PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twelfth day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and three in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Oswald, Chapel Green, Bradford, situate within the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Stephen Bowling, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon.

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Saint Stephen Bowling, of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Great Horton, in the said county and diocese, and of the parish of Bradford, in the said county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parishes and parish.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Saint Stephen Bowling, of the said new parish of Great Horton, and of the said parish of Bradford should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Oswald Chapel Green Bradford situate as aforesaid.

“Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William Boyd Bishop of Ripon, as such Bishop and also as the patron in right of his See of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Stephen Bowling, and with the consent of the Reverend John Robertson, Doctor in Divinity, as vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Bradford and as such vicar the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Great Horton, and with the consents of the Venerable John Richardson, Doctor in Divinity, Archdeacon of Southwark, of Number 163 Tulse Hill, in the county of Surrey, of the Reverend Ernest Augustus Eardley-Wilmot, Prebendary of Wells, Vicar of Saint Jude South Kensington, in the county of Middlesex, of the Reverend Robert Baker Girdlestone, Clerk in Holy Orders, of the Glade, Branch Hill, Hampstead, in the said county of Middlesex, of the Reverend Joseph Edmund Rogers, Clerk in Holy Orders, Rector of Walcot near Bath, in the county of Somerset, and of the Reverend John Barton, Clerk in Holy Orders, of Castelnau, near Wimbledon, in the said county of Surrey, as the patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Bradford (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint Stephen Bowling, of the said new parish of Great Horton, and of the said parish of Bradford which are described
