E. W. WALKER, Master.

PURSUANT to an Order of the High Court of Justice, Chancery Division, dated the 12th day of December, 1902, made in an action "in the Matter of the estate of Thomas Bell, late of Halstead, in the county of Essex, Gentleman, deceased, TYLER v. NOWAKOWSKI, 1902, B. No. 2324," whereby the following enquiry was directed, viz.:—"An enquiry what children of the testator's six brothers, Jonah Bell, Eversden Bell, Joshua Bell, Edward Bell, Robert Bell, and William Bell were living at the decease of the testator's son, Thomas Bell, and which of such children have since died, and who were the legal personal representatives of such of the same children as have died." The children of testator's brother, Joshua Bell, if living, or the legal personal representatives of such of them as survived the testator's son, Thomas Bell (who died on the 16th December, 1901), and have since died, are, no or before the 13th day of May, 1903, to come in and prove their respective claims in the chambers of Mr. Justice Farwell and Mr. Justice Swinfen Eady, at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, England, or in default they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order. Wednesday, the 27th day of May, 1903, at 12 o'clock at noon, at the said chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.

NOTE.—The testator's brother, Joshua Bell, is believed to have had six children born in England—namely, Robert, Salley or Sarah, Ann, Susan, Edith, and Jonas. Jonas died in 1837, and Susan in 1840. The testator's brother, Joshua Bell, accompanied by his children, Robert, Salley or Sarah, and Ann left England in the year 1855 in the ship Tuscarora for the United States of North America, since which time no tidings of them have reached England, although it is alleged that they went by train from Philadelphia to Ohio. Edith, the daughter of Joshua Bell, is believed to have married one Todd, a carpenter, and went to reside at Tunbridge Wells about 45 years ago.—Dated the 20th day of March, 1903.
