

stand on the roof, or sit on the outside rails, buffers, or guards of any car, or, except by the express permission of the conductor first obtained, stand in the interior of any car.

No person, except a passenger or intending passenger, shall enter or mount any car, and no person shall hold or hang on by any part of any car, or (except as aforesaid) travel therein otherwise than on a seat provided for passengers.

Entering or leaving Cars.

12. Every person shall enter or depart from a car by the step of the hindermost or conductor's platform, and not otherwise, unless so directed by the conductor.

All persons desiring to alight from any car shall do so before any person boards the car for the purpose of travelling thereon, and all persons desiring to board the car shall permit such persons to alight as aforesaid.

No person shall enter, board, or leave, or attempt to enter, board, or leave, any car whilst in motion.

Any person leaving a car shall be deemed to have completed his journey.

Cars containing full number.

13. When a car contains the full number of passengers which it is certified to contain, no person beyond such number shall enter, mount, or remain in or upon any such car except by express permission of the conductor first obtained.

Payment of Fares.

14. Each passenger shall upon demand pay to the conductor or other servant of the Corporation acting in the performance of his duty the fare legally payable for the journey, and accept a ticket corresponding thereto, or if the car is provided with a money box for the receipt of fares each passenger shall immediately on entering the car, or when required, deposit in the money box the fare legally payable for the journey.

No child under five years of age, who is sitting on the lap of a passenger, shall be liable to pay a fare.

Tickets.

15. Each passenger shall show his ticket (if any) when required so to do by the conductor or other servant of the Corporation acting in the performance of his duty, and shall also when required so to do either deliver up his ticket or pay the fare legally payable for the distance or stage travelled over by such passenger.

Any ticket for the time being issued by the Corporation in respect of fare shall only be available for the car on or for which it is issued (except in the case of transfer or season tickets) and no passenger shall be entitled to leave any car for any purpose whatever at any stage and resume his journey by a different car to that on or for which such ticket was issued without payment of a fresh fare from the point at which the passenger entered the second or other car.

Tickets are not transferable.

No passenger shall wilfully alter or deface his ticket so as to render the number or any material portion thereof illegible.

No passenger shall use or attempt to use a ticket on any day for which such ticket is not available, or use a ticket which has already been used on a previous journey.

Workmen's Tickets.

16. A passenger not being an artisan, mechanic, or daily labourer within the true intent and meaning of the Acts of Parliament relating to the Corporation or to tramways, shall not use or attempt to use any ticket intended only for such artisans, mechanics, or daily labourers.

Interference with Conductor or Driver.

17. No person shall wilfully obstruct or impede any officer or servant of the Corporation in the execution of his duty upon or in connection with any car, tramway, or premises of the Corporation.

No person other than the conductor or driver shall signal a car to start, or shall change or remove the route indicators or destination boards or interfere with the controllers, brakes, lights, ventilators, trolley cord or any part of a car or its equipment, or without reasonable cause signal a car to stop.

Disabled Cars.

18. If at any time a car becomes disabled, or in any way injured, or from any cause unable to proceed, the passengers shall upon the request of the conductor leave the same, and if such passengers have paid their fares they shall not be entitled to demand back the amount of their fares so paid.

No person shall, except with the leave of the conductor, enter a disabled or injured car.

Cars proceeding to Sheds.

19. No person shall travel upon a car which is proceeding to a car shed and is not on its usual route, unless permitted to do so by the conductor, and where a person is so permitted he shall pay the usual fare payable on such route.

Persons suffering from Disease not to travel on Cars.

20. No person suffering from any infectious or contagious disease shall board, enter, or travel on any car, or attempt so to do. And no driver or conductor shall suffer or permit any such person so to do.

Conductors and Drivers to enforce Bye-laws.

21. Every conductor and driver shall to the best of his ability enforce these Bye-laws and prevent the breach thereof, and if any such conductor or driver fails to enforce the same as aforesaid, he shall be deemed to have committed a breach thereof.

Exhibition of Bye-laws.

22. There shall be placed and kept placed in a conspicuous position inside of each car in use a printed copy of these Bye-laws.

Date of coming into force.

23. These Bye-laws shall come into force on the 2nd day of September, 1903.

The Common Seal of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Rochdale was hereunto affixed in pursuance of a resolution of the Council passed at a Meeting of such Council held on the 2nd day of July, 1903, in the presence of SAML. TURNER, Mayor.

JAMES LEACH, Town Clerk.
