

Damage to Car.

7. No person shall wilfully cut, tear, soil, or damage the cushions or the linings, or remove or deface any number plate printed or other notice, in or on any car, or break or scratch any window of, or otherwise wilfully damage any car.

Any person acting in contravention of this Bye-law shall, in addition to the penalty prescribed by these Bye-laws, be liable to pay the amount of any damage so done.

Objectionable Persons.

8. No person whose dress or clothing might, in the opinion of the conductor of a car, soil or injure the linings or cushions of the car, or the dress or clothing of any passenger, nor any person who, in the opinion of the conductor, might for any other reason be offensive to any passenger, shall be entitled to enter or remain in or upon any car, and may be prevented from entering or remaining in or upon any car.

No such person shall enter in or upon any car after having been requested not to do so by the conductor, and if any such person be found in or upon any car, he shall, on the request of the conductor, leave such car upon the fare, if previously paid, being returned.

Payment of Fares.

9. Each passenger shall, upon demand, pay to the conductor or other servant of the Tramways Committee acting in the performance of his duty, the fare legally demandable for the journey, or for the stage thereof for which it be demanded.

Tickets.

10. Each passenger shall, as and when requested so to do, show his ticket to the conductor or other servant of the Tramways Committee acting in the performance of his duty, and shall also, when requested so to do by the conductor or other servant of the Tramways Committee acting in the performance of his duty, deliver up his ticket or pay the fare legally demandable for the distance travelled over by such passenger.

Luggage.

11. No passenger shall bring on to any car any luggage other than his own personal luggage, and any such personal luggage shall be placed by the passenger in such position on the car as shall be directed by the conductor.

Travelling on Steps, &c.

12. No person other than the driver or the conductor of a car, or a servant of the Tramways Committee acting in the performance of his duty, shall travel or ride upon the steps, platforms, outside rails, buffers, or guards of any car, or shall stand in any case on the outside, or, except by the express permission of the conductor first obtained, in the interior of any car.

No person, except a passenger or intending passenger, shall board a car, and no person shall hold or hang on by or to any part of a car.

Full Number of Passengers.

13. When any car contains in the interior thereof the full number of passengers for which seating accommodation, according to the notice thereof attached to the car, is provided in such interior, no person beyond such number shall enter, mount, or remain therein, except by the express permission of the conductor first obtained.

When any car contains on the outside thereof the full number of passengers for which seating accommodation, according to the notice thereof attached to the car, is provided on such outside, no person beyond such number shall enter, mount, or remain thereon.

Entering or Leaving a Car in Motion.

14. No person shall enter, mount, or leave, or attempt to enter, mount, or leave, any car whilst in motion.

Dogs.

15. No dog or other animal shall be allowed in or on any car, except by the permission of the conductor, nor in any case in which the conveyance of such dog or other animal might be offensive or an annoyance to passengers. No person shall take a dog or other animal into any car after having been requested not to do so by the conductor. Any dog or other animal taken into or on any car shall be removed by the person in charge of such dog or other animal from the car immediately upon request by the conductor, and in default of compliance with such request, may be removed by, or under the direction of, the conductor.

Firearms, &c.

16. No person shall travel in or on any car with loaded firearms, or with any article, instrument, or implement or any material or substance which may be dangerous or offensive to the passengers.

Interference with Driver or Conductor.

17. No person other than the conductor or driver, or other servant of the Tramways Committee acting in the performance of his duty, shall change or remove the route indicators or destination boards, or interfere with the controller, brakes, lights, ventilators, trolley cord, or any part of a car, or its equipment, and no person other than the conductor, or other servant of the Tramways Committee acting in the performance of his duty shall signal a car to start.

Obstruction.

18. No person shall wilfully obstruct or impede any conductor, driver, or other servant of the Tramways Committee acting in the performance of his duty upon or in connection with any car or tramway.

Conductors and Drivers to enforce Bye-laws.

19. Every conductor and driver of a car shall, to the best of his ability, enforce these Bye-laws, and prevent the breach thereof.

Penalty.

20. Any person offending against, or committing a breach of, any of the Bye-laws, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings.

Repeal of Existing Bye-laws.

21. From and after the date of these Bye-laws coming into force, the Rules and Regulations made by the Corporation on the 8th day of October, 1895, shall be repealed.

Operation.

22. These Bye-laws shall come into force on the 15th day of April, 1903.

The Common Seal of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the County Borough of Newport was hereunto affixed in pursuance of a Resolution duly passed at a meeting of the Council held this 10th day of February, 1903.

ALBERT A. NEWMAN, Town Clerk.

Town Hall, Newport,
20th February, 1903.
