Le conseil sanitaire de la Colonie a pris, à dater du 1er juin dernier, les mesures sanitaires dont suit l'énoncé:

1° Vis-à-vis de Majunga.

Pendant toute la durée de l'épidémie de peste: désinfection des marchandises, prohibition de celles non désinfectables comme les riz, désinfection du bateau et cinq jours de quarantaine. Ces opérations peuvent être effectuées à Majunga ou dans tout autre port à lazaret.

Après disparition de l'épidémie, lorsque les patentes seront nettes et que l'état sanitaire aura été bon pendant la traversée: désinfection des marchandises susceptibles, prohibition de celles non désinfectables, libre pratique des passagers. Lorsque l'état sanitaire pendant la traversée aura été suspect, désinfection du bateau et cinq jours de quarantaine.

2° Vis-à-vis de l'Inde, de Maurice, de l'Egypte et des pays soupçonnés de peste.

Dans le cas de patente nette, avec état sanitaire bon pendant la traversée: désinfection des marchandises susceptibles, prohibition de celles qui ne peuvent être désinfectées, libre pratique des passagers.

Dans le cas de patente brute ou de patente nette, avec état sanitaire suspect: cinq jours de quarantaine, désinfection de toutes les marchandises et prohibition de celles qui ne peuvent être désinfectées, désinfection du bateau.

Lorsque le navire arrivant avec patente brute a, depuis plus de douze jours, quitté la circonscription contaminée, qu'il possède un médecin sanitaire maritime et une étuve à désinfection à bord et, enfin, si le médecin certifie que les mesures de désinfection et d'assainissement ont été pratiquées pendant la traversée, l'agent principal de la santé pourra accorder la libre pratique des passagers et autoriser le débarquement des marchandises désinfectées.

3° Vis-à-vis de Zanzibar, Durban et des autres ports qui communiquent librement avec des pays pestueux.

Dans le cas de patente nette, avec état sanitaire bon: libre pratique des passagers, désinfection des marchandises susceptibles et prohibition de celles qui ne peuvent être désinfectées.

Dans le cas d'état sanitaire suspect: mêmes mesures que pour les pays pestueux, patente brute.

Prohibition de ces denrées, libre pratique pour tous les autres produits et pour les passagers.

Désinfection des marchandises susceptibles ayant séjourné pendant l'épidémie, prohibition de celles qui ne peuvent être désinfectées.

6° Vis-à-vis des pays où règne le choléra.

Dans le cas de patente nette, avec état sanitaire bon pendant la traversée: désinfection des marchandises susceptibles, libre pratique des passagers.

Dans le cas de patente brute ou de patente nette, avec état sanitaire suspect pendant la traversée: désinfection des marchandises susceptibles et du bateau, sept jours de quarantaine.

7° Vis-à-vis du Sénégal et des pays soupçonnés de fièvre jaune.

Dans le cas de patente nette, avec état sanitaire bon pendant la traversée: désinfection des marchandises susceptibles provenant du Sénégal, libre pratique des passagers.

8° Vis-à-vis du Cap et des pays où règne la peste bovine.

Interdiction du bétail, des moutons, des peaux, des fourrages, etc.

NOTE.—Les marchandises prohibées doivent être placées dans un local spécial du bord soumis à l'examen de l'autorité sanitaire et placés dans des conditions parfaites d'isolement et de fermeture.

Dans le cas contraire, elles doivent être transbordées sur un chaland ou un ponton mis à la disposition du service sanitaire par la direction du port, isolé et portant le pavillon quarantenaire.

Dans tous les ports secondaires, c'est-à-dire ceux autres que Majunga, Diego-Suarez et Tamatave, les bateaux infectés ou suspects ne peuvent être admis en libre pratique qu'après avoir été reçus dans un port à lazaret et y avoir subi toutes les mesures de quarantaine et de désinfection réglementaires.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 485 of the year 1902.)

ENGLAND—SOUTH COAST.

SPITHEAD.

Regulations in connection with Review of the Fleet on 16th August, 1902.

The Naval Commander-in-Chief at Portsmouth has, on behalf of the Admiralty, issued the following regulations to be observed by all vessels at Spithead, and its vicinity, on the occasion of the Review of the Fleet, to be held on 16th August, 1902:—

1. In order to reduce as far as possible the chances of collision, Directors of Steamship Companies, Owners of Steam Vessels, Yachts, &c., are earnestly requested to give directions to the Masters of their ships to follow closely the instructions herein laid down, and to pay implicit attention to the requests of the Officers of the patrol Tugs and Boats, who will be specially charged with the duty of keeping clear the Review ground.

In the crowded condition of Spithead, navigation must be conducted with the greatest caution, and sailing vessels and small craft must remember that large steamships will not always be able to give way to them.

2. All steam vessels present are requested to burn the best Welsh coal, so that smoke may not obstruct the view of the Fleet nor cause danger of collision. Vessels neglecting to follow this rule will be removed to a distance.

