and generally to provide, work, maintain and carry out all necessary cables, wires, accumulators, lamps, exchanges, telephones and apparatus connected with the generation and distribution, supplying, accumulation, and employment of electricity.

(e.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above.

(f.) To buy, sell, manufacture, deal in, turn to account plant, machinery, implements, conveniences, provisions, articles, and products capable of being used in connection with the operations of or required by workmen and others employed by the Company, or incidentally or conveniently connected with any such business as aforesaid.

(g.) To take a transfer of the Undertaking of the Warwick Electric Lighting Order, 1901, subject to the consent of and upon such terms and conditions as may be approved by the Board of Trade, and to undertake the rights, powers, authorities, obligations, and liabilities thereunder, and subject to the provisions of the Order to become the Undertakers in lieu of the Company to which that Order is granted.

(h.) To raise or borrow money for the purposes of the Company, either permanently or temporarily.

(i.) To create and issue at par, or at a premium, or discount, mortgages, mortgage debentures, debenture stock, bonds, notes, or debentures, charged upon all or any part of the Undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property, estate, assets and effects of the Company, present or future (including uncalled capital), and payable either to bearer or registered holder and either redeemable, with or without a bonus or permanent, and generally upon such terms and conditions and with such power of sale and of appointment of receivers or otherwise as the Directors may determine and to further secure payment of any moneys by a trust deed or otherwise as the Directors may think fit.

(j.) To distribute among the members in specie by way of dividend or bonus or upon a return of capital any property of the Company or any proceeds of sale or disposal of any property of the Company but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law," is directed to be heard before his Lordship Mr. Justice Farwell at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, on Saturday, the 12th day of July, 1902. Any creditor, shareholder, or debenture holder of the Company desiring to oppose the making of an Order altering the provisions of the Memorandum of Association of the said Company under the above Act should appear at the time of hearing by himself or his Counsel for that purpose. And a copy of the petition will be furnished to any creditor, shareholder, or debenture holder of the Company requiring the same, by the undersigned, on payment of the regulated charges for the same.—Dated this 25th day of June, 1902.

J. BLAKEY, Check Officer,
National Debt Office, June 30, 1902.

G. HERVEY,
Comptroller-General.

COUNTY OF DEVON.

NOTICE is hereby given that the County Council of the County of Devon have under and by virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the Locomotives Act, 1898, made a Bye-law repealing the Bye-law for preventing the use of Locomotives upon certain bridges, made by the Council on the 17th September, 1896, so far as it relates to Charleton Drawbridge, in the parishes of Charleton and Kingsbridge and Dodbrooke. And notice is hereby further given that for the period of one calendar month from and after the date hereof a copy of such Bye-law will be kept at the office of the County Council, in the Castle of Exeter, and for the said period will be open during office hours to the inspection of the rate-payers of the county without fee or reward. And that it is the intention of the said County Council on and after the expiration of the said period to apply to the Local Government Board for confirmation of such Bye-law.

H. MICHELMORE, Clerk of the Council.

JOHN SMITH, Inspector-General in Companies Liquidation.

In the High Court of Justice, in Bankruptcy.

In the Matter of a Bankruptcy Notice, dated the 5th day of June, 1902.

To ROLAND HASTINGS, a member of the firm of J. Mansfield and Co., lately carrying on business at Brook House, Waltham, in the city of London, Stock and Share Dealers, and lately residing at 120, Great Portland-street, in the county of London, but whose present residence the Judgment Creditor is unable to ascertain.

TAKE notice, that a Bankruptcy Notice has been issued against you in this Court at the instance of John A. Nicholson, of 5, Henry-street, Dublin, and the Court has ordered that the publication of this Notice in the London Gazette and in the Daily Telegraph Newspaper shall be deemed to be service of the Bankruptcy Notice upon you. The Bankruptcy Notice can be inspected by you on application at this Court.—Dated 5th day of June, 1902.

H. S. GIFFARD, Registrar.

SPYER and SONS, 53, New Broad-street, E.C., Solicitors.

THE estates of J. D. CLARK AND COMPANY Watch Factors, Dundee, and JOHN DOUGLAS CLARK, Watch Factor, residing at 67, Seagate, Dundee, as the sole partner of the said firm of J. D. Clark and Company, and as an individual were sequestrated on the 27th day of June, 1902, by the Sheriff Substitute of the county of Forfar at Dundee; and the said Sheriff Substitute has nominated and appointed William Brodie Galbraith, Chartered Accountant, Glasgow, as Judicial Factor on the said sequestrated estates of J. D. Clark and Company and John Douglas Clark until the Trustee shall be confirmed thereon, with all the powers necessary for the interim preservation of the said estates.

The first deliverance is dated the 27th day of June, 1902.

The meeting to elect the Trustees and Commissioners is to be held at 12 o'clock noon on Tuesday, the 8th day of July next within the Royal Hotel, Nethergate, Dundee.

A composition may be offered at this latter meeting; and to entitle creditors to the first dividend, their oaths and grounds of debt must be lodged on or before the 27th day of October, 1902.

All future advertisements relating to this sequestration will be published in the Edinburgh Gazette alone.

GEO. BRODIE PAUL, Agent, Royal Bank-buildings, 4, High-street, Dundee.
