

in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Oswald Chapel Green Bradford situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Oswald Chapel Green Bradford.'

"We therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Oswald Chapel Green Bradford comprising:—

"I. All that portion of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Stephen Bowling in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon which is bounded upon the north by the new parish of All Saints, Horton, upon the west partly by the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Great Horton and partly by the parish of Bradford, upon the south partly by the last-named parish and partly by the new parish of Saint Matthew Bank Foot, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining side that is to say upon the east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Matthew, Bank Foot from the said new parish of Saint Stephen, Bowling at the junction of Smiddles-lane with Manchester-road and extending thence northward along the middle of Manchester-road for a distance of forty-two chains or thereabouts to a point near the junction of Manchester-road with Ryan-street upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Stephen, Bowling from the said new parish of All Saints, Horton.

"II. And also all that contiguous portion of the said new parish of Great Horton which is bounded upon the north by the said new parish of All Saints Horton, upon the east by the said new parish of Saint Stephen, Bowling, upon part of the south-west by the said parish of Bradford, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say upon the remaining part of the south-west and upon the north-west by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said parish of Bradford from the said new parish of Great Horton crosses the middle of the footpath leading from Brown Royd Hill-road across Brown Royd Hill to the junction of Haycliffe-lane and Back-lane, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of one chain and a half or thereabouts to the junction of Haycliffe-lane and Back-lane and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Back-lane for a distance of five chains and a half or thereabouts to a point opposite to the wall or fence forming the north-western boundary of the premises of the Wesleyan Methodist Chapel near Haycliffe Mill which wall or fence here forms the boundary which divides the west division of the parliamentary borough of Bradford from the central division of the same borough and extending thence north-eastward to and then first north-eastward then south-eastward and then again north-eastward along the said parliamentary division boundary for a distance of thirty-three chains or thereabouts to the point where such boundary turns eastward towards Quaker-lane and extending thence north-eastward and in a straight line for a distance of eleven chains or thereabouts to the point in the middle of the footpath which leads from Great Horton along the southern side of Horton Park to Quaker-lane and Little Horton-lane where such footpath passes the south-eastern corner of Horton Park upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Great Horton from the said new parish of All Saints, Horton.

"III. And also all that contiguous portion of the said parish of Bradford which is bounded upon the west and upon the north-east by the said new parish of Great Horton, upon the south-east by the said new parish of Saint Stephen Bowling and upon the remaining side that is to say upon the south-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Stephen Bowling from the said parish of Bradford at a point in the middle of Brown Royd Hill-road opposite to the footpath leading across Brown Royd Hill to the junction of Haycliffe-lane and Back-lane, and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of such footpath for a distance of twenty chains or thereabouts to the point where it is crossed by the boundary which divides the said parish of Bradford from the said new parish of Great Horton."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of March, 1903.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twelfth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and three, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the parish of Tooting Graveney in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Rochester and within the limits of the administrative county of London.

"Whereas we are satisfied that the said parish of Tooting Graveney is a parish wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the
