

the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for this purpose on the fifteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and three by the votes of the whole number of persons present and voting and submitted to His Majesty the King in Council.

Whereas in Statute XV, 1, of the Statutes of Saint John's College in the University of Oxford it is enacted (inter alia):

"The President and Fellows may from time to time pay out of the Corporate revenues a sum not exceeding five hundred pounds in any year to a Pension Fund and may add to it a sum deducted from the Tuition Fund such deduction not to exceed ten pounds per centum in any year. The proceeds of any Advowsons which may be sold by the College may if the President and Fellows think fit be added to the Capital of this Fund."

And whereas it appears to us the President and Fellows of the said College that it is desirable that the said Statute shall be altered and amended in manner hereinafter appearing:

Now we the President and Fellows of the said College in exercise of the powers vested in us under and by virtue of the fifty-fourth section of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do by this present instrument under the Corporate Seal of our said College alter and amend Statute XV, 1, of the Statutes of the College as hereinbefore set out by inserting after the words "the proceeds of any advowsons which may be sold by the College" the words "and any property which the President and Fellows hold in trust for the purchase of advowsons."

Given under our Common Seal this twentieth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and three.

The following Statute made by the Governing Body of Magdalene College, Cambridge, on the twenty-second June, one thousand nine hundred and three, and sealed on the twenty-fourth June, one thousand nine hundred and three, has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

STATUTE made by the Governing Body of Magdalene College Cambridge at a General Meeting specially summoned for the purpose by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the number of persons present and voting on Monday the twenty-second day of June one thousand nine hundred and three in substitution for Statute XXV of the existing Statutes of the College.

Statute XXV.

Emoluments of the Master and Fellows.

After deduction of all stipends and allowances to the Officers of the College and of the payments to the General Fund for Open Scholarships the Living and Building Fund and all other needful and reasonable general expenses and of such payments as may be required to defray the expenses of the management of the College, property and to keep in sound repair the College buildings and the buildings of the College estates and otherwise to permanently improve the College property and also of such payment as may become due to the University the surplus annual revenue of the College (exclusive of the revenues arising from the Peckard Fund and from the proceeds of the sale of the advowson of Ellingham) shall be divided into nine equal parts of which the Master shall receive two and each of the Fellows one. Provided that when such surplus annual revenue exceeds two thousand two hundred and fifty pounds (£2,250) the excess shall be applied in such proportion as the Governing Body thinks fit either to the increase of the number of Fellowships or to the increase of the number or emoluments of the Scholars or to such other purposes as are considered by the Governing Body most advantageous to the College.

The annual revenue arising from the Peckard Fund shall be divided into six equal parts of which the Master shall receive two and the four remaining parts shall be divided equally amongst the four Fellows who have first completed a twelve years' tenure of office as Tutor Lecturer or Dean in the College: Provided that, if at any time there are fewer than four Fellows qualified as above, then the remaining part or parts shall be given to the Fellow or Fellows who shall have first completed a three years' tenure of office as Tutor Lecturer or Dean in the College and who continue to hold one or other of such offices and in the event of two or more of the Fellows being equally qualified as above to receive any such part it shall be equally divided between or among them provided that if at any time there are fewer than four such Fellows each such Fellow shall then receive one part and the remaining part or parts shall be carried to the capital of the Peckard Fund.

Every resident Fellow shall be entitled to rooms in College free of charge and to such daily allowance for commons during residence as the Governing Body from time to time determines provided that such allowance does not in all exceed fifty pounds (£50) a year.

The Master shall occupy the lodge free of rent rates taxes and the cost of external and structural repairs and shall receive the annual income arising from the proceeds of the sale of the advowson of Ellingham, together with an allowance at the rate of one hundred pounds (£100) a year. Such allowance shall be in lieu of all payments hitherto made to the Master in respect of salary commons chamber rents poundages and rents of cottages.
