*Foreign Office,
November 14, 1902.*

It is hereby notified that His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs received a despatch, dated the 11th July last, from His Majesty's Minister at Carácas, transmitting a Decree of the Venezuelan Government, which appeared in the Official Gazette of the 28th June, and was formally communicated to him on the following day. This Decree prohibited the navigation of the waters of the Orinoco, and declared the line of coast which embraces its mouths blockaded, and the ports of Guiria and Caño Colorado closed to commerce and navigation. The port of La Vela de Coro was also declared to be blockaded.

His Majesty's Minister subsequently reported that, by a later Decree which appeared in the Official Gazette of the 19th July, the port of Carupano was included in the above blockade. This Decree was, however, revoked by a third Decree, dated the 23rd August.

His Majesty's Government have ascertained from the reports of His Majesty's Minister at Carácas, from those of the Senior Naval Officer of His Majesty in those waters, and from other trustworthy sources, that no effective blockade of the stretch of coast and ports comprised in the Decrees of the 28th June and the 19th July is, or has ever been, maintained. It is, therefore, further notified that the blockade so declared is held by His Majesty's Government to be, and to have been, ab initio, null and of no effect.

No. 00269 of 1902.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1893, and in the Matter of the CELVICOL COMPANY Limited.

BY an Order made by Mr. Justice Byrne in the above matter, dated the 28th day of October, 1902, on the petition of Arthur Bergtheil, Henry Wilson Young, Edward Bergtheil, and Robert Ord Ritchie, trading as Bergtheil and Young, of No. 12, Camomile-street, in the city of London, Electrical Engineers and Contractors, it was ordered that the voluntary winding up of the said Celvicol Company Limited be continued, but subject to the supervision of the Court, and any of the proceedings under the said voluntary winding up might be adopted as the Court should think fit. And it was directed that the Liquidator, Arthur Henry Caesar, appointed in the voluntary winding up, might exercise all the powers conferred upon him by the above Statutes without the sanction or intervention of the Court, in the same manner as if the Company were being wound up altogether voluntarily, subject, until further Order, to the restrictions thereafter imposed upon him, that was to say:—(a) The said Liquidator should not without the sanction of a majority of the following persons:—Edward Bergtheil, George Oppenheimer, D. Gulland, Ernest Walter Finch, and D. W. R. Green, being the persons nominated by the creditors and shareholders of the said Company to act as a committee, or of the Court, carry on the business of the Company, or bring or defend any legal proceeding, or exercise any of the powers conferred by section 159, or section 160 of the Companies Act, 1862. (b) The said Liquidator should not without the sanction of a majority of the aforesaid persons, or of the Court, sell or enter into any contract for the sale of the Company's business. (c) The said Liquidator, except in cases of urgency, should not without the sanction of a majority of the aforesaid persons, or of the Court, employ a Solicitor or other agent to take any proceedings or do any business which the Liquidator was unable to take or do himself. And the Liquidator was to be at liberty to pay out of the assets of the said Company the actual out-of-pocket expenses necessarily incurred by the aforesaid persons, acting as aforesaid, subject to the approval of the Court; and it was ordered that the said Liquidator should in every three months file with the Registrar Companies (Winding-up) a report, in writing, as to the position of and the progress made with the winding up of the said Company, and with the realization of the assets thereof, and as to any other matters connected with the winding up as the Court might from time to time direct, the first of such reports to be filed on the 28th January, 1903; and it was ordered that no bills of costs, charges or expenses, or special remuneration of any Solicitor employed by the Liquidator, or any remuneration charges or expenses of the Liquidator, or of any manager, accountant, auctioneer, broker, or other person, be paid out of the assets of the said Company, unless such costs, charges, expenses or remuneration should have been taxed or allowed by the Registrar Companies (Winding-up); and it was ordered that all such costs, charges, expenses, and remuneration be taxed and ascertained accordingly; and it was ordered that the costs of the petitioners of the said Company and of the said creditors supporting this Order of the said petition be taxed and paid out of the assets of the said Company, but on such taxation only one set of costs was to be allowed between the said Company and the Arc Engraving Company Limited, and 31 other creditors; liberty to apply in the event of any of the aforesaid members of the said Committee dying or retiring; and the creditors, contributories, and Liquidator of the said Company, and all other persons interested, were to be at liberty to apply as there might be occasion. And the time for the advertisement of this Order in the London Gazette was thereby extended to the 14th November, 1902.—Dated this 12th day of November, 1902.
