At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of March, 1903.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and three, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Columba, Middlesbrough, situate in the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of All Saints, Middlesbrough, in the county of York and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Columba, Middlesbrough, situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William Dalrymple, Archbishop of York (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of All Saints, Middlesbrough, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Columba Middlesbrough situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Columba, Middlesbrough.' And with the like consent of the said William Dalrymple, Archbishop of York (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Columba Middlesbrough situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Columba, Middlesbrough, being:—

"All that part of the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of All Saints Middlesbrough in the county of York and in the diocese of York, which is bounded upon the west by the new parish of Saint Paul Middlesbrough upon the north by the parish of (Saint Hilda) Middlesbrough upon the east by the new parish of Saint John the Evangelist Middlesbrough all in the said county and diocese and upon the remaining side that is to say upon the south by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist Middlesbrough from the said new parish of All Saints Middlesbrough at the junction of Linthorpe-road with Corporation-road and with Newport-road and extending thence westward along the middle of Newport-road for a distance of fourteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Brentnall-street and with Boundary-road upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of All Saints Middlesbrough from the said new parish of Saint Paul, Middlesbrough."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of York.