3. On the days preceding the Review, and on the Review day, previous to the hour fixed for the Review, and subsequently as may be permissible, private steam vessels, steam yachts, and sailing vessels are to be permitted to pass between the columns under the following regulations:—

(See plan of the position of the Fleet, published by the Admiralty, to be had of all sellers of Admiralty Charts.)

a. The course of vessels through the different columns of ships-of-war is to be as follows:—

Between lines B and C, by small vessels only, proceeding westward.

Between lines C and D, by all vessels proceeding eastward.

Between lines D and E, by all vessels proceeding westward.

Between lines E and F, by all vessels proceeding eastward.

South of line F will be left for general traffic, which must follow the rule of the road, i.e., keeping to their own starboard side of the channel, except between 6 A.M. on the day fixed for the Review and 4 A.M. on the following day, when this water is to be used for vessels proceeding to the westward only.

The number of vessels anchored at Spithead south of the lines of the ships-of-war on the night of the Review day will make it very dangerous for mail steamers to attempt to pass to and from Southampton by the eastern route, and the Needles channel should be used in consequence.

b. The speed of steam vessels when within the columns is to be limited to 7 knots.

c. Whilst between the columns, vessels are not to pass one another, and no vessel is to stop unless to avoid collision.

d. Should the strength of the wind or other circumstances render it undesirable that long ships should pass through the columns, the ships-of-war at the eastern and western ends will hoist a blue ensign at one of the mast heads.

which will indicate that no ship over 400 feet in length is to pass through the columns, and any such ship must then pass south of Ryde Middle.

Should the ship be dressed, the blue ensign will take the place of one of the white ensigns ordinarily displayed.

4. While the Fleet is at Spithead, all vessels within the limits of the Port when altering course or stopping are to make use of the sound signals mentioned in clause 28 of the Regulations for the Prevention of Collisions, viz.:—

When altering course to starboard, one short blast.

When altering course to port, two short blasts.

When engines are going astern, three short blasts.

5. After 30m. past noon on the Review day (on a signal gun being fired from H.M.S. Royal Sovereign) no private steam vessel is to enter the Review ground, and all vessels and boats are to be clear of the lines by 1h. 30m. p.m.

6. The Review ground is to be considered to be the space not otherwise allotted for merchant and private ships' anchorage. See Special Chart.

Vessels are on no account to encroach to the eastward of the line appointed for anchorage of large steamships north of Ryde Middle. This will be very strictly enforced.

7. The approaches to the Review ground from Cowes south of Ryde Middle, and from the south-eastward, and also Portsmouth Harbour channel, are to be kept clear of vessels and boats, and no vessel under any circumstances is to anchor in these approaches.

8. The anchorage reserved for large merchant steamers (except those to which numbered berths are assigned) will be to the northward of Ryde Middle, extending east to the limit shown by the line on the published plan. Vessels anchoring in the eastern part of this area will anchor in one of the positions marked on the Special Chart, and in no other.

9. Small vessels must anchor upon or close to the Mother Bank, Ryde Middle, Horse and Dean Sands, or in Stokes Bay, except on the Horse Sand in places assigned to vessels on special list. See Special Chart.

10. During the time the King is reviewing the Fleet, no steam vessel, sailing vessel, or boat will be permitted to cross the line of the ships-of-war, nor pass between the columns, nor follow the procession of Royal Yachts.

11. When the Review is over, which will be indicated by a gun fired by each of the Flagships some time after His Majesty's Yacht has anchored, steam vessels will be again permitted to pass through the columns in the same direction as before, but must return to their prescribed anchorages by 8.30 p.m., in time to witness the illuminations, and in order to avoid the danger from the salutes of the Fleet.

12. Between 9 p.m. on the Review day and 3 a.m. of the next day no vessel is to be under way in the Review Ground with the following exception:—

Vessels of not more than 200 feet in length will be permitted to pass between the columns when the ships are illuminated in the directions prescribed in paragraph 3. All such ships must, however, be clear of the lines between 11 p.m. and midnight. During that period there will be first an interval of darkness, and later a salute, both of which may make navigation dangerous.

13. While the Fleet is at Spithead, the Torpedo Boat Destroyers occupying berths immediately east and west of the night leading line through the Swashway will, from sunset to sunrise, exhibit two fixed white lights vertically, to indicate the passage.

14. Great caution must be observed by the smaller steam vessels and sailing craft entering the main channel to Portsmouth harbour from the Swashway.

15. Masters of vessels under way after sunset are reminded of the necessity of having in readiness a lantern to wave at the stern to an overtaking ship.

16. Masters of vessels are reminded that, for some time before the Review, a large number of buoys marking the position of ships' berths will be laid down between the Isle of Wight and the mainland, which are to be carefully avoided.

NOTE.—Nothing in this Notice is to be construed as absolving vessels from closely observing the provisions of the "Regulations for Preventing Collisions at Sea."

CAUTION.—Merchant and other private vessels are cautioned that if these regulations, especially those regarding speed between the lines, are not observed, it may be necessary for the safety of boats to exclude such vessels from the Review ground altogether.

By Command of their Lordships,

W. J. L. WHARTON,

Hydrographer.
