

pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of March, 1903.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the twenty-eighth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and three, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by an Order in Council of Her late Majesty bearing date the 12th December 1883 regulations were established for the grant from the funds of Greenwich Hospital of Pensions to Widows and Allowances to Children of Seamen, Marines and other Seafaring Persons who have been killed or drowned on duty in the service of the Crown or who have died from the effects of injuries or diseases caused by accident, extraordinary exposure, or exertion on service:

"And whereas it is among other things directed that in cases of death from the effects of such injuries or diseases Pensions and Allowances can only be granted when it is proved to the satisfaction of the Admiralty that the men have died within twelve months after being first certified to be ill:

"And whereas we consider it desirable to extend this period from twelve months to two years:

"We beg leave to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the amendment of the regulations accordingly, such amendment to be applicable to the cases of men who have died since the 11th October 1899."

And whereas the provisions of section one of The Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of March, 1903.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS MAJESTY was this day pleased by and with the advice of His Privy Council, in pursuance of the provisions contained in the twenty-first and twenty-second Victoria, chapter ninety, and the forty-ninth and fiftieth Victoria, chapter forty-eight, to nominate Charles Sissmore Tomes, Esquire, F.R.S., F.R.C.S., L.D.S., to be, for five years from the expiry of his present term of office, a Member of the General Council of Medical Education and Registration of the United Kingdom.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of March, 1903.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section sixteen of the Elementary Education Act, 1876, it is enacted as follows :—

"It shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time, by Order in Council, to apply to a certified day industrial school the provisions of the Industrial Schools Act, 1866, and the Acts amending the same, with such modifications as appear to Her Majesty to be necessary or proper for adapting such provisions to a day industrial school, and bringing them into conformity with this Act. * * * * *

"It shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time, by Order in Council, to revoke and vary any Order in Council made under this section.

"Every such Order shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within one month after it is made, if Parliament be then sitting, or if not, within one month after the beginning of the then next session of Parliament, and while in force shall have effect as if it were enacted in this Act."

And whereas subsection nine of section three of the Day Industrial Schools (Scotland) Act, 1893, contains similar enactments with respect to Scotland.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the above-mentioned Acts, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, to order that the following provisions, being modified provisions of the Industrial Schools Act, 1866, and of Acts amending the same, shall apply to certified day industrial schools.

Extent of Order.

1. This Order shall not apply to Ireland.

Provisions as to Orders of Detention, Attendance Orders, Contributions of Parents, &c.

2. Whereas it is enacted by section sixteen of the Elementary Education Act, 1876, as follows :—

"Where a Court of summary jurisdiction orders otherwise than by an attendance order under this Act a child to be sent to a certified day industrial school, the court shall also order the parent of such child, if liable to maintain him, to contribute to his industrial training, elementary education, and meals in the school such sum not exceeding two shillings per week as is named in the order; it shall be the duty of the local authority to obtain and enforce the said order, and every sum paid under the order shall be paid over to the local authority in aid of their expenses under this Act."

And whereas by section three of the Day Industrial Schools (Scotland) Act, 1893, it is enacted that :—

"(7.) Where a court of summary jurisdiction orders a child to be sent to a certified day industrial school, the Court shall also order the parent of such child, if liable to maintain him, to contribute to his industrial training, elementary education, and meals in the school such sum not exceeding two shillings per week as is named in the order; it shall be the duty of the School Board to obtain and enforce the said order, and every sum paid under the order shall be paid into the school fund."

And whereas by section six of the Youthful Offenders Act, 1901, it is enacted that :—

"(1.) Where a court of summary jurisdiction makes an order that a child or young person be sent to a certified reformatory or industrial
